

SEABOARD LOCALS.

Two Deaths Reported--Green Gay to Marry--Fine Rains and Good Crops.

Miss Nita Long, of Branchville, Va., who is enjoying the first week of her vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Long, will leave this week for a visit to relatives of Lynchburg, Va.

Mr. Herman Weaver, of the Honey Boy Minstrels, gave his parents here a glad surprise by dropping in on them unannounced last week. It was his first visit home in four years. Business engagements prevented other than a brief stay at this time.

Mr. Walter Rose, who was seeking health in the mountains of Western North Carolina died in that section last week. His remains were forwarded home and he was interred in Pleasant Grove church yard. The last sad rites were performed by his pastor, Dr. W. B. North. His bereaved sisters and brothers have our sincere sympathy.

Miss Ernestine Long of Greenville, Fla., is visiting her schoolmate, Miss Lottie Stephenson.

Rev. Rufus Bradley and little son of Williamston, delighted his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Bradley, last week, by spending a few days in their cozy little home.

Mr. J. L. Harris of Weldon, spent a day in this vicinity recently, fishing. His efforts were rewarded with a large catch of perch, chub and other members of the finny tribe.

Mr. James Taylor and wife of Gumberry were appreciated guests of Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Long the past Sabbath.

Mrs. A. M. E. Garris of Meherin is spending some days with her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Norvell, assisting in nursing her grandson, Mr. Willie Norvell, whom we are sorry to report on the sick list again.

Copius rains have fallen in this vicinity since our last writing and our farmers are wearing cheerful faces. Their crops are free from grass and everything, at present, seems as propitious as the most exacting could desire.

We are sorry to chronicle the continued ill health of our townsman, Ex. Treas. J. G. L. Crocker. He has been ailing for some three weeks and while not sick enough to keep to his room, feels unfit for duty.

Mr. Garland Grubbs of Suffolk, Va., paid a visit to his mother, Mrs. Lucie Grubbs, the past week.

The W. M. Society of Seaboard Baptist church, met in regular monthly session at the home of Mrs. J. T. Long last Tuesday afternoon. After the usual transaction of business, those present were ushered into the dining room, where delicious cream, cake, jelly etc. were served. All departed for their homes hoping Mrs. Long would invite the Society again soon.

Mrs. R. D. B. Maddrey is spending this week in Mapleton to be with her daughter-in-law, Mrs. Robt. Maddrey, who is slowly convalescing of typhoid fever.

Pope & Long have just received a new soda fountain, that will be in active operation in a few days now.

Mrs. Henry Gay, after a long illness, died at her home near Mt. Carmel Baptist church the past Friday. Her funeral was conducted at her late home by Rev. Ben Black, after which her remains were interred in the family cemetery. She leaves an aged husband, five grown sons, two daughters, and a number of grand children, besides other relatives. To all the sorrowing ones we offer our sincere condolence in this painful separation.

Miss Minnie Taylor, one of the faculty of Littleton Female College is at her home in the country, enjoying a well earned vacation.

Mr. Wendell Maddrey left Saturday afternoon for a brief visit to friends in Norfolk, Va. He returned on night train No. 93 Sunday night.

Master Robert Jones, who has been quite sick with measles, we are glad to report improving.

Mr. Vogie Harris, who has been visiting his father, Mr. Joe Harris, returned to his home in Norfolk, Va., Sunday afternoon.

Tickets are being received here by friends, to the marriage of Mr. Green F. Gay to Miss Pattie L. Bowers, at her home in Halifax County, N. C., at 10:30 A. M., June 21, 1911. The bride to be is the eldest daughter of Mr. Ezra Bowers, and a graduate of Chowan College, a woman of varied accomplishments. Miss Bowers has many friends in this county that will hail her coming among them with keen delight. Mr. Gay is too well and favorably known in his home county to need any comment by this scribe, but we cannot refrain from saying that he is one of our safest and best men.

Mr. Robt. Browne and family of Garysburg were guests of Mrs. S. B. Harris the past Sunday.

Mr. Clellan Long of Norfolk, Va., arrived last Wednesday to spend some weeks with his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Long.

Mr. Leary Stephenson of Portsmouth, who had been spending some days with his parents, left Sunday afternoon on No. 38, accompanied by his mother, Mrs. Alex Stephenson

OLD ZICK.

A Charming Woman

is one who is lovely in face, form, mind and temper. But it's hard for a woman to be charming without health. A weak, sickly woman will be nervous and irritable. Constipation and kidney poisons show pimples, blotches, skin eruptions and a wretched complexion. But Electric Bitters always prove a godsend to women who want health and beauty and friends. They regulate stomach, liver and kidneys, purify the blood; give strong nerves, bright eyes, pure breath, smooth, velvety skin lovely complexion and perfect health. Try them. 50c at Rich Square Drug Co and T. H. Nicholson of Murrteesboro.
