O. D. Barrs Swims After His Fugitive

Newton, April 18.-Sheriff O. D. Barrs and Deputy S. G. Jones have won reputations in swimming bouts recently. A few days ago while out on a liquor raid on the South Fork river about 200 yards from a mill pond belonging to Sanford Cline, the officers happened on a still and about 1,000 gallons of beer .

After destroying the beer they decided to wait awhile to see if someone would come up. While the officers were in hiding two men came up to look over the situation, but were soon surprised by the appearance of the officers. Making a dash for liberty, they headed for the mill pond and sprang in, but Sheriff Barrs and Jones showed their sportsmanship by hopping in after them. Then it was that the swimming contest began. Jones could not show the speed the Sheriff had, and failed to get his man, but the sheriff went on across and nabbed his man when he hit the bank on the other side. He was brought to Newton and lodged in jail to await a hearing in Recorders court.

"They left today for their new home in Spindale, two miles east of Rutherfordton, where he will supply the Presbyterian churches of Spindale and Forest City, four miles distant.

"Mr. Stribling has been in the ministry for 26 years, having graduated at Louisville Seminary; he was born at Westminster, S. C. Before coming to Rockingham, Sept. 1, 1926, he was pastor at Waynesboro, Georgia. He was Moderator for Mecklenburg fall Presbytery, 1929. During his pastorate of the Rockingham Presbyterian church, he has been popular and earnest in his work. He was always ready in cooperating with the other denompared, and the outbreak was halt- inations, in holding union services; and this spirit will be missed in his departure.

"Mr. and Mrs. Stribling have one son, Ross M. Stribling, who graduated from Clemson in 1929, and who is now chief textile chemist in the American Enka Rayon plant at Asheville.
