SEABOARD LOCALS.

Much Pork Spoiled--Home from Hospital--Recovering from Burns--Entertainments--Personals.

Our venerable townsman, Mr. Junius Bradley, who has been ill for some two weeks, we are glad to report slowly convalescing.

Mr. Burton Rodwell, Macon, N. C., was a welcome visitor in the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. L. Crocker the past Sabbath.

The past week has reminded one more of spring than midwinter. Several people who slaughtered their pork had much of it to spoil, while not a few are anxiously waiting a cold wave in order to kill their porkers.

Among those who attended the inauguration of Gov. Locke Craig, Raleigh, the past week, we secured the names of the following: Messrs. J. G. L. Crocker, R. D. B. Maddrey, R. V. Maddrey, Lee and Harvey Long.

Mr. Grover T. Stephenson and wife, Franklin, Va., spent the time between trains Sunday with his sister, Mrs. Roena M. Maddrey.

Miss Johnnie Pope, who has been a guest of her cousin, Mr. C. R. Parker, for several weeks, left for her home in Winston-Salem last Saturday.

The many friends of Mr. Walter D. Hancock will be pleased to learn that he is at home again after more than a month's treatment in a Sanatorium, Suffolk, Va. It will be remembered that early in Dec. 1912, an ox ran away with Mr. Hancock and so severely injured one leg, that amputation was for weeks considered necessary. The hospital physicians have succeeded in saving his limb and while he is still on crutches, everything at present points to a complete recovery.

Miss Lucy Buffalo, Jackson, was an esteemed guest of her sister, Mrs. Howard Carlton Maddrey, from Friday until Sunday afternoon.

Misses Mamie Edwards and Eulie Foster left Friday for a brief visit to relatives in our sister town, Margarettsville.

Rev. Lloyd Parker filled his regular monthly appointments at the Baptist church here the past Saturday and Sunday mornings. He dispensed with his Sunday evening service in order to return to the bedside of his aged, sick father.

Mrs. Phillip Stephenson and niece, Miss Loula Maddrey, Lewiston, are spending this week in the pleasant home of Mrs. Bettie I. Pruden.

Little Miss Lois Sears, who was so seriously burned last month, we are pleased to hear is considerably improved. For weeks it seemed as though she could not live. How much she has suffered no one ever knew. Her burns on face and hands have healed and fortunately left no ugly scars.

Mrs. Rupert Bridgers and children, who visited in the home of Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Jones last week, left Saturday for her home in Newport News, Va.

Prof. Richard Thomas Wyché, President of the National Story-teller's League of America, will lecture in the Seaboard High School auditorium Friday, Jan. 24, 1913, commencing at 7:30 P. M. Admission 35 and 15 cents.

The people of Seaboard and community ought to feel complimented at having with them a man of such great power and cultural worth. He is recognized all over this country as the greatest man in his profession, and certainly there is no greater work in the schools of today, than the work in which he is engaged. We do not have this lecture for any financial gain for our school. We regard it from a broader view point. It will serve to give us a broader view of life. In truth, this section of the country has never had such an opportunity as this before and we hope our people will give him a packed house. We feel certain every one who comes will get value received. Do not forget the date.

The play, "Because I Love You" will be presented by the home talent of Seaboard on Friday evening, January 31, 1913, at 8 o'clock in Seaboard High School auditorium. This play is one of the strongest dramas of the modern, romantic style ever written. It is a love story and its sentiment and pathos are of the sterling, honest kind which appeals to every man and woman with a human heart. The comedy element is very strong. It consists of a humorous gypsy tinker, an eccentric artist, an Irish Major, a negro servant, a gypsy sombrero, an old gypsy woman and a giddy old maid. The hero, an artist, and the heroine, a dashing, romantic Southern girl, are splendid types of American manhood and womanhood. Admission 25 and 15 cents. Reserved seats 35 cents. The proceeds from the play will be used for lights in the auditorium.

How to Stave off a Good Job.

Long about this time year lots of fellers take noshun in their heads that they either get a job or change their occupashun. A great many rules have been laid down on how to get a job, but I ain't ever heard anybody tell how to KEEP FROM getn one, so I'm gont to tell how to do so myself.

First place, the feller watn to keep from getn a good job ought to give up the one he's got and loaf. There are mighty few loafers that get desirable places. Everybody hates a quitter.

Secndly, tell your prospective employer that youn do anything--don't care what--an that you'll be ready to start in a coupla weeks. The boss knows that the man who can do "anything" can do NOTHING very well; he's lookin for somebody with at least a smattrin of experience who can pitch right in with his coat off an his sleeves rolled up.

Next place; hang out lots at the pool rooms. Come to think about it, how many substantial, respectable, successful men have you ever heard of bein in a pool room, let alone goin there to hire somebody?

Again; be "one of the boys" by joinin a Booze Club. There aint a successful firm in the country that emply a feller who carries booze on his breath. There aint many thatl taken with cigarette stains on their fingers. The fine-lookin, "manly" fellers whoen swear by note aint in danger very much either, of getn a good job hooked toem.

Another useful innoculashun against good jobs is that chronic infickshun of mindin other fokes business. People who do much of that pretty soon dont have any of their own to mind.--By "Rizo" in The Raleigh Times.

It is usually not so much the greatness of our trouble as the littleness of our spirit which makes us complain.--Jeremy Taylor.

LASKER NEWS.

General and Personal News Gleaned From About Town and Vicinity Briefly Told.

Mr. A. J. Draper of Boykins, Va., was here Friday on business. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Bristow of Conway were guests in the home of Mr. J. S. Brvant Sunday.

Misses Dora, Helen and Nellie Spivey of Rich Square were guests Sunday in the home of Mr. J. B. Elliott.

Misses Nannie Matthews and Josie Parker of Potecasi, accompanied by Messrs. Lassiter of Woodland, were callers in town Sunday afternoon.

Dr. and Mrs. R. P. Morehead and little son Robert, of Weldon, were guests Sunday and Monday of Dr. and Mrs. Whims.

Mr. and Mrs. Olin Draper, who have been residing at Rehoboth, have returned to Lasker where they will make their future home. Miss Julia Rose of near Menola, died last Wednesday. Her body was conveyed to her old home near town where the interment was made on Thursday afternoon. She was 72 years of age. She had many relatives and friends here.

Misses Lillian Pope and Ruth Dowell spent Wednesday night of last week in Woodland.

An interesting program was rendered by the Missionary Department of the local Epworth League on last Sunday evening.

The subject was, "Our Proposed Mission in Africa." The number deserving special mention were the timely remarks made by the leader, Mr. W. S. DeLoatch, and the excellent paper on the Life of David Livingstone, by Mr. R. L. Scott.

Our young people who played "Topsy Turvey" in the beautiful and spacious auditorium of the Graded School in Jackson Friday evening, realized unusual success. The play was well presented, and we are told that it was witnessed by the largest audience that has ever been in that commodious Auditorium. The door receipts, we understand, were larger than has ever before been received in the county for a play by local talent--being $66.00.

The Third Department of the local Epworth League rendered an excellent literary program in the pleasant home of Mr. P. T. Hicks on Tuesday evening. The subject was "An Evening With Wordsworth." The program was followed by a "social," consisting of various contests which were much enjoyed by the large number of Leaguers present.

Mr. L. C. Draper of Weldon, was a guest in the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Draper, Friday and Saturday. Mr. Draper has discontinued his position with The R. E. Draper Co. in Weldon, and has accepted a position with the Bank of Weldon.

Many of our farmers were present at the County Farmers Union meeting at Jackson last Wednesday.

Miss Lena Gray of Boykins, was in town from Thursday till Saturday, a guest in the home of Mr. C. W. Draper. Miss Gray was here looking after the interest of a music class which she will teach. She will return Saturday and will enter upon the duties of her work on Monday.

Miss Gray has recently graduated in pianoforte and has had much training in voice culture. She comes to us with excellent recommendations. We are glad to have her in our midst.

Teachers' Meeting.

The fourth meeting of the teachers of Kirby and Wiccacane Townships was held at Millwaukee, Saturday, Jan. 18, 1913. Not all the teachers were present but those who were took active interest in the vital discussions.

Chairman, Mr. H. J. Massey, who had planned an interesting and helpful program, in his general manner, stressed many of the best points brought out by each teacher.

An actual lesson in U. S. History, the class being present, was ably presented by Mr. M. F. Har. "Teaching Pupils the Proper Use of the Dictionary," was led by Mr. J. E. Gilliam, followed by Mr. J. A. Rudisill, after which the subject was opened for discussion. "The Seat Work for Primary Grades" was strikingly presented by Misses Selma Ross and Lizzie Stephenson. "Memory Work in the Intermediate Grades" by Miss Annie West proved to be very interesting to high school teachers as well as those who taught the intermediate grades. "Memory Work in the Primary Grades" by Miss Mattie Sykes was most agreeably received. Ofttimes the best comes last and not until we had eaten lunch and reassembled did we learn of the treat in store. "Some Ways in Which Pictures May Help Us in Teaching" by Miss Maud Harris, so interestingly discussed, was illustrated by free hand productions her pupils drew from stories she had read to them.

This meeting stands out clearly of first importance, a progressive gathering, taking precedence over former meetings in point of view that unanimous action was definitely taken on the proposed bill which is to come before the legislature at an early date, to wit: "That North Carolina Have Six Months Public Schools and Compulsory educational Laws." By this action each teacher is instructed to frame a petition, secure the signature of each pupil in his or her school, and to forward same to each Representative of Northampton County asking his support of the above measure. These petitions to be sent in not later than Saturday, January 25th. The teachers who were not present but who are in sympathy with this action are urged to follow the plan herein described. We trust other townships and all teachers of Northampton will do likewise.

The next meeting, which will be held on the third Saturday in February, the 22nd, at Severn, promises to be of interest, a full attendance is requested--expected.

FROM WINDSOR.

General News of The Town and Vicinity Bolled Down For Busy Readers.

Odd Fellows Convention Thursday.

Judge Winston went to Raleigh Monday.

Mr. L. L. Johnson of Phoebus, Va., is visiting his mother.

Mr. W. H. Sanderlin will leave for Belhaven some time this week.

Mr. John B. Gillam went to Norfolk last Wednesday and came back Thursday.

Mr. Rodney Pierce of Newport News, Va., who has been visiting his parents, have returned.

Edward Cullioher and Lyman D. Harrell of Mt. Gould, were here Monday.

R. L. Tarkenton, K. Sailerger, and A. J. Smithwick, of Cashie Neck, were in town Monday.

T. A. and W. H. Smitawick of near Merry Hill, were in town Monday.

Much meat is reported ruined on account of the warm weather. The report is general.

Young Arthur B. Phelps, who has been sick with typhoid, is now able to get out.

The new building which is being erected by Mr. H. P. Sewell, on upper King Street, is nearing completion.

Rev. W. R. Noe was called to Gatesville last week, to officiate at the funeral of one of his parishioners.

The Baptist church is still without a preacher. Rev. Mr. Long, of Marion, who received a call, declined to accept.

Mr. Eugene Gaskins, who went to Greensboro several days ago, on a visit to his brother Tom, returned last week.

Another surprise marriage for Windsor took place last week. Mr. Whit Blackstone and Miss Laura Freeman were married in Norfolk.

The electricians are busy putting in lights. It looks like there is a general demand for the lights and it may be that the plant will be taxed to its full capacity.

The 8th and 9th grades in the Graded School will entertain the Seniors at The New Windsor one night next week. It is expected to be quite a swell affair. The faculty will be honorary guests.

Robt. E. Lee's birthday was observed by the Daughters of the Confederacy. Exercises were held in the Graded School building. Prof. R. E. Walker made the address. Remarks were made by others.

Rev. R. F. Bumpass, the Methodist Presiding Elder, preached Sunday morning and night in the Methodist church. He also preached Monday morning before the session of the Quarterly Conference. He preaches with great ease and freedom. His sermons are impressive.

Plans have been made and now lumber is being hauled to enlarge St. Thomas Episcopal Church. It is to be enlarged by lengthening about 26 feet at the rear. The vestry room will be built at the side of the building as an annex. This is the oldest church edifice in Windsor, having been built in 1842. Its membership at this time is the largest in its history, numbering about 80 with a splendid Sunday School, alive and at work.
