

A TRIBUTE OF LOVE.

On March 9th, 1911, there passed from this earth one of the sweetest and purest spirits we have ever known, when Lula I. Northcott entered into life eternal. Near the close of the beautiful day, when the sun after having given comfort and light to the earth, was sinking to rest: So her beautiful life, after having brought comfort to the lives of those who loved her, for nearly seventeen years, gently sank to rest in her Saviour's arms. She said she knew He would come for her because she had put her trust in Him; so He did come and took her to live with Him.

On March 11th, the bell of St. John's Episcopal Church which had so often called her, rang out its mournful summons to the last service the church could render her, as her body lay before the chancel rail, where she had so often knelt. The choir sang sweetly the hymn that had been sung at her confirmation, "My faith looks up to Thee." Other hymns sung were "Abide with me," "Asleep in Jesus and the Christian good night." The burial service was read by Rev. C. T. Smith of Elizabeth City, who made a beautiful and comforting talk of the Heavenly inheritances into which she had entered. There was also a sweet talk by Prof. N. W. Britton, who had been her teacher for several years. His talk was a beautiful tribute to her life and her influence, closing with an appeal to her young friends to follow her example. The service concluded with the comforting hymn, "Rock of ages cleft for me. Let me hide my self in Thee."

We feel that she is safe and happy in Paradise with Jesus, and other friends who had gone before, but we can not help missing her, and the place she filled in our lives is sad and lonely. Especially will she be missed in her church, where she was a faithful little worker. She was baptised when five years old, and confirmed when eleven, and ever since, she has been a true little soldier of Christ, fighting manfully under his banner until her life's end.

When the Junior auxiliary was formed, she became its Secretary, and filled this position most efficiently until she went to College last September.

Just a year ago we were holding joint Lenten meeting of the Woman's Guild and the Junior Auxiliary, the President of the Guild leading alternately with Lula. She led them beautifully, and one could see that her whole heart was in them. One meeting that she led lingers especially sweet in our memories its subject was "prayer" and our dear little leader seemed even more earnest

Nature makes the cures for all.

Now and then she gets into a tight place and needs helping out.

Things get started in the wrong direction.

Something is needed to check disease and start the system in the right direction toward health.

Scott's Emulsion of Cod Liver Oil with hypophosphites can do just this.

It strengthens the nerves, feeds famished tissues, and makes rich blood.

than usual. The same spirit pervaded us all, and for the time being, we were lifted into a higher and purer atmosphere.

For about a year she had been our Sunday School Organist, and we were looking forward to the time when she might be the assistant Church Organist; but it was not to be. God hath called her to the Church Triumphant, and there, we feel that she still remembers and loves us. She loved her church with her whole heart, and she loved Jesus, and we who must carry on the work which she has laid down, feel that her influence and example will be with us to help and encourage us, till we too, reach that blessed Home, where she with others whom we have loved and lost, waits to welcome us.

"The strife is o'er,
The battle done;
The victory of life is won.
The song of triumph has begun.
Alleluia!"

When Old Age is a Curse.

Orison Swett Marden in "Success Magazine"

When it has lost self-respect. When the old have not won the respect, the confidence and the admiration of relatives and those nearest to them.

When they do not stand for anything in their community.

When their neighbors would not consider their departure any loss.

When the imagination is foul and the thought impure.

When all the useful fires have gone out and only embers remain.

When the individuality has been burned out the fires of dissipation.

When all the reserves of energy and force have been prematurely exhausted by a vicious life.

When the individual has not learned the art of self-control and patience.

When young people can not live with it with any comfort.

When it has developed only vulgarity, coarseness and animality.

When it has left the individual ugly, disagreeable, touchy, cynical, uncharitable, unkind.

When hope and cheer have fled.

When ambition and aspiration are dead.

When they have lost their zest for life, the desire for usefulness.

When they have no aim in life.

When the sap of life has gone and the individual is like a juiceless orange.

When all that is good, sweet and noble has evaporated and life is empty.
