FLOYDS CREEK NEWS

Forest City, R-1, Jan. 12.—The B. Y. P. U. of Floyd's Creek Baptist church elected the officers for this quarter, at a recent business meeting. Mr. Garnel Wall was elected president; Mr. Toy Summers, vice president: Miss Edith Holland, secretary; Miss Thelma Phillips, treasurer; Miss Ruby Phillips, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Ida Tate, Bible reader's leader; Mrs. G. E. White, pianist; and Mr. Thomas Gordon, choirster. The following group captains were elected: Group A, Mrs. Tan Davidson, Group B, Miss Gertrude Tate, Group C, Mrs. Jesse Sane and Group D, Mrs. G. E. White. The B. Y. P. U. which was organized only a short time ago, is doing a splendid work with a bright future before it, for still better work. The older people of the community are showing they are cooperating with its young people by being present at the meeting for which they are to be highly commended.

The box and oyster supper which was held at the Floyd's Creek school last Friday night was well attended. Mrs. Anne Scruggs won the cake for being the prettiest girl present, while Mr. Leared Wells, won the jar of pickles for being the ugliest man present. It is the wish of the writer that Mr. Wells, will be so improved by the pickles, that someone else will win this prize next time. The cake walk was won by Miss Thelma Phillips and Mr. John McCurry. A nice sum was raised which went for the benefit of the school.

The members of the Floyd's Creek B. Y. P. U. are taking the study course under the able direction of the pastor, Rev. A. G. Melton. It is hoped that much good will be accomplished by this study course.

Mr. and Mrs. Tan Davidson and Mr. and Mrs. Fred Chapman spent Sunday with Mr. Elisha Davidson.

Mrs. Ida Spakes, of Forest City, spent the week-end with Mrs. G. E. White.

Mr. Leared Wells is spending sometime in the community, the guest of his sister, Mrs. Miller Dobbins.

MATHENY-WATERS.

Miss Mattie Matheny, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Matheny, of near Forest City, and Mr. Charlie Waters, son of Mr. J. S. Waters, Forest City, R-2, were quietly married Christmas day in Spartanburg by Probate Judge Burton Hicks.

Mrs. Waters was a senior in Cool Springs high school where she was very popular. She has a host of friends that will be glad to learn of her marriage. Mr. Waters is a prosperous young farmer. At present they are making their home with the groom's parents. We wish them a long happy life together.

HOLLY SPRINGS

Harris, R-1, Jan. 12.—Rev. D. J. Hunt filled his regular appointment at Holly Springs Sunday afternon.

The Holly Springs people are planning to have a teacher and officer's training school in February. The date will be announced later.

We hope to have a large crowd present. We invite all the near-by churches to come and be with us in this training school.

The little infant son, of Mr. and Mrs. Memory Roach was buried at Holly Springs Sunday afternoon. Rev. D. J. Hunt had charge of the funeral services. Mr. Lloyd Williamson had charge of the funeral arrangements. The little flower girls were: Misses Bernice, Avis, Mary Sue, Annie Lou and Blanche Splawn and Reba Roach.

Mrs. Memory Roach, mother of the little son just buried, is in the hospital improving slowly.

Mr. Joe Robbins who has had a stroke of paralysis is very sick at this writing.

Mrs. Summie McDaniel who has been sick is improving, we are glad to note.

Miss Pauline Cole spent Saturday night with Miss Ina Robbins.

SEE H. L. Kanipe for your automobile work, welding, brazing, rebuilding and charging batteries.

MARIE DRESSLER AND POLLY MORAN AT HORN'S

Marie Dressler and Polly Moran have scored another comedy "ten-strike" with "Reducing," their latest Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer picture which will be shown at Horn's Theatre Friday and Saturday of this week.

"Reducing" has been admirably directed by Charles "Chuck" Reisner, who also wielded the megaphone for "Caught Short," the previous comedy triumph of the hilariously funny pair.

The picture pokes fun at beauty parlors in the same hilarious way its predecessor took a fling at Wall Street. The plot concerns Pauline Rochay, beauty parlor expert, who invites her sister, Marie, to come from the country for a visit with her whole family.

What happens when the buxom Miss Dressler loads her extensive tribe abroad a Pullman, and unloads them at the Grand Central Station, New York, starts the laugh ball rolling and it doesn't stop for an hour and more.

As is customary with modern full length comedies, a serious love story underlies the laugh-making In "Reducing" it concerns Anita Page and William Bakewell; Sally Eilers and William (Buster) Collier, Jr. These four personable young people do their work delightfully and act as splendid foils for the two comediennes.
