METHODIST LADIES WILL HOLD BAZAAR SOON

The members of the Woman's Missionary Society, of the Methodist church, will give a bazaar on Friday and Saturday, November 20-21, in the Alexander building next door to Padgett and King. Fancy work, children's clothes, good eats, dolls, etc., will be sold. A good place to do your Christmas shopping.

LEGION AUXILIARY MEETING.

The Ladies' Auxiliary, of the American Legion, will meet Friday afternoon, Oct. 23, at 3:30 at the home of Mrs. Spurgeon Moss. This is a very important meeting and all members are urged to be present and also come prepared to pay their dues.

JOLLEY FAMILY REUNION SUNDAY

Family of W. A. Jolley, of R-2,
Looking Forward to Homecoming This Week-End.

Forest City, R-2, Oct. 20.—An occasion that is looked forward to with the keenest delight by the members of the immediate family is the annual home-coming, celebrating the birthday anniversary of Mr. W. A. Jolley, prominent farmer, who lives on Route 2, one mile north of Caroleen. The Jolley clan will assemble for this event Saturday, which will be Mr. Jolley's 68th birthday, with the climax of the celebration to be reached Sunday with a bounteous birthday dinner, which, weather permitting, is usually spread on a large table in the yard.

Mr. Jolley is a farmer on a large scale. He believes in farming and has always been a believer in "live-at home" methods of farming. He has an attractive, white country home, with well kept premises, substantial out-buildings, with a broad, well cultivated farm surrounding. At one time Mr. Jolley operated a country store, making good in the mercantile business, but he quit and began devoting his entire time to farming, because, he said: "I don't want to lose all faith in my fellow man, and that is what happens to a person selling goods."

Born in the midst of the War Between the States, Mr. Jolley never saw his father, who was killed while serving in the Confederate army. His mother, left with several small children, had a hard struggle to make a living. The result was that each child was taught to work and manage and although their educational advantages were few they managed to get along. And today there are few better educated men in the county than W. A. Jolley. He has always read widely and with an observing mind, has always been a deep thinker. He also has a fine mathematical mind, and can solve many hard problems that his boys and girls in high school could not work. After becoming a father Mr. Jolley made it a life-long habit to assist his children with their home work and to study with them during the school year.

Mr. Jolley is a staunch Democrat and is deeply interested in the government of his nation, his state and county. For years he has been one of the election judges. He has served as tax lister in the High Shoals township, where he lives, for many years, and knows practically every man in that section.

Highly respected, Mr. Jolley is a most likeable kind of a man, living up to his name "Jolly." Few people think of him as anything but a young man, both young and old enjoying his company because of his happy, jolly nature.

Mr. Jolley has a remarkable memory, not so much on the days of long ago, for he seldom reminisces on the olden days, but on current events. Nothing escapes him for he reads the daily papers, and each week peruses The Courier from first page to the last. He reads all kinds of periodicals and magazines, and as a result of his reading, he can discuss intelligently and interestingly on any subject mentioned.

A member of the Oak Grove Methodist church where he is one of the leaders of the church, Mr. Jolley seldom misses Sunday school or preaching service. His eight children grew up in the church and are all loyal Methodists, and all take active parts in the work of their churches. In the rearing of his children, Mr. Jolley was very strict, being a firm believer that to spare the rod meant to spoil the child. The result is, that his children are all highly respected citizens of the communities in which they live. They have none of the customary and so-called bad habits such as smoking, drinking and gambling. And not one of them have ever been arrested.

The children are Claude A. Jolley, former county commissioner and county accountant of Polk county; Mrs. Romulus Duncan, of Spruce Pine, local and society editor of the Spruce Pine News, and well-known

SPINDALE YOUTH INSTANTLY KILLED IN AUTO WRECK

Mr. Howard Ledbetter, Aged
21, Dies In Crash North of Rutherfordton Sunday.

Spindale, Oct. 20.—Mr. Howard Ledbetter, aged 21, youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ledbetter, was instantly killed Sunday evening about six o'clock when the car he was driving left the highway and hit a post on Route No. 20, just north of the Rutherfordton corporate limits.

Mr. Ledbetter, in company with Mr. Clyde Jones, also of Spindale, was returning from Chimney Rock when the accident occurred. Mr. Jones suffered some bruises and cuts, but was able to leave the hospital after receiving first aid treatment.

The car was a rebuilt roadster, which, spectators say, was going at a rate of about sixty miles per hour. Young Ledbetter lost control as he rounded the curve and crashed into a post on the side of the highway. The accident occurred directly in front of the residence of Mr. Lloyd Taylor. The occupants of the car were thrown out and Ledbetter was hurled against a state highway sign post, breaking his neck, arm and crushing his chest. He died almost instantly. Jones was thrown clear of the highway, and landed on the grass beside the road, thereby escaping serious injury. A doctor from Asheville, who was following directly behind the car, stopped to give aid, but Mr. Ledbetter died within a few minutes after the accident. A remarkable fact is that the car was only slightly damaged.

Funeral services were held Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock at Pleasant Grove Methodist church, with the pastor of the deceased, Rev. W. Arthur Barber, in charge of the ceremony. He was assisted by Rev. T. M. Hester, of Spindale, Rev. M. M. Huntley and Rev. B. P. Parks. Interment followed in the Pleasant Grove cemetery.

Mr. Ledbetter was unmarried. He is survived by his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. C. Ledbetter, of this place, two brothers and five sisters, as follows: Guilford and Wayne Ledbetter, Spindale; Mrs. Sloan Grose, Forest City, R-3; Mrs. Will Robinson, Forest City, R-2; Mrs. Arthur Grose, Forest City, R-3; Mrs. S. S. Trout, Forest City, R-1; and Miss Nannie Sue Ledbetter, at home.

Mr. Ledbetter was a member of the Pleasant Grove Methodist church, where he joined a number of years ago. He was held in high esteem by all who knew him. His quiet, retiring disposition won for him many friends, who mourn with the family his untimely passing.

W. M. S. TO SELL CAKES.

Circle No. 1 of the Woman's Missionary Society of the Methodist church will sell home made cakes at Piggly Wiggly store, Saturday.

writer; Hoover C. Jolley, who resides at Alexander and is connected with the Holland-Randall Grocery Co.; Ralph A. Jolley, secretary-treasurer of the Wilson-Stamey Co., of Rutherfordton; Mrs. Franklin Warlick, of Fallston; Jack Jolley, who assists his father in farming; Miss Mozelle Jolley, who lives with her parents, and Ernest Jolley, who is senior in the Henrietta-Caroleen high school this year. Mrs. Jolley was the former Miss Dolly Bailey, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Amos Bailey, of Oak Grove.

With all the many blessings and good things that have come to this proud father and his good wife, we expect, however, their greatest experience and one that is very dear to their hearts is the annual home-coming of their children, which was started in 1928. And we predict that there will be very little sleep in the home Saturday night when all the children, sons and daughters-in-law and the grandchildren gather around the father and mother to talk, pop corn, eat apples, chestnuts and other good things brought by the children

LAST RITES FOR MR. R. V. KING

Former Mayor of City Passes
at Home Here Thursday
Following Extended Illness.

The entire county was shocked to learn of the death of Mr. Robert V. King, which occurred at his home here last Thursday afternoon. Mr. King had been in failing health for many months, suffering from a complication of diseases. While his death was not unexpected, it nevertheless cast a pall of gloom and sadness over his hundreds of friends in Forest City and Rutherford county.

Funeral services were held at Pleasant Grove Methodist church, at West End, Friday afternoon at one o'clock. Rev. J. W. Williams, pastor of the Forest City Methodist church, was in charge of the funeral observances, assisted by Rev. W. Arthur Barber, of Spindale, and Dr. W. A. Ayers, of Forest City. Interment took place in the Pleasant Grove cemetery.

Mr. King was fifty-three years of age. He is survived by his widow, who prior to her marriage was Miss Vonnie Fortune. The following children also survive: Miss Lilah King, at home; Mr. Thomas King, Forest City; Mr. Earl King, of Orangeburg, S. C.; Mrs. C. E. Watkins, Messrs Robert, Von, Willie B., and Dan King and Miss Alice King, of Forest City. One brother, Mr. R. C. King, of Orangeburg, survives, and six sisters, Mrs. George McDaniel, Forest City; Miss Della King, Morganton; Mrs. Will Taylor, Rutherfordton; Mrs. T. R. Bowen, Lilesville, and Misses Fannie and Alice King, of Forest City.

The active pallbearers were Messrs H. B. Doggett, R. K. Hollifield, Joe Morris, B. Z. McDonald, C. C. Moore, L. C. Lowrance. The honorary pallbearers were Messrs Ray Horn, C. P. McMahan, Mat Robbins, Al Trout, T. C. Bridges and C. L. Proctor.

The floral offering was beautiful and varied. The grave was entirely covered with the floral offering. The flower bearers were Mrs. E. L. Robertson, Mrs. C. E. Alcock, Mrs. Ernest Watkins, Mrs. Laura Kendrick, Miss Kate Long, Mrs. Judd Harrill, Miss Sudie Young, Miss Jennie Mae Harrill, Miss Bunah Harrill, Mrs. Hazel Miller, Mrs. C. L. Morris and Mrs. C. P. McMahan.

Mr. King was a member of the Forest City Methodist church where he had held membership for a number of years.

Mr. King was well and favorably known over the entire county. He had been engaged in various business enterprises here during his life time, especially in the grocery and dry goods business. He was one time mayor of Forest City, serving in that capacity from 1915 to 1917, during which time the city made great progress under his wise leadership and administration.

Among the out of town people attending the funeral here were Mr. Charles Byrd and Miss Jeanie Byrd and Miss Florence Lindsley, of Wadeboro; Mrs. Willie Rhorie and son, Mrs. T. R. Bowman and Miss Mary Little Bowman, of Lilesville and Mr. and Mrs. R. C. King, of Orangeburg, S. C.

Planning For Armistice Day

Rutherfordton, Oct. 19.—Plans are rapidly maturing for one of the biggest Armistice day celebrations here Nov. 11th ever held in the county. A huge parade will be one feature of the program, while public speaking, athletic stunts and other forms of entertainment will be on the day's card. Thousands of people are expected from all parts of the county for the day's celebration. The celebration is being sponsored by the American Legion posts of the county, assisted by other organizations.

Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Asbury and children who have been living on Magnolia street moved last Saturday to the M. W. Harriss home on West Main street.

Merchants Prepare For Forest City Days

GREATEST SALES EVENT IN HISTORY OF
RUTHERFORD COUNTY, OCTOBER 30-31

Merchants Are Prepared With The Latest And Best in New Merchandise and Will Offer Biggest Values in Years.

GREAT RESULTS FROM REVIVAL

Over Forty Converts To Date
—Services May Continue To Sunday.

Great results have been experienced in the revival services at the First Baptist church, which opened Sunday, October 11th. To date, there have been more than forty converts, and a number of re-claimations. Dr. Zeno Wall, pastor of the First Baptist church, of Shelby, has been bringing great messages twice daily—at eight o'clock each morning and at night—and under the appeal of his sincere gospel messages untold good has resulted from the services.

Dr. Horace Eason, also of Shelby, has been leading the singing. The large choirs at each service have materially assisted in the good work.

The meeting was scheduled to close today, but the outlook for greater results is so bright, that it is doubtful whether the services will close as scheduled. According to Dr. W. A. Ayers, the services will be concluded sometimes between now and Sunday.

ELLENBORO MAN KILLED SUNDAY

Robert A. Curtis Dies When Car Hits Box Car at Morganton.

Morganton, Oct. 20.—One man is dead and three persons injured as a result of automobile accidents in and near Morganton Sunday night and Monday morning.

Robert A. Curtis, formerly of Morganton but more recently of Ellenboro, was instantly killed when the automobile he was driving collided with a freight train at the Morganton station Sunday night about 1:30 o'clock.

Mr. Curtis' neck was broken. He came to Morganton Sunday to visit relatives and was starting on the return trip Sunday night when the accident occurred. His small coupe plunged headlong into the freight train at the station.

The train, East bound, was standing still at the crossing. How he failed to see the train is a puzzle to those who investigated, but the theory is advanced that the lights on his car were poor and the lighting at crossing was not good. The coupe was practically demolished.

Mr. Curtis' body was taken to the home of a sister, Mrs. John Brackett here, where the funeral service was held at 3 o'clock Tuesday afternoon. Burial was in the Curtis family plot at the Morganton cemetery.

The deceased was about 38 years old. He is survived by his widow, mother, and several brothers and sisters.

Mrs. A. C. Duncan attended the Yorktown celebration last week, and also visited her sister while away.

The President condemns the glorifying of thugs, instead of the police, and everybody agrees with him. The great majority of police officers are honest, regardless of what you might happen to believe.

The Chinese army was estimated, in 1929, at 1,800,000 men and the Japanese army at 210,880. However, in the present clash you will see how much good the Chinese army is against Japan's modern navy.

One of the greatest sales events in the history of Rutherford county will be held in this city on Forest City Days, Friday and Saturday, Oct. 30-31. On these two days the folks in the wide Forest City trade territory will have opportunity to buy at the greatest savings in twenty years. Every merchant in Forest City is co-operating with all his fellow merchants in making it possible for you to buy more for your money than ever before. Every one will have some real specials—and when we say specials, we mean goods sold at and below cost. Every merchant in the city co-operating means that some thirty or forty business men are going to give you the greatest array of bargains ever before offered in Forest City. Not only the specials, but every item in stock will be marked down for the special opportunity, which has been designated Forest City Days.

The very latest and best in new merchandise has been stocked by the merchants and their prices are being adjusted so that thousands of bargains will be offered to the public. Forest City Days will be made successful by the retailers uniting in one huge co-ordinated effort to demonstrate Forest City's superiority as a shopping center. This event will undoubtedly establish a record in value giving and give the public every opportunity to purchase most any commodity it may need, and at reduced prices.

There has been one change in the plans, as announced last week, and that is, the committee finally decided that instead of giving prizes and holding contests and stunts, they would concentrate in giving big money saving values, thus having a prize for every one who trades in Forest City on the two big days—Friday and Saturday, Oct. 30-31. Therefore there will be no prizes for some contest winner, but a big money-saving value on every article purchased in Forest City during the big trade event.

A page ad in The Courier this week, and next, will inform all its readers of the trade event. In addition, thousands of circulars will be distributed, calling attention to Forest City Days. Next week the merchants will give prices and items, so that you may see for yourself that Forest City Days means money saving days to all who come to our city. Plan now to come each day. This will be a wonderful opportunity and one you should not miss.

WOMAN'S CLUB

Drama and Art.

The drama and art department of the Woman's Club will meet Thursday evening, Oct. 22, at 8 o'clock at the home of Miss Kathleen Dorsey. The program follows:
