Ellenboro Has Three Robberies

Ellenboro, Jan. 5.—Thieves have entered and robbed three business establishments in Ellenboro during the past few days.

Robbers, entering the new Martin Bros. drug store, took a quantity of cigars, smoking tobacco, cigarettes, Kodaks and drugs. Entrance was gained during night time through a window in the rear of the building.

Garage Entered.
The Jones Bros. garage here also was entered and automobile accessories and tools taken. Admittance was gained through a door in the back of the garage.

The warehouse of the Ellenboro Ginning company was entered and sacks of cotton seed meal and hulls taken.

Officers, who have been working on the three robberies, have recovered some of the goods taken from the drug store. The stolen property was found hidden in a culvert on the highway a short distance from Ellenboro. No arrests in any of the three robberies have been made.

FRESHMAN MUSIC CLUB MEETS

The fourth meeting of the freshman music club of Forest City was held last Saturday morning, Jan. 3, with Martha Alexander as hostess.

In the short history of the club much has been accomplished among the music students at the grammar school.

In the absence of the president Ethel Young, the vice president, Dorothy Turner presided. The roll call was answered with the name of some composer.

A special feature of the program was "a scale contest". Those taking part were, Lois Lawing, Bernice Dorsey, Katherine Blanton, Martha Green, Martha Alexander, Margaret Bodie, Vera Beachboard, Dorothy Turner, Frances Courtney and Mildred McBrayer.

Mrs. Broadus Moore, chairman of the senior music club, was an honored guest of the meeting and kindly presented the prize to Dorothy Turner, winner of the scale contest. Martha Green received honorable mention.

Other prizes were given by Miss Goggans to Kinscella Class pupils doing the best "memory work," to Bernice Dorsey now in the advanced Kinscella class, and Lois Lawing for the beginners class. The hostess served fruits and candy after a delightful social hour we adjourned to meet with Vera Beachboard the first Saturday in February.
