

CHOWAN COLLEGE NOTES.

Very Successful Year Nearing Close-- Faculty Strengthened for Next Year.

On Sunday morning, May 14, the Baccalaureate sermon will be preached by Rev. J. Clyde Turner, pastor of the First Baptist Church of Greensboro.

The commencement address will be delivered on Tuesday morning, May 16, by Prof. J. C. Metcalf professor of English in Richmond College. On Monday afternoon there will be a meeting of the Board of Trustees and a meeting of the Alumnae Association.

The total number of boarders enrolled for the year is ninety-eight, an increase of thirty-one over last year, and within four or five of the highest number ever enrolled in one year in the history of the college. More than two-thirds of the rooms have already been assigned for next year.

Not only do our teachers occupy themselves in study and teaching during the session, but many of them continued the work of self-improvement during the summer vacation. Last summer Miss Lois Vann, the head of the department of Expression, traveled extensively in Europe, and Miss Louise Ferabee, the head of the department of Latin, studied Latin and French in the Teachers' College of Columbia University. Miss Ethel Parrot, the head of the department of Art, is planning to carry on a course of work in a studio in New York City during the coming summer.

We are looking forward with great interest to the coming of two new teachers next year, Miss Rose Goodwin of Elizabeth City, and Miss Mattie Liverman, of Roxobel, the former from the Chowan Association and the latter from the West Chowan. Miss Goodwin graduates at Meredith in May, and is coming to take charge of our department of voice. Miss Liverman is a graduate of the State Normal College and of the Teachers' College of Columbia University. She is to be the head of the department of Mathematics.

In Memory of Lucius L. Taylor.

Death, the unmerciful foe, entered the home and hushed the cheerful voice of a loving husband and father. The link in the family circle was broken, on the evening of March the 17th, 1911. After suffering but a few hours with acute indigestion, the noble spirit of Lucius L. Taylor took its flight, leaving behind a heart broken wife and seven devoted children to mourn his death. His suffering was intense for about four hours, while loving hands and a kind physician did all within their power to relieve the pain, but to no avail. The All wise one, said "Come unto me and I will give you rest."

His life's work was finished, and he went to receive his reward. Mr. Taylor was a good man and did a great deal of good. He served his county as road commissioner for a number of years, was always at his post of duty. His opinion, when given, was sure to be the very best. His friendship was true and steadfast. His judgment and advice was sought by the rich and poor alike.

He was a magistrate for several years, and always settled disputes and difficulties brought before him if possible, peaceably, without a trial, for he was a man of peace.

"Blessed are the peacemakers for they shall be called the children of God."

One of his most noticeable traits was his unselfish love and devotion to his family. He often said he wished he could have all his children near him, so he could see them every day.

He was a good samaritan, in the true sense of the word, never turning a deaf ear to any one in trouble or need, not only giving advice, but his purse was opened freely in cases of need and benevolent causes.

He joined the Confederate army while but a youth. He loved the cause of his Southland and was a brave soldier in its defense.

He has been an honored Mason for years.

Mr. Taylor was an influential citizen of his community and county, rendering much valuable service to both, and will be greatly missed, for his place will be hard to fill.

His body was laid to rest in the family burying ground, to wait the morning of the resurrection.

One who loved and honored him. MRS. L. L. TAYLOR Jr.

Avail Strokes.

The growing Christian requires much spiritual food.

Our daily talk should harmonize with our Sunday prayer.

A man doesn't harden his heart until he has softened his head.

A man may work his way into heaven by working his way into the hearts of people.

He who cannot pray in public has no way of proving that he prays in private, except by the way he lives.

The man who goes on to perfection through the course of a lifetime, will go on in perfection through eternity.

Though he doesn't open his mouth, the sinner says "No" to God every time he has an opportunity to say "Yes."

A friend is such a valuable asset that a man can afford to go a little out of his way to convert an enemy into one.—The Christian Herald.
