Miss Padgett Honored.

Asheville, Aug. 5.—Miss Bernadette Johnson entertained eight tables of bridge at her home on Merritt Avenue, Wednesday afternoon in honor of Mrs. Wm. Cralke Sayre, former Miss Frances Thomas and Miss Miriam Padgett, of Forest City, the house guest of the hostess. A color scheme of pink, lavender and green was carried out in the decorations and refreshments. At the conclusion of the games an ice cream was served. Prizes were awarded for high score, second high and low score. Miss Padgett was presented a guest prize while the bride, Mrs. Sayre, was given a linen shower which included many handsome and unusual gifts.

Miss Johnson was assisted in entertaining her guests by her mother, Mrs. P. G. Johnson and her aunt, Mrs. F. B. Moss, formerly of Forest City.

The guest list included: Misses Dorothy Kimberly, Mary Wentworth, Margaret Wentworth, Martha Brown, Emily Dykes, of Bristol, Gertrude Stein, of Mobile, Ala., Susan Jackson, Mary Hodges, Virginia Wright, Katherine Wright, Wilma Grantham, Joyce Sayre, Mary Lawrence Baker, Frances Farr, Charlotte Palmer and Miss Mary Beth Van Landingham, of Scotland Neck, Gladys McNabb, Louise McNabb, Aline Michael, Frances Michael, Elizabeth Creighton, Du-Bose Cecil, Starr Adams, Mary Emma Leamon, Lorraine McKenzie, Ruth Thunn, Mildred Gilliam, Jean Gallacher and Myrtle Allport.

Happy Birthday Surprise.

One of the happiest days of her life (naming Mrs. W. C. Blanton), was Sunday, August 2, when she was the honor guest at a birthday picnic dinner which had been planned by several of her relatives in celebration of her birthday and which came as a complete surprise to her. The dinner was spread on tables out in the yard at the Mrs. J. C. Scruggs place, where Mrs. Blanton's son, Mr. Guy Blanton, and family make their home. The tables were arranged under the beautiful shade trees in the yard, surrounded by lovely blooming flowers. A most delectable dinner, consisting of fried chicken, old ham, sandwiches, cakes, pies and all that goes to make up a picnic dinner was served. As they gathered at the tables the invocation was given by Dr. W. A. Ayers.

Mr. Ivy Cowan Honored.

Cherryville, July 30.—Mrs. Dazel McDowell Williams entertained with ten tables of bridge Wednesday afternoon, complimenting Mrs. Ivy Cowan, of Spindale, recent bride. The living rooms and dining room were thrown ensuite and tastefully decorated with vari-colored gladioli and mixed garden flowers. Mrs. Williams was assisted in entertaining by Miss Mildred Williams, Mrs. Victor Stroup, Mrs. M. A. Stroup and Mrs. Fred Hall. Mrs. Williams and the two honorees greeted the guests at the door and invited them to find their places at the tables which were designated by miniature bridal cards. Other visitors in the city who shared honors with Mrs. Cowan were Mrs. J. O. Williams and Miss Mildred Williams, mother and sister of the bride, and Mrs. G. A. Williams, of Spindale, Mrs. W. C. McCall, hostess' mother, Mrs. B. L. Ashworth, Mrs. J. M. Carson and Miss Joyce Decker, of Marion, Miss Anne Simms, of Raleigh, and Mrs. W. D. Tharin and Mrs. K. M. Yonge, of Asheville.
