

CLIFFSIDE NEWS

Cliffside, Dec. 30.—Despite the fact that many people had not returned from their Christmas visiting, last Sunday was a good day with us. According to our custom of each fourth Sunday morning the service is planned especially for the young people. The pastor read Exodus 35:30-35 and his text was the last verse. The subject was "I Weave my Web of Life." Rev. Hunnicutt had on the desk a number of towels he had secured from the mill here. There was only one perfect towel in the lot. The others all had some defect and he explained how all the imperfections were caused. The lessons and applications were helpful to all.

At this service we were delighted with special music by two little girls aged seven and eight years, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robinson of Greensboro, N. C. They sang beautifully a duet and then Mrs. Robinson and the little girls sang a trio.

The B. Y. P. U. s. had a fine attendance again Sunday evening and the banner was won again by the Judson union, one of the senior unions.

For the evening service the pastor read Phil. 3 and the text was the 13th verse, or a part of it. "Forgetting those things which are behind, and reaching forth unto those things which are before." The subject was "Turn loose and catch on." In speaking of the New Year he said we would do well to turn loose all the things that are not for our good and catch on to the things that are good and helpful.

The subject for next Sunday morning will be "The Glory of Going on." Mr. Robert Robertson will conduct the prayer service Wednesday night of this week.

The W. M. S. sent 39 fine large cakes to the Alexander schools at Union Mills Tuesday of last week also another quilt and a sum of money given by the church. The Sunday school class of Mrs. John L. Scruggs sent a lot of home made candies.

Rev. and Mrs. J. A. Hunnicutt spent Monday of last week with Mrs. Hunnicutt's mother, Mrs. Abbie Wingo at Fair Forest, S. C. Mrs. Wingo has been ill for several days. She came to Cliffside Wednesday and will spend some time here with Rev. and Mrs. Hunnicutt.

The many friends of Mrs. Maurice Hendrick sympathize with her in the loss of her father, Mr. J. V. McFarland who died at his home at Rutherfordton last Wednesday. Several from here attended the funeral Thursday afternoon at Brittain Presbyterian church. "Sheriff Jim" as he was affectionately called by many of his friends made his home in Cliffside for a few years and had a great many friends here who learned of his passing with genuine sorrow.

Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Blanton had for their guest over the weekend Mr. Jack Blanton of Gaffney, S. C., who is a student at Clemson college.

We are glad to see Mr. R. B. Watkins out again after being ill for the past three weeks.

Mrs. Hoyle Lovelace is ill at her home on North Main street.

Mrs. J. R. Packard who has been ill for several months is not expected to live. Her condition is considered critical, with no hope of recovery.

The school teachers are expected the last of this week as the school will reopen Monday.

Mr. and Mrs. A. T. Humphries of Lincolnton, have been visiting Mrs. G. K. Moore and daughter, Miss Virginia.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred Robinson and children of Greensboro, are visiting relatives in Cliffside and vicinity.

Mr. and Mrs. F. S. Hall, of Avondale, were dinner guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Hames last Saturday evening.

Mrs. J. P. Carpenter, Miss Alice and Mr. Arthur Carpenter, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Carpenter and little son Ed Jr., were guests of Prof. and Mrs. F. S. Hall at Avondale last Thursday.

It is about as busy a time in the stores this week at last for they are taking stock this week and we remember past experiences of this sort and know that it is some job.

Miss Pamela and Ferne Pruet spent the week-end with Mrs. Guard Hamrick at Boiling Springs.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Carpenter of Hot Springs, Va., have been visiting Mr. Carpenter's mother, Mrs. Hester Carpenter.

Mr. and Mrs. T. T. Carpenter, Mrs. G. D. Blanton and little son Tommy, and Mrs. Hester Carpenter spent last Saturday with Mrs. Carpenter's mother, Mrs. Aaron Wall near High Shoals church.

Mr. and Mrs. Baxter Splawn and little son, of Shelby, spent the week-end here with Mr. and Mrs. D. C. Splawn.

Mr. D. C. Colvin and family spent Christmas with Mrs. Colvin's parents Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Rudisill at Dallas, N. C.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Womick and children spent Christmas with Mrs. Womick's parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. G. Freeman at Shelby.

Mr. and Mrs. Forest Griffin of Spindale, spent Christmas here with Mrs. Griffin's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Quinn Womick.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to thank our friends and neighbors for their many deeds of kindness and of service rendered to us during the illness and death of our dear husband and father; also for the many beautiful flowers. May each of you receive a bountiful share of God's richest blessings.

MRS. JAMES M. ROACH AND CHILDREN.

Craven county growers increased their corn crop by 117,405 bushels in 1930. This was done by increasing the acreage, using some land idle in 1929 and by better methods, says C. B. Faris, county agent.

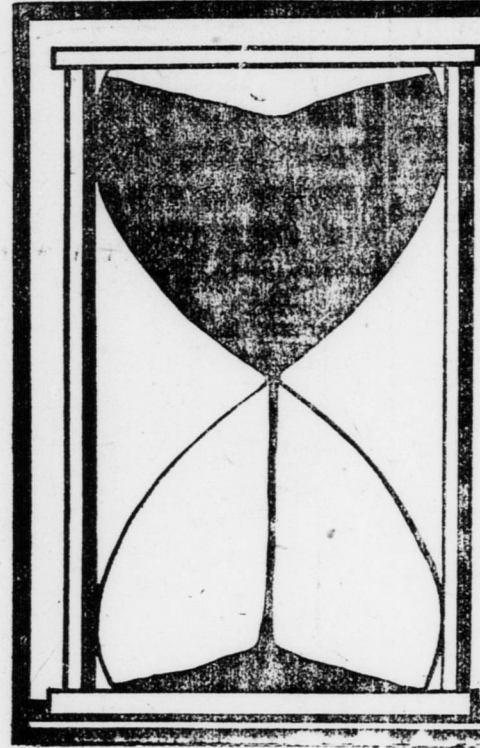

Ladies, now is the time to buy a felt hat. Former values up to $3.50, closing out at 95c. Mrs. E. E. McCurry.
