

Christmas Bargains

Nothing like furniture for the GIFT WORTH WHILE. Especially is this true when making gifts in the family. It comprises all of the points that make a gift worth while. First, it is useful, the most important to consider when making your selection. Second, it is ornamental in the highest degree, and lastly it endures for years, a constant reminder of the giver.

ODD BITS OF NEWS

Cleveland, O.—A theater manager here has fired all his blonde ushers and hired brunettes. He claims the men talked with the blondes and patrons had to wait to be shown their seats.

Martinsborough, New Zealand.—A small embroidered flag sold at auction brought $12,000 for the Belgian relief fund. It was sold ten times to the highest bidder, who in turn gave it back. Finally it was presented to the school.

Kingston, N. Y.—When a well-dressed woman abandoned a baby in a hallway, the child was adopted by a nanny goat who angrily resisted efforts to take the baby from her. The goat's kid had been stolen a week before by some boys.

Easton, Pa.—While Mrs. Daniel Hurley was at breakfast recently, the door opened and her sister, Mrs. Margaret Doyle, whom she had not heard from nor seen for 51 years, walked in.

Rices Landing, Pa.—James Black, mine superintendent, the father of 18 children, has five boys at the front with the British army. Two others have been killed. John, the third son, is home with a poisoned knee, but will return to the trenches.

New York, N. Y.—Because his wife was "continually running to shows", Morris Mulvihill burned all of her shoes. He said that was the only way he could keep her at home.

Clifton, N. J.—Edward Morrell, 80 years old, recently received a postal card mailed June 16, 1881. The only postmarks on the card showed that it left New Hampton June 16, 1881, and arrived in Passaic July 25, 1915. The writer died fifteen years ago.

Los Angeles, Cal.—Samuel Pockosvsky has grown tired of the efforts of his American associates to pronounce his name, and has been on the lookout for a chance to change it. The chance came when he became engaged to a Miss Parker. Judge Thomas, on application, allowed the groom to take his wife's name and now he is the proud possessor of the handle of Samuel Parker.

Chillicothe, O.—C. W. Cravens and W. B. Cravens are brothers and both are engineers on the B. & O. Their wives are sisters. Both families live in the same house. The other day, six hours apart, both the Mrs. Cravens gave birth to children—one a boy.

New York, N. Y.—"Safety First," said Mrs. Arthur Maclean as she put two diamond earrings into her pillow case and went to sleep. The next day there were clean slips on the pillows. Mrs. Maclean was frantic. She besieged the laundry, but the pillow slips had been washed and ironed. Finally one earring was found gleaming in the bottom of the washtub and the other about to enter the drain pipe. They are valued at $2,000.

Newcastle, Ind.—Moab Turner, 77, is dead. Thirty years ago he suffered his first stroke of paralysis and made his funeral plans. A walnut chest was turned into a coffin and given to the local undertaker to care for. He will be buried in the walnut casket.

THE EVIDENCE IS AT YOUR DOOR

Laurinburg proof is what you want and the statement of this highly respected resident will banish all doubt:

Mrs. R. N. Grubbs, E. Church St., Laurinburg, says: "For several weeks I was in such bad shape I could hardly get around. The kidney secretions were disordered and my nerves were all unstrung. My head ached and I had awful dizzy spells. These ailments made my health all run down, and nothing seemed to do me any good. Doan's Kidney Pills were highly recommended by a friend and the first box I used regulated the action of my kidneys. Since taking three boxes, have had very little cause for complaint."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Grubbs had. Foster-Milburn Co., Prop., Buffalo, N. Y.—Adv.

LAURINBURG DRUGGIST PLEAS-ES CUSTOMERS.

Blue's Drug Store reports customers greatly pleased with the QUICK action of simple buckthorn bark, glycerine, etc., as mixed in Adler-i-ka. This simple remedy drains the old foul matter from the bowels so THOROUGH that ONE SPOONFUL relieves almost ANY CASE of constipation, sour or gassy stomach. It is so powerful that it is used successfully in appendicitis. Adler-i-ka never gripes and the INSTANT action is surprising.
