

The Roanoke-Chowan Times.

ANDREW J. CONNER, PUBLISHER.

"CAROLINA, CAROLINA, HEAVEN'S BLESSINGS ATTEND HER."

SUBSCRIPTION PER ANNUM $1.50

Volume XXII.

RICH SQUARE, NORTHAMPTON COUNTY, N. C., THURSDAY, DECEMBER 18, 1913.

Number 50.

PLANS, SPECIFICATIONS AND ESTIMATES FURNISHED ON APPLICATION

E. C. SMITH,
General Contractor and Builder
FRANKLIN, VA.

MASON & WORRELL,
ATTORNEYS & COUNSELLORS AT LAW,
JACKSON, N. C.

Practice in all Courts. Business promptly and faithfully attended to. Office 2nd floor bank building.

RAYMOND G. PARKER,
Attorney and Counselor at Law,
JACKSON, N. C.

Practices in all courts. All business given prompt and faithful attention. Office 2nd Floor Bank Building.

PEEBLES & HARRIS,
ATTORNEYS AT LAW,
JACKSON, N. C.

Practice in all Courts. Business promptly and faithfully attended to.

DR. C. G. POWELL,
DENTIST,
Ahoskie, N. C.

Can be found at his office at all times except when notice is given in this paper.

J. N. SELDEN
CONTRACTOR & BUILDER
JACKSON, N. C.

Estimates on all classes of building cheerfully given. Agent for Edwards Metal Shingles. Write me for styles and delivered prices.

WINBORNE & WINBORNE,
Attorneys at Law,
MURFREESBORO, N. C.

Phones Nos. 17 and 21.

GAY & MIDYETTE
Attorneys & Counsellors at Law
JACKSON, N. C.

Practice in all Courts. All business promptly and faithfully attended to. Office 2nd floor, New Bank building.

DR. J. M. JACOBS
DENTIST,
ROXOBEL, N. C.

Extracting from children at same price as adults.

Dr. W. J. Ward,
DENTIST,
WELDON, N. C.

Dr. E. Ehringhaus
DENTIST
JACKSON, N. C.

Dentistry in all of its branches. Crown and Bridge work a specialty. Office in New Flythe Building over Postoffice.

HOUSE MOVERS:

We are now prepared to move houses of any size. Prices low. It will be to our interest to see us.

COPELAND BROTHERS,
George, N. C.

W. H. S. BURGWIN JR.,
ATTORNEY AT LAW.

Woodland, North Carolina. Office in Farmer's Bank Building. Practice in all Courts. Business promptly and faithfully attended.

Contractor and Builder.

For all Brick and Plastering Construction Work communicate with A. T. Vick, Contractor and Builder, Franklin, Va., before letting contract.
1-241-yr

S. M. DICKENS
PRIVATE DETECTIVE
WELDON, N. C.

I have two fine English Bloodhounds for running down criminals. Wire or phone me night or day. Phone No. 210.

We offer the New York World three times a week and the ROANOKE-CHOWAN TIMES all one year for $1.65, old or new subscriptions.

SEABOARD LOCALS.

Shot in the Face--Christmas Festivities--Hotel Change Hands--Fox Hunting--Personals.

Mr. Robt. Long, accompanied by his sister, Miss Edna, spent the past Sunday with their aunt, Mrs. J. W. Johnson, Conway.

Mr. H. Carlton Maddrey and wife were guests Sunday in the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Buffalo, Jackson.

Mr. Ben Long, after a visit of several weeks to his mother, Mrs. Anna Long, left last Friday for Jacksonville, Fla.

We are pleased to welcome three new families into our midst. Mr. J. M. Rose is occupying the Sheriff Joyner house, Mr. A. L. Ford has purchased and moved into the Jno. Pope house, and Mr. J. L. Harris, after a residence of two years in Garysburg, is again occupying his cozy cottage on Main St. We hear of other families who wish to move here but cannot secure houses.

There is not a vacant house in this town. We hope the building spirit will seize some of our public spirited citizens and ere long many bare lots will be adorned with handsome residences.

Mrs. M. A. E. Garris, after a visit to her daughter, Mrs. W. T. Norvell, returned Monday to her home, Margarettsville.

Mr. Burton Rodwell, Macon, was a welcome guest in the home of Mr. J. G. L. Crocker the past Sunday.

The Seaboard Hotel has changed hands since our last communication. Mrs. Bettie I. Pruden is now the popular proprietress. She has made a very auspicious opening and everything bids fair for a successful year. Mrs. Dollie Carpenter, former manager, is occupying the Ramsay residence on Main St.

We have been requested to announce that there will be a Xmas tree at Mt. Carmel Baptist church on the afternoon of Dec. 26, beginning at 2 o'clock. The Sunbeams of same church will give a play entitled "Santa in Southland" on the same occasion. The public is cordially invited, a pleasant afternoon is promised all who can attend.

Mr. Ezra Bowers and daughter, Miss Annie, Airlie, N. C., and Mr. and Mrs. Green F. Gay were callers in our town the past Sunday afternoon.

Our college boys and girls will be returning for the holidays by the close of the week and many hearts will be gladdened.

Oil stoves have been purchased for the class rooms of the Baptist church which will add much to the comfort of the occupants in the future.

The pleasant weather of the past week has enabled most of our farmers to successfully harvest their crops. Very few peanuts remain to be threshed. Considerable cotton is still in the fields. Notwithstanding the low price a few bales find their way to market every day.

The friends and members of his flock are pleased at the return of Rev. M. Y. Self to the M. E. church here for another year. He did not fill his regular appointment here last Sunday but will be on hand 4th. Sunday evening at the usual hour.

Quite a number of lovers of the chase left here Monday night on the biggest fox hunt of the season. We learned there were 50 dogs in the chase. Huntsmen from Jackson, Garysburg and the surrounding country augmented Seaboard's large number of lovers of the sport. They are enjoying the fun while we write so cannot report results.

Mr. J. L. Harris met with a rather painful although not serious accident last Friday. One of his farm hands became incensed over being refused a team to ride and shot Mr. Harris with a shot gun—a number of shot (which were small) lodged in his face and one hand. The negro left for parts unknown and has not yet been apprehended.

The Seaboard Sunbeams will repeat their effort of one year ago and give an Xmas tree in the auditorium of Seaboard State High School, Friday evening, December 19, beginning at 7:30 o'clock. Songs and recitations appropriate for the occasion will be features of the evening's entertainment. The public invited and promised a pleasant time.

Seaboard State High School will close next Friday for a two week's holiday. The teachers will leave for their respective homes, Friday, on night train.

Dr. Coppedge's wife and children, Rockingham, N. C., spent last week here esteemed guests of her sister, Mrs. Carter Barnes.

Conway Locals.

Miss Cora Gray of Boykins, Va., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Fred Britton.

Messrs. J. B. and J. M. Vick visited relatives in Branchville Sunday.

Mr. J. T. Flythe and family and Mrs. Lister of Jackson were visitors in town Sunday.

Dr. P. C. Brittle and family and Miss Mary Hoover spent Saturday and Sunday in Woodland.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Lassiter spent Saturday and Sunday with her sister, Mrs. Ed Stephenson, of Margarettsville.

Miss Kate Johnson of near Zion spent last Tuesday night with Miss Maggie Davis and attended the play, "East Lynn."

The invitations are out to the marriage of Miss Pattie Martin to Mr. David Burgess on Wednesday, the seventeenth.

The Epworth League held its regular monthly meeting last Sunday night in the Methodist church.

The Theatrical Troupe was here Tuesday night and presented the play, "East Lynn," which delighted the audience.

It may be of interest to some to know the weight of a hog raised by one of our progressive farmers, Mr. Charlie Butler, the weight was 419 pounds.

The people were delighted Tuesday morning to get a telegram from Rev. D. L. Earnhardt at conference stating that he would be with us another year. Mr. Earnhardt has served his people very faithful for the past year and we are sure he will serve us equally as well in the coming year.

The school pupils are working hard for a vacation which will be well earned, the primary teacher, Miss Mary Hoover, will have an entertainment on Christmas eve, Dec. 24, in the school auditorium, and a Christmas tree afterwards, for everybody. We will be glad if you have any Christmas presents to give, send them to us and we will put them on the tree. No admission fee. The high school pupils will present the play, "Handicapped," on Friday night after Christmas, December 26, admission ten and fifteen cents. Everybody invited to come.

To Cure a Cold in One Day
Take LAXATIVE BROMO Quinine. It stops the Cough and Headache and works off the Cold. Druggists refund money if it fails to cure. E. W. GROVE'S signature on each box. 25c.

FROM GEORGE.

Obstructed The Public Road--General Acts of School Patrons--Personal Items.

Farmers in this section are busy this week getting their corn shredded.

Mrs. J. N. Futrell returned Monday from Norfolk, where she had been for an operation.

Messrs. John and Elwood Timberlake, two of the basket makers in the factory here, left Monday for their home near Richmond, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Brown made a business trip to Norfolk last week.

Mr. C. T. Outland was in Norfolk the first of this week.

Mr. B. T. Lassiter Jr. is visiting near Newport News, Va.

There will be an entertainment at Olney School building next Saturday night beginning at 7:30 o'clock. After the exercises are over there will be some very valuable articles sold at auction.

These things have been made by students and members of the Woman's Betterment Association and they will no doubt make very handy Christmas gifts.

When the sale is over the Betterment Association will serve refreshments. Everybody is invited to be present.

Mr. and Mrs. Elisha J. Bye, of West Branch, Iowa, and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin Heald of the same state are now occupying the house owned by the late Jesse W. Peele. This property has been bought by Mr. W. F. Outland, one of Northampton's leading citizens, and a prosperous farmer.

Mr. W. J. Brown sent out word a few days ago that anybody in this vicinity might have for the hauling, all the waste material they wanted around the basket factory. This is very valuable for starting fires, as it burns almost as good as "light-wood." The school here became interested in the offer and they got the patrons interested, and so on last Friday there were a number of carts and wagons brought to school by the boys and girls. During the noon hour enough of this refuse material was hauled to last nearly all winter. The teachers and students are very grateful to Mr. Brown for his very generous offer and also to all the patrons who were so kind and thoughtful as to send carts and wagons.

The editor, in the last issue of the TIMES, said report the bad things as well as the good. Last Friday night somebody who was out for mischief, did one of the meanest things that has been done in this section for some time. During the early part of the night while some men were passing by Mr. J. W. Jessup's mill, they stopped and went up on his mill yard and rolled a log all the way down to the road and placed it right across the road. The log was two feet in diameter. Not satisfied with this bold and low down act they went on to Mr. J. Elwood Boyce's and finding a roll of wire near his gate, stretched it across the road so that any one coming by might have been seriously injured. At another place they put a telephone pole across the road. The whole neighborhood is worked up over this act and believe that could the guilty persons be found out, that the law should deal with them.

The editor, in the last issue of the TIMES, said report the bad things as well as the good. Last Friday night somebody who was out for mischief, did one of the meanest things that has been done in this section for some time. During the early part of the night while some men were passing by Mr. J. W. Jessup's mill, they stopped and went up on his mill yard and rolled a log all the way down to the road and placed it right across the road. The log was two feet in diameter. Not satisfied with this bold and low down act they went on to Mr. J. Elwood Boyce's and finding a roll of wire near his gate, stretched it across the road so that any one coming by might have been seriously injured. At another place they put a telephone pole across the road. The whole neighborhood is worked up over this act and believe that could the guilty persons be found out, that the law should deal with them.

The editor, in the last issue of the TIMES, said report the bad things as well as the good. Last Friday night somebody who was out for mischief, did one of the meanest things that has been done in this section for some time. During the early part of the night while some men were passing by Mr. J. W. Jessup's mill, they stopped and went up on his mill yard and rolled a log all the way down to the road and placed it right across the road. The log was two feet in diameter. Not satisfied with this bold and low down act they went on to Mr. J. Elwood Boyce's and finding a roll of wire near his gate, stretched it across the road so that any one coming by might have been seriously injured. At another place they put a telephone pole across the road. The whole neighborhood is worked up over this act and believe that could the guilty persons be found out, that the law should deal with them.

The editor, in the last issue of the TIMES, said report the bad things as well as the good. Last Friday night somebody who was out for mischief, did one of the meanest things that has been done in this section for some time. During the early part of the night while some men were passing by Mr. J. W. Jessup's mill, they stopped and went up on his mill yard and rolled a log all the way down to the road and placed it right across the road. The log was two feet in diameter. Not satisfied with this bold and low down act they went on to Mr. J. Elwood Boyce's and finding a roll of wire near his gate, stretched it across the road so that any one coming by might have been seriously injured. At another place they put a telephone pole across the road. The whole neighborhood is worked up over this act and believe that could the guilty persons be found out, that the law should deal with them.

The editor, in the last issue of the TIMES, said report the bad things as well as the good. Last Friday night somebody who was out for mischief, did one of the meanest things that has been done in this section for some time. During the early part of the night while some men were passing by Mr. J. W. Jessup's mill, they stopped and went up on his mill yard and rolled a log all the way down to the road and placed it right across the road. The log was two feet in diameter. Not satisfied with this bold and low down act they went on to Mr. J. Elwood Boyce's and finding a roll of wire near his gate, stretched it across the road so that any one coming by might have been seriously injured. At another place they put a telephone pole across the road. The whole neighborhood is worked up over this act and believe that could the guilty persons be found out, that the law should deal with them.

The editor, in the last issue of the TIMES, said report the bad things as well as the good. Last Friday night somebody who was out for mischief, did one of the meanest things that has been done in this section for some time. During the early part of the night while some men were passing by Mr. J. W. Jessup's mill, they stopped and went up on his mill yard and rolled a log all the way down to the road and placed it right across the road. The log was two feet in diameter. Not satisfied with this bold and low down act they went on to Mr. J. Elwood Boyce's and finding a roll of wire near his gate, stretched it across the road so that any one coming by might have been seriously injured. At another place they put a telephone pole across the road. The whole neighborhood is worked up over this act and believe that could the guilty persons be found out, that the law should deal with them.

The editor, in the last issue of the TIMES, said report the bad things as well as the good. Last Friday night somebody who was out for mischief, did one of the meanest things that has been done in this section for some time. During the early part of the night while some men were passing by Mr. J. W. Jessup's mill, they stopped and went up on his mill yard and rolled a log all the way down to the road and placed it right across the road. The log was two feet in diameter. Not satisfied with this bold and low down act they went on to Mr. J. Elwood Boyce's and finding a roll of wire near his gate, stretched it across the road so that any one coming by might have been seriously injured. At another place they put a telephone pole across the road. The whole neighborhood is worked up over this act and believe that could the guilty persons be found out, that the law should deal with them.

The editor, in the last issue of the TIMES, said report the bad things as well as the good. Last Friday night somebody who was out for mischief, did one of the meanest things that has been done in this section for some time. During the early part of the night while some men were passing by Mr. J. W. Jessup's mill, they stopped and went up on his mill yard and rolled a log all the way down to the road and placed it right across the road. The log was two feet in diameter. Not satisfied with this bold and low down act they went on to Mr. J. Elwood Boyce's and finding a roll of wire near his gate, stretched it across the road so that any one coming by might have been seriously injured. At another place they put a telephone pole across the road. The whole neighborhood is worked up over this act and believe that could the guilty persons be found out, that the law should deal with them.

The editor, in the last issue of the TIMES, said report the bad things as well as the good. Last Friday night somebody who was out for mischief, did one of the meanest things that has been done in this section for some time. During the early part of the night while some men were passing by Mr. J. W. Jessup's mill, they stopped and went up on his mill yard and rolled a log all the way down to the road and placed it right across the road. The log was two feet in diameter. Not satisfied with this bold and low down act they went on to Mr. J. Elwood Boyce's and finding a roll of wire near his gate, stretched it across the road so that any one coming by might have been seriously injured. At another place they put a telephone pole across the road. The whole neighborhood is worked up over this act and believe that could the guilty persons be found out, that the law should deal with them.

The editor, in the last issue of the TIMES, said report the bad things as well as the good. Last Friday night somebody who was out for mischief, did one of the meanest things that has been done in this section for some time. During the early part of the night while some men were passing by Mr. J. W. Jessup's mill, they stopped and went up on his mill yard and rolled a log all the way down to the road and placed it right across the road. The log was two feet in diameter. Not satisfied with this bold and low down act they went on to Mr. J. Elwood Boyce's and finding a roll of wire near his gate, stretched it across the road so that any one coming by might have been seriously injured. At another place they put a telephone pole across the road. The whole neighborhood is worked up over this act and believe that could the guilty persons be found out, that the law should deal with them.

The editor, in the last issue of the TIMES, said report the bad things as well as the good. Last Friday night somebody who was out for mischief, did one of the meanest things that has been done in this section for some time. During the early part of the night while some men were passing by Mr. J. W. Jessup's mill, they stopped and went up on his mill yard and rolled a log all the way down to the road and placed it right across the road. The log was two feet in diameter. Not satisfied with this bold and low down act they went on to Mr. J. Elwood Boyce's and finding a roll of wire near his gate, stretched it across the road so that any one coming by might have been seriously injured. At another place they put a telephone pole across the road. The whole neighborhood is worked up over this act and believe that could the guilty persons be found out, that the law should deal with them.

The editor, in the last issue of the TIMES, said report the bad things as well as the good. Last Friday night somebody who was out for mischief, did one of the meanest things that has been done in this section for some time. During the early part of the night while some men were passing by Mr. J. W. Jessup's mill, they stopped and went up on his mill yard and rolled a log all the way down to the road and placed it right across the road. The log was two feet in diameter. Not satisfied with this bold and low down act they went on to Mr. J. Elwood Boyce's and finding a roll of wire near his gate, stretched it across the road so that any one coming by might have been seriously injured. At another place they put a telephone pole across the road. The whole neighborhood is worked up over this act and believe that could the guilty persons be found out, that the law should deal with them.

The editor, in the last issue of the TIMES, said report the bad things as well as the good. Last Friday night somebody who was out for mischief, did one of the meanest things that has been done in this section for some time. During the early part of the night while some men were passing by Mr. J. W. Jessup's mill, they stopped and went up on his mill yard and rolled a log all the way down to the road and placed it right across the road. The log was two feet in diameter. Not satisfied with this bold and low down act they went on to Mr. J. Elwood Boyce's and finding a roll of wire near his gate, stretched it across the road so that any one coming by might have been seriously injured. At another place they put a telephone pole across the road. The whole neighborhood is worked up over this act and believe that could the guilty persons be found out, that the law should deal with them.

Savage--Cherry.

On Tuesday evening, Dec. 9th the Methodist Church, Lewiston, N. C., was the scene of a beautiful wedding, when Frances Gabett, the daughter of Mrs. Fanny Cherry, became the bride of Mr. Austin Savage.

The interior of the church was artistically decorated under the supervision of Mrs. H. T. Clark and Mrs. Amelia Williams, the color scheme being white and yellow.

The pews were crowded with many relatives and friends. The out of town guests were Miss Lila Hancock of Rocky Mount, N. C., Messrs. Joe Vann, George Baker and Stanley Leary of Ahoskie, N. C.

Mendelssohn's wedding march was beautifully rendered by Miss Margaret Spivey. In came the ribbon bearers, little Miss Eleanor Cherry, dressed in white with a yellow sash, and Master Robt. Cherry, brother of the bride, followed by the ushers, Messrs. Julian Parker and Jim Peele. Then came the bridesmaids and groomsmen, Miss Ella May Garrett of Ahoskie and Mr. Linwood Hoggard, Miss Edna Rawls and Mr. Sam Boyette of Ahoskie, Miss Margaret Clark and Mr. Hugh Dukes, Miss Ophelia Savage of Speed, N. C., and Mr. Thomas N. Peele. The bridesmaids were dressed in lace over yellow satin, and carried a bouquet of yellow chrysanthemums and fern.

The bride was gowned in white duchess satin and beautifully veiled. She carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. Her only ornament was a pearl brooch, gift of the groom. She entered with her maid of honor, Miss Lillian Cherry, who was gowned in yellow charmeuse and carried yellow roses. The groom entered on the arm of his best man, Mr. George C. Spoolman. The ceremony was solemnized by the M. E. pastor, Rev. M. W. Hester.

The bride's going-away gown was of brown cloth with hat and gloves to match.

The bride and groom left on the 8:25 train for Jacksonville and other points of interest in Florida.

The bride is one of Lewiston's most attractive and popular young ladies. The groom is from one of the best families of Edgecombe County, and is a very popular and industrious young man. They were the recipients of many valuable presents of cut glass and silver.

Mr. and Mrs. Savage will be at home in Lewiston after Dec. 23rd.

If He Only Knew.

From the Boston Post.

"I wish," wished the man who was always wishing for something or other, "I wish I knew the exact spot where I'm gonna die."

"You're crazy," said his friend, "to make a wish like that. Why, man, you'd worry and fret all your life if you knew where you are going to die."

"I would not, Gee-whiz, I'd never go near the place!"

Fashion's Slave.

From the Cincinnati Enquirer.

Willie--Paw, what is a slave to fashion?

Paw--A man who has a wife and some grown daughters, my son.

Piles Cured in 6 to 14 Days
Your druggist will refund money if Pazo Ointment fails to cure any case of Itching, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 14 days. The first application gives Ease and Rest. 50c.

MARGARETTSVILLE NEWS.

School Building Nearing Completion--Returned From the North--Fire Alarm--Personals.

Remember the Temperance entertainment at the Baptist church next Sunday evening at 7:30 o'clock.

Dr. and Mrs. R. H. Stancill spent several days last week in Norfolk.

Mr. Fred Spencer, Branchville, spent Sunday with Mr. J. G. Bottoms.

Mrs. Stella Coppedge and children arrived from Rockingham Saturday to pay a visit to her brother, Mr. Fred Garriss.

Messrs. S. B. Jones and H. L. Coggin spent a short while in Weldon, Saturday.

Miss Nellie Long attended services in Seaboard Sunday morning.

Last Saturday afternoon just at the close of an enthusiastic meeting of the W. C. T. U. the fire alarm was sounded from the church grounds and in just a few minutes there were no less than fifty men, white and colored, working rapidly to extinguish the flames from the church roof. Especially do the members of the church feel greatly indebted to Mr. J. S. Gay and the untiring colored men for their prompt hasty work.

Mr. A. T. Vick, the contractor of the school building, has rushed the brick work to completion which was dedicated last Friday by the laying of the last brick by Miss Peele. Those who watched her as she ascended to the high platform by the top of the chimney, expected to see her give out by the way but not so, for as she came out on the platform all eyes were eager to watch the work accomplished. The inside work is being pushed forward rapidly and the house will be ready for work within its walls sometime the first of the year.

After a stay of several months in Philadelphia, New York, and Brooklyn, Mrs. W. A. Vick and son, William, gave their many friends here a delightful surprise Sunday night by their return to our town.

Miss Maude Stancill spent a few days the past week in Norfolk.

Mrs. Hannah Jordan has returned from an extended visit to friends of Weldon.

Potocasi News.

Misses Mary T. Parker and Mabel Bolton of Woodland were guests in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Blow Saturday and Sunday.

Mrs. W. H. Gilbert of Raleigh is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. R. Baugham.

Miss Mattie Joyner visited Miss Estelle Beale Saturday night and Sunday.

Mr. J. R. Beale is visiting his daughter, Mrs. E. W. Parker, at Newsoms, Va., this week.

Mr. W. N. Baker of Roxobel spent Saturday night with his brother, Mr. J. G. Baker.

Mr. Robert Hart of Drum Hill, N. C., is visiting friends and relatives here.

Miss Louise, Atkins, music teacher here, will start for her home in Youngsville, S. C., in a few days.

Mr. W. J. Baugham has recently purchased the residence formerly owned by Dr. C. G. Powell, also store lot, and has opened a nice line of goods. We wish him much success.

Mr. J. G. Baker visited his parents near Roxobel Sunday.

The ROANOKE-CHOWAN TIMES and Bryan's Commoner $1.65.