DEATH CLAIMS

MR. EUGENE KENDALL

Former Scotland Citizen Passed Away at His Home at Kinston. Was a Citizen of Scotland for Twenty-two Years. Body Brought Here and Buried Monday at Caledonia.

Although expected, the sad intelligence of the death of Mr. E. H. Kendall, which occurred at his home in Kinston Saturday night at 11 o'clock, brought a great weight of sorrow to many hearts in Scotland county, where the deceased was long and favorably known.

Mr. Kendall, for the past year, had suffered from the effects of a cancer, and last December entered a hospital in Baltimore for an operation. The operation was successful and the affected spot healed readily, but ere long evidences of other cancerous growths began to appear and his health rapidly declined. For the past month no hope for his recovery was entertained.

Mr. Kendall came to Laurinburg 22 years ago from Ansonville, Anson county, where he was born 55 years ago. He was big hearted, genial and friendly, and during his life in Scotland drew to himself a great host of friends, who are sorely saddened because of his passing.

Nearly two years ago he formed a partnership with Mr. John T. Bostick of this city, they buying eleven hundred acres of farming land near Kinston. Mr. Kendall sold out his interests here and together with his family, moved to Kinston, where he lived until the time of his death.

The body, accompanied by the stricken family and a number of intimate friends, arrived here Monday morning at 8:46. Upon its arrival the local Masonic order, of which he was a member, took charge of it and the escort of honors, composed of Masons, accompanied the body to Caledonia church, where at 11 o'clock, in the presence of a great concourse of friends, the funeral was conducted by Rev. R. F. Bumpas, pastor of the Laurinburg Methodist church. The burial took place at the church graveyard.

Mr. Kendall is survived by his wife and eight children; five daughters, Misses Glennie, Sallie, Dora, Kate, Addie May and three sons, Messrs. Fred, Frank and Harry. Also surviving him are three sisters, Mrs. S. G. Brown and Mrs. W. C. Nicholson, of Durham, and Mrs. M. K. Wood, of Baltimore; two brothers, Mr. C. W. Kendall, of Durham, and Mr. W. A. Kendall of Dillon, S. C.

The pall bearers were: Edgar McCall, G. F. Aringer, C. L. McCoy, J. B. Maxwell, J. S. Jackson and J. T. Bostick.

Down at Wilson they have a mayor that doesn't permit lawyers appearing in his court to indulge in any criticism of the court, at least such criticism that reflects upon his honor. The other day, W. A. Lucas, a lawyer appearing for a party before the court, said in the course of his remarks something about it being impossible to secure a legal trial in the court. The mayor did not say "10 days in jail," but instead immediately adjourned court, stepped from the bench, pulled off his coat, and but for the interference of the officers and spectators would have mixed with the legal light.

Woodville Happenings.

WOODVILLE, N. C., Sept. 1.

On last Friday evening from nine to twelve, Miss Minnie Warwick, in her charming manner, most delightfully entertained a number of young people at her home near Laurel Hill church. The guests were met at the door by Miss Minnie and Mr. Sanford Warwick and introduced to the visiting guests, Miss Eva Bullock and Messrs. Douglass Bullock and — McGirt of Rowland.

Tables were arranged in the spacious hall and parlors for the enjoyable game, progressive rook, which afforded a pleasant pastime. Delightful refreshments consisting of cream and cake were served. After a few minutes of conversation the guests reluctantly bid farewell to their hostess, declaring this to be one of the most enjoyable occasions of the season.

Those present to enjoy Miss Warwick's hospitality were, Misses Margaret Gillis, Marie Monroe, Irene Gilchrist, May McMillan, Eva Bullock, Mary Livingston, Nellie Maxwell, Belle McNeill, Louise Monroe, Ila Lassiter, Alma Lee, Ruth Gilchrist and Mrs. Raymond Monroe. Messrs. Neill Gilchrist, Fairley Monroe, Guy McMillan, Arch McLean, Albert Lytch, Sanford Warwick, Douglas Bullock, Willie McMillan, William Gilchrist, Charlie McMillan, Melvin Gilchrist, Edwin Lytch, Sellars McMillan, Raymond Monroe, John McLean and — McGirt.

Misses Marie and Louise Monroe are spending a few days visiting relatives at Raemon.

Rev. W. V. McRae of Maxton, and Mr. M. Ratcliffe of McFarlan, were pleasant visitors in Woodville recently.

Miss Ila Lassiter of Wagram was a visitor in the community last week.

Those who leave for the different schools this week are Messrs. John McLean and Sanford, Warwick for A. & M., Guy McMillan for Wake Forest College and Glenn McArthur for St. Paul High School.

The six-weeks-old child of Mr. and Mrs. L. L. Parker, of Page-land, S. C., was the victim of a serious accident recently, when Mrs. Parker tripped and fell as she alighted from a carriage at Chesterfield, where she had gone to visit her sister, Mrs. I. P. Mangum. She fell on the child and its skull was fractured and its body bruised. It was carried to Dr. Brenizer, at Charlotte, for treatment, and its condition was such that it could be brought home. It is now improving. Mrs. Parker sustained painful bruises when she fell.

Fifty dollars an inning is what it cost in Decatur, Ill., to see Waiter Johnson pitch in an exhibition game against the Decatur team of the Three-I League. The Washington Americans were in Decatur recently but Johnson was not sent in to pitch. A disappointed spectator paid Johnson $50 to pitch an inning and see the Kansas phenomenon throw nine balls and strike out three men.

Mrs. P. N. Nash and son and Mrs. J. M. Pinnix, of Kernersville, arrived in the city Monday night to visit their sister, Mrs. Roy Hammond.

The city schools, including both Laurinburg and East Laurinburg, will begin the fall session Monday.

Prof. S. W. Rabb, who came here from Due West, S. C., to take charge of the schools and to succeed Prof. B. P. Caldwell, who goes to Kinston, arrived in the city several days ago and has been making every preparation for the opening, which shows every evidence of being a most successful one.

Every pupil is asked and expected to report to the teacher of his or her respective grade at 10 o'clock Saturday morning for classification and to receive list of books.

The compulsory school term for white children between the ages of 8 and 12 years begins on Monday.

All pupils are required to be vaccinated.

The teachers for the coming year are: 1st grade, Miss Roberta Coble, city; 2nd grade, Miss Emma Wash Gill, city; 3rd grade, Miss May Hampton, Greensboro; 4th grade, Miss Grace Gill, city; 5th grade, Miss Pauline Herring, Dunn; 6th grade, Miss Henrietta Booth, Warrenton; 7th grade, Miss Daisy Leake, Kernersville; in the high school, Miss Genevieve Huddle, Sumter, S. C., Miss Mary Lytch, Due West, S. C., Miss Marie Carothers, Rock Hill, S. C.

In the East Laurinburg school, Misses Maggie Clark and Myra Jordan will have charge of the first and second grades respectively. By the addition of a teacher in the school, the congestion in the second grade of the city school will be greatly relieved.

Pupils applying for admission in the first grade in either school are requested to enter during the first two weeks of school, or the first two weeks after the Christmas holidays.

The Music department will be under the direction of Miss Rosa Caldwell, city, and Miss Annie Lynn Carothers, of Rock Hill, S. C.

Returning to Cuba.

Miss Janie Patterson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. F. Patterson of Laurel Hill township, who is a missionary to Cuba, stationed at Placetas, has been here on a visit to her parents since June, left Tuesday night to return to her work.

For the past few days Miss Patterson has had as her guest, Miss Narcissa del Rio, a native Cuban young lady, whose home is at Placetas. Miss del Rio has been a student at American colleges for the past five years and has not visited her home during this time, but returned with Miss Patterson Tuesday night.

Moved to Laurinburg.

THE EXCHANGE extends a real Laurinburg welcome to Mrs. Maggie Carter and family who have moved to Laurinburg from Sanford, arriving Monday.

Mrs. Carter is a sister of our townsman, Mr. D. C. McNeill and mother of Mr. Allen Carter, who has a position in Mr. McNeill's store.

Beside Mrs. Carter and the son there are two young girls, Misses Louise and Margaret.

The family occupy the home located on King street, recently vacated by Mr. J. D. Brooks and family.
