Young Avondale Woman Dies

at Haynes Memorial Church.

Avondale, Dec. 22.—The town was saddened by the death of Mrs. Boyd Gentry which occurred at the Rutherford hospital on the morning of Dec. 8th. Funeral services were held Tuesday afternoon Dec. 9th, at the Haynes Memorial Baptist church, of which she was a member.

Mrs. Gentry was beloved by all who knew her for her sweet and gracious manner. The many lovely flowers gave mute testimony of the love and esteem in which she was held.

Mrs. Gentry is survived by her husband, mother, Mrs. Plemmons, two sisters, Mrs. James Goode, Jr., of Avondale; and Mrs. Lela Hamrick of Ellenboro; four brothers, Hardin, Henry and James Plemmons of Avondale; and Howard Plemmons, of Gaffney. An infant son preceded her in death a few hours. They were buried together.

The family have the sympathy of their hosts of friends in this hour of sorrow. May they be able to see that God's way is best and while our loss is heavy and we miss her, remember that God gathers the young and old and that some day we will again be with Gladys where there will be no disappointment, no sorrow or parting in that Heavenly city foursquare.

Dr. S. E. Welchel conducted the funeral services.

Flower girls were Misses Luna Harrill, Bernice Baynard, Lillian Smith and Martha Hamrick, Mesdames James Goode, Sr., Ernest Smart, Carl Baynard and Glenn Blanton.

TO OPERATE MOORE HOTEL

Mrs. A. W. Falvey and Miss Mayme Martin have leased the Moore hotel and will take possession Jan. 1st. That the ladies will make a success out of the venture goes without saying, as both are thoroughly experienced in this work, having successfully conducted the old Mabree hotel here, later the Crowell House, and more recently one of the city's best and most popular boarding houses.

The Courier failed to get the name under which the ladies will run the new hotel.

CLIFFSIDE NEWS

BAPTIST CHURCH NOTES.

Cliffside, Dec. 22.—The big snow seemed to make the majority of people late for Sunday school last Sunday. There were about 396 when classes assembled, but others came late. Still others came for the preaching service. It was bitterly cold and somehow the furnace did not work just right and as a result the church was about ten degrees cooler than usual, registering 60. The closing exercises of the Sunday school was curtailed and the pastor only spoke for about fifteen minutes, but he brought to us a fine Christmas message in that time.

The B. Y. P. U.'s were fine Sunday and a number of the boys and young men had to stand around the assembly room. There were well over 200 in the assembly room Sunday evening and some who were in the unions just before were upstairs getting ready for the pageant.

Instead of the usual evening sermon a Christmas pageant was presented which many say was the best ever given by the church. Members of the large cast were a bit uneasy as they had not had but one general rehearsal because of the fifteen inch snow which fell Tuesday night and a large part of it still lingers with us. However, those having part studied at home and had memorized their parts. There was a large number from out of town present and we were glad indeed to have them.

R. C. S. B. Y. P. U. rendered a short, but very interesting Christmas pageant or playlet at the closing period of the unions Sunday evening. The Judson union won the banner again Sunday evening. This is one of the two senior unions and like the seven others seems to be growing all the time.

The junior department of the Sunday school decided a few weeks ago to make birthday offerings on the Sunday nearest their birthday and give the money thus accumulated to the building fund. Last Sunday they had over ten dollars. If all the departments will follow this example and give only a penny for each year of their lives it will soon amount to a good sum.

The church decided some weeks ago to observe a White Christmas and dispense with the treats to members of the Sunday school and instead make an offering to help others.

METHODIST CHURCH NOTES.

Rev. Rhinehardt brought to us a good message on Wednesday night using as his subject "Envy." He asked all to read Proverbs 14.

The Epworth League is doing fine and the interest is good. They are having fine meetings and splendid programs.

The W. M. S. held the last meeting of the year Sunday morning and paid up all pledges in full. Mrs. L. G. Garvin, the retiring president was presented with a gift in token of the appreciation of the members for her faithful service.

Sunday morning Mr. Glenn McKinney was presented with a gift from the Sunday school as a token of appreciation for his faithful service as pianist.

Despite the bad weather the service was well attended Sunday and Rev. Rhinehardt read from Genesis 21 and Matt. 3. He delivered a fine message. We are so glad to have Mrs. B. B. Goode join our church by letter from the Henrietta charge.

The Hi-League is looking forward to Tuesday night of this week when they will have a Christmas party at the church. There is to be a Christmas tree and a social hour together. Mrs. D. H. Rhinehardt is director of the Epworth League work and is proving a wonderful leader for the young folks.

Mrs. Hawkins Beauty Parlor has been doing a rushing business and she has added to her equipment another new hair dryer.

Mrs. L. G. Garvin is spending Christmas with her mother, Mrs. Derby at Sandy Springs, S. C. She is accompanied by her little daughter, Carolyn.

Among the students at home for the holidays are Miss Louise Lemmons, Columbia Bible college; Miss Georgia Blanton, Boone; Misses Rosa Mae and Margaret Haynes, Meridith college; Miss Edna Love, Duke; Miss Virginia Mae Love, Chapel Hill; Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Jenkins, Chapel Hill; Mr. James Padgett, State college; Mr. Robert Robertson, Columbia Bible college. Mr. Robertson was accompanied by two friends from the college, Messrs. Bass and Hudson who will spend the holidays here.

Dr. Bush of the Rutherford Hospital staff was a dinner guest of Dr. Oren Moss at the Cliffside hotel Sunday evening.

Dr. and Mrs. H. L. Robertson have for their guests, Mrs. Robertson's sister, Miss Anne Finch of Guilford college.

Miss Lucille Frye of Statesville, N. C., is the guest of Miss Alice Carpenter.

Mrs. J. R. Packard continues very ill at her home on North Main street.

Mr. Leister Jolley who has been ill so long is reported somewhat improved.

Mr. Chas Haynes has returned from a business trip to points in Georgia.

CHRISTMAS

I wish you joy this Christmas day
With friends and loved ones
And I pray
That if some hurt has come to mar,
You'll find sweet healing
In His star.

And may the light shine softly there,
And give you comfort,
Help you bear
The pain—whatever it may be—
With dear ones 'round your Christmas tree.

And let your heart remembrance bring—
Some sweet and tender little thing
That came to you

In childish days when mother knew
The household ways,
Be not ashamed to shed a tear
For those who loved you
Most and dear.

And let this make you know and see
The need of you—
What e'er it be.
And so I wish you joy complete,
Where candles gleam and
Songs are sweet.
And may you follow day by day
His light and never Lose your way.
