

The Farmers Mutual

The Northampton Realty Co., of which Hon. C. G. Peebles is President, and G. E. Midyette Secretary and Treasurer, with a board of directors composed of J. G. Stancell, at present chairman of the board of County Commissioners, with B. S. Gay, C. G. Peebles, G. E. Midyette and F. R. Harris, writes the Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Association under date of Oct. 10 as follows:

The Farmers Mutual Fire Insurance Association,

Rich Square, N. C.,

Mr. Albert Vann, President:

Dear Mr. Vann:—In the matter of the policy of Northampton Realty Company in your company and numbered 27,253 for $1200 on certain property described in it, we do not find any statement of premium on this policy of recent date and we are at a loss to know if there is any premium in arrears on it; we are writing you to inquire about it as if it is in arrears we desire to pay the premium and keep the policy in force. This policy is dated Jan. 28th., 1911.

It ought to be a matter of county pride that our people have an insurance company in their midst ably managed by home people and which at such a low rate, affords them ample protection. We have watched with interest and satisfaction the growth and successful management of your company and noted the promptness with which it settles its claims.

If there is anything due on the above policy will you kindly to save us any risk in the matter pay it for us on receipt of this letter and send the bill to our Mr. Midyette, who will by return mail send you check to reimburse you.

Yours truly,

NORTHAMPTON REALTY CO. by G. E. Midyette, Sec. & Treas.

The Youth's Companion in 1914.

Seven college presidents and a number of college instructors, including ex-President Taft, will contribute to The Youth's Companion during 1914.

Then there is Gene Stratton Porter, whose stories of Indiana woods and swamps have made her famous, and Kate Douglas Wiggin, who never wrote a dull line in her life, and Mrs. Burton Harrison, who remembers when conversation was really an art as practised in Washington and in the manor houses of Virginia. And this is just a beginning of the list.

If you know The Companion, you have a pretty clear idea of what is in store for next year's readers. If you do not know, ask us to send you sample copies—for instance, those containing the opening chapters of Arthur Stannard Pier's fine serial—"His Father's Son." Full Announcement for 1914 will be sent with the sample copies.

For the year's subscription of $2.00 there is included The Companion Practical Home Calendar for 1914, and all the issues of the paper for the remaining weeks of 1913, dating from the time the subscription is received. THE YOUTH'S COMPANION, 114 Berkley St., Boston, Mass. New Subscriptions Received at THE ROANOKE-CHOWAN TIMES Office.
