"HALF SHOT AT SUNRISE", HORN'S FRIDAY AND SATURDAY

"Half Shot at Sunrise," a wartime comedy, with rollicking songs elaborate settings, sensational dance numbers and a compelling interest throughout, opens at Horn's Theatre Friday for two days.

The story deals with two American soldiers who go A. W. O. L. in Paris during the World War. It is packed with humorous situations in dialog from the first reel to the last. Wheeler and Woolsey as the dough-boys, win new laughing honors with their inimitable clowning. They steal their Colonel's car, his daughter and his "goat," electrify hundreds of military police, raise everything but the dead, and finally emerge heroes.

We have a beautiful assortment of artificial flowers, suitable for any decorative purposes. Stahl's Ten Cent Stores.

OAK GROVE NEWS

Bostic, R-1, Dec. 1.—There was a large crowd present for the old time singing Sunday afternoon. Some good old time singing was enjoyed. Rev. J. W. Ingle made a short talk. Two selections by the Oak Grove quartet and a piano selection by Mr. Roy Blanton was also enjoyed.

The Epworth League met at 6:30 and gave a good program. At 7 o'clock our new pastor, Rev. J. N. Snow brought out an inspiring message from the text "Encourage Thyself in the Lord thy God." Everybody is well pleased with him and hope his stay among us may be long and profitable. Next Sunday is our regular preaching day.

We will have three sermons each month instead of two as has been the custom. The first Sunday, the second Sunday night and the third Sunday night will be the regular appointments.
