SOME OF THE NEW LAWS.

Information of General Interest Compiled by a Magistrate.

Stateville Landmark

J. W. Cobb, Esq., of Charlotte is a magistrate who seems to have the unusual idea that a magistrate should know something about the law. Anyway Squire Cobb has been pouring over the public laws of 1913 and has culled the following information of general interest, which he gave the Charlotte News for publication.

Sec. 334 of the Revisal makes it a misdemeanor for any wagoner or other persons camping in open air to leave the camp without totally extinguishing the camp fire. This is amended by Legislature of 1913 to include hunters who shall set fire to any tree, stump or other combustible matter and leave without totally extinguishing such fire. A fine of $50.

The earnings of a married woman by virtue of any contract for her personal service and any damage for personal injuries or other sort sustained by her can be recovered by her suing alone. Her husband need not join her in the suit.

It is made a misdemeanor, punishable by a fine of not to exceed $50, for any parent or guardian of a child under 12 years of age who shall knowingly permit such child to have the possession or custody of, or use in any manner, any gun, pistol or other dangerous firearm, whether loaded, or unloaded, or who shall furnish such child with any such firearms.

It shall be unlawful for any person or persons to use any lewd or profane words or vulgarity or to use indecent language to any female telephone operator operating any telephone switchboard circuit or line. The fine is $20.

If any person shall, on a public road or highway, in the hearing of two or more persons, in a loud and boisterous manner, use indecent or profane language, upon conviction shall be fined not exceeding $50, or 30 days in jail.

All active members of the National Guard of North Carolina are exempted from duty upon the public roads of the counties in which they reside and shall also be exempted from service as jurors.

No person shall operate a motor vehicle upon the public highways of this State who is under the age of 16 years, and no person shall operate a motor vehicle when intoxicated. A person operating or driving a motor vehicle shall, on signal by raising the hand from a person riding, leading or driving a horse or horses, or other draft animals, bring such motor vehicle immediately to a stop and remain stationary so long as may be reasonable to allow such horse or other animal to pass. A rate of speed in excess of 25 miles per hour on any public highway outside of the corporate limits of any incorporated city or town shall be deemed a violation.

All pensions due to Confederate soldiers shall be paid to their widows for a period of one year after the death of any such pensioner.

Every person, firm or corporation who shall furnish store rooms for furniture, goods, wares and merchandise and make a charge for storing the same shall have the right to retain possession of and a lien upon the same until such storage charges are paid and sell same at auction after ten days' public notice to pay such charges.

Every person, firm or corporation who shall furnish store rooms for furniture, goods, wares and merchandise and make a charge for storing the same shall have the right to retain possession of and a lien upon the same until such storage charges are paid and sell same at auction after ten days' public notice to pay such charges.
