Community Womans' Club Meeting

Henrietta, Feb. 10.—The Community Womans' Club was delightfully entertained on last Thursday at the home of Mrs. John Roach in Avondale, with Mrs. Roach, Mrs. A. W. Lynch, Mrs. Charlie James, Mrs. H. M. Owens, Mrs. Robt. Bland and Miss Brama Layne as hostesses.

The general topic of the year on art was continued with the study of a notable English portrait painters. A well prepared paper on "Reynold's Life and Character" by Mrs. Clyde Mahaffee read by Mrs. T. C. Lovelace was thoroughly enjoyed. Mrs. J. A. Hunnicutt pleased her listeners with descriptions of three of Reynold's studies; "The Age of Innocence," "Simplicity," and Mrs. Sidon as "The Tragic Muse." A delightful musical number given by Miss Virginia Christie was an added feature to the program. Following this a short story of Rosetti and his family with description of the picture "The Blessed Damosel" was splendidly presented by Mrs. M. B. Mahaffee. Miss Cleo Sane gave a reading on "The Blessed Damosel," which concluded this well arranged program.

The business session was presided over by the president Mrs. O. J. Mooneyham, and a complete report from the civic chairman, Mrs. S. J. Asbury, Jr., outlined the program of Legislative Council of the North Carolina Club Women including measures of three classifications. In the first class are the measures which will be presented to the Legislature to be enacted into laws. In the second class are measures to be discussed and studied with the best legislative minds and presented to the Legislature at any propitious time. In the third class are those measures which will be presented by other agencies, but which will have the endorsement and support of the Council.

The Welfare chairman Mrs. T. C. Lovelace gave a splendid report on the past month's work. Due to the drive started by the Textile Lion's Club to encourage and aid all undernourished school children to drink milk and to furnish milk to the needy children; which cause has been encouraged and aided by funds from the Community Woman's Club it was found that a total of 246 school children in the three communities of Cliffside, Caroleen and Henrietta have begun to either carry milk to school to drink at the first recess period, to buy it at the school; or to be furnished the milk free of charge where necessary. A total of $44.10 was donated to this cause and for clothing in the four communities. Fifty magazines was reported distributed. The president reminded the members of the election of new officers which will take place in March for the next Club year. The January committee on Ways and Means reported a net profit from their program of $44.00, which amount was turned into the Club treasury by the chairman Mrs. Asbury. The February committee will present their plan for raising their quota at a later date.

The visitors at the meeting included Mesdames Raleigh Haynes, Dennis Camp, F. A. McNeely, C. F. Ward, John M. Layne, Bagwell, Smith, Henry, W. Hightower, S. O. Stoffer, R. R. Randall, Elmore, S. H. Holland, Fannie Hicks, Misses Ostine Whisnant, Amanda Haynes, Lila Fremman, Lucile Nanney, Ruby Smith, Ruth Robertson, Mary Pratt, Amanda Head, and out of town guests Mrs. G. C. McDaniel of Forest City, Mrs. John Smart of Mooresboro, Mr. D. W. Andrews of Spindale and Mrs. J. B. Davidson of Cliffside. At the conclusion of the program a delicious iced salad course in an attractive color motif was served by the hostesses.
