FROM CONWAY.

Married in Asheville--Spelling Bee Friday Evening--A Social Event--General News.

Mr. Alvah Martin of Roxobel spent from Friday until Sunday with his father, Mr. B. F. Martin.

Mr. J. E. Taylor returned home Sunday from Richmond where he has been to purchase his spring and summer goods.

Miss Irene Earnhardt was in Rich Square shopping Saturday, between trains.

Mr. and Mrs. Ebb Peele of Lasker spent a few days in the home of Mr. J. T. Bristow last week.

Mrs. S. F. Lassiter and Miss Eunice Martin were in Murfreesboro shopping Saturday.

Messrs. L. W. Flythe, T. R. Futrell, W. A. Davis and W. H. Vick were in Norfolk last week on business.

Several of our young people attended the Union Meeting at Lasker Saturday.

Mrs. Burden Ricks of near Murfreesboro was a caller at "Vick's Hotel" Wednesday.

Mr. John White of Margarettsville was a caller in town Saturday and Sunday.

Miss Mary Vinson and Master Wilson Garriss are on sick list this week.

Last Friday evening Prof. Rudisill took the intermediate and advanced pupils down to Milwaukee for a "Spelling Bee" between Conway and Milwaukee. The spelling was called out by Prof. Gilliam. The one standing the longest on Conway side was Miss Cattie Vick. (in scores of 5 to 1) in favor of Milwaukee. They will come over here next Friday evening. Everybody is invited to come and see who will be defeated this time.

Mr. Elias Jefferson Vick, one of Conway's most promising young men, and Miss Nancy Ellen Reynolds of Asheville were married in the home of the bride March 24, 1914. After an extended tour in Tennessee and Northern points, they returned to Conway Sunday, the home of the groom and were received by his immediate family and invited guests, namely: Mr. and Mrs. Burden Ricks, Misses Claudia and Ethel Bristow, Mary and Myra Vinson, Irene Earnhardt, Mary Martin, Eunice Martin and Mary Hoover; Messrs. Jesse Lassiter, Lloyd Flythe, Jennings White, Carson Kerans. After warmly welcoming the bride and groom the guests were ushered into the dining-room where the table was beautifully decorated and a dinner of many courses served, which was greatly enjoyed by all. After the dinner a very pleasant afternoon was spent. The people of Conway are glad to have in their midst the charming and talented young lady, Mrs. Vick.

A short time ago Miss Lucile Futrell entertained a few of her friends at her fifteenth birthday party, from 8 to 10:30 P. M. In the hall piano music was furnished by Misses Ethel Bristow and Irene Earnhardt; in the parlor "Progressive Rook" was played. At the hour of 10:00 the guests were ushered into the dining-room where a luncheon was served, which consisted of ham sandwiches, crackers, chicken salad, coffee, cake and jelly. The table was beautifully decorated with ivy, carnations and lighted candles. Among those present were, Misses Mary, Myra and Judith Vinson, Claudia and Ethel Bristow, Ruby Rice, Elizabeth Britton, Irene Earnhardt, Gertrude Fattrell, Annie Garriss, Grace Sykes, Mary Hoover, Eunice Martin and Cattie Vick; Messrs. Estern Hedgepeth, John White, Carson Kerans, Lloyd Flythe, Jennings White, Cola Futrell, John Draper, Hubert Bridgers, Bayard DeLoatch, Prof. Rudisill, Troy Taylor, Charlie Garriss, Luther Johnson, Freddie Sumner, Rufus Cogans, and Riley Bridgers of Norfolk, Va.

Miss Futrell received many and useful gifts. The guests left for their homes at the hour of 10:30, expressing their enjoyment and wishing her many more birthdays as happy as her fifteenth. Mrs. T. R. Futrell assisted by Mrs. S. D. Hedspeth proved an entertaining hostess.

Woodland Locals.

Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Odom of Ahoskie spent Monday in town, guests of Mrs. Odom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. T. Griffin.

Mrs. R. Deans Harrell came home Saturday from Windsor where she had been for the past ten days at the bedside of her aunt.

Misses Effie and Clara Futrell of Rich Square R. F. D. 2, were here Monday shopping.

Misses Sybil Harrell, Lillian Carter, Inez Benthall, Hannah Holloman and Reta Griffin of Chowan College spent from Thursday till Tuesday at their homes here. Misses Benthall and Carter were accompanied by Misses Ruth and Maud Sawyer of Elizabeth City and Miss Belle Walker of Columbia and Miss Mable Burk of Buies Creek.

Mrs. J. I. Futrell and daughter, Miss Janie, of Murfreesboro spent Friday night with Mrs. Futrell's parents, Mr. and Mrs. G. B. Pope.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Boone of Winton visited Mr. and Mrs. J. P. Griffin Friday night.

Miss Mabel Bolton, who is teaching at Dusty Hill spent the week end at her home.

We are sorry to note that our town is soon to suffer the loss of two of its most worthy families in the persons of Mr. and Mrs. W. N. Griffith and Mr. C. B. Pond and family. Messrs. Pond and Griffith are to establish a commission business in Norfolk. Mr. Griffith left Monday and Mr. Pond Wednesday. They will take their families with them later. We are sorry to lose these good citizens. But since they have decided its for their own good that they cast their lot among the people of Norfolk, we can only say that they carry with them the best wishes of our people.

Messrs. J. P. Griffin and Ralph Benthall are attending court in Jackson this week. Mr. Benthall is foreman of the Grand Jury.

Our people sympathize with Mrs. J. B. Griffin in the loss she has sustained in the death of her brother, Mr. W. C. Beale, of St. Johns, who died Monday afternoon.

Mr. J. B. Griffin is having the old office which once belonged to Dr. J. L. Outland moved to the mill for his mill office.

Contest.

There will be a contest and spelling match at Potocasi in the Graded School building Friday night, April 3. The public is cordially invited. Admission free.

KELFORD NEWS.

Dr. Capehart for Legislature--Hotel Changes Hands--Church Work--Personals.

The bad weather which has prevailed for the past few weeks has placed farmers far behind in their work.

Many people of Kelford are suffering with colds.

Mr. J. B. Stephenson, our popular hotel man, has sold the Stephenson Hotel to a Mr. Liverman of Murfreesboro and will give possession April 15th. This is a valuable piece of property and we understand that Mr. Liverman bought it cheap. On account of the large farming interest that Mr. Stephenson is engaged in he was unable to give the hotel business the attention it required, hence the sale.

Rev. Henry T. Outland, of the Friends denomination, paid a visit to Kelford Sunday School last Sunday and made a fine talk before the School. His rendition in rhyme on the several books of the Bible was both entertaining and instructive. The readers of the TIMES at Kelford would be glad if the Editor would get Bro. Outland to furnish a copy of this beautiful rhymical poem for publication in an early issue of his valuable paper. Bro. Outland has many friends at Kelford.

The Baraca-Philathea classes of Kelford held their regular monthly business meeting at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. E. E. Tyler on Main St. Thursday evening, March 26. Quite a lot of valuable business was transacted by both classes and at the close of the business the classes joined themselves in the parlor and after a short while of pleasant gossip they were ushered into the dining room where refreshments were served by Misses Inez and Fannie Tyler. At ten o'clock the members of the classes extended their appreciative thanks to Miss Inez and Miss Fannie for the pleasant entertainment and dispersed to their several homes.

The announcement of Dr. Alanson Capehart of Roxobel as a candidate for Representative of Bertie County in the next General Assembly of North Carolina is very pleasing to his many friends in this end of the county, and we understand that the people of all parts of the county are considering him as an ideal man for the position. His ability as a man and his knowledge of public affairs amply fit him for that high position and the people feel that if he is nominated and elected the affairs of Bertie county will be well looked after.

Advices Bucket to Prevent Farm Fires.

"A fire bucket and barrel of water are efficient and inexpensive means for preventing the spread of fire on the farm," says the State fire marshal, "and because they are so inexpensive, each farmer should keep such means of fire protection always handy."

In reference to farm fires, the use of round bottom buckets for fire prevention purposes is suggested, since these will not be practical for other uses, and will therefore always be left near the fire barrel.

To prevent the water in the fire barrel from freezing in the winter time, add slightly over two pounds of fused calcium chloride.

Seaboard Locals.

Misses Lucy and Laura Allen of the Seaboard High School faculty went to Richmond last Friday on a shopping expedition, but returned on early train Monday morning in time for school.

Mr. and Mrs. A. K. Harris, after a pleasant visit to relatives of Frankin, returned to their home here Monday noon.

Miss Ruth Drewitt, accompanied by Mr. Early Maddray, returned Sunday on No. 12, from a visit to Suffolk friends.

Mr. Weaver, the blind colporteur, of Enfield, spent Saturday night in the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. P. Stephenson and preached Sunday morning and evening at the Baptist church. He made a house to house canvass Monday morning with his books and so great was the sympathy of our people for his affliction that he sold out the entire lot he brought here. Our people are not better than other peoples perhaps, but they are ever responsive to need and misfortune.

Messrs. Grady Edwards of R. W. Edwards & Son and Andrew J. Crocker of Crocker & Crocker are in the northern markets this week, purchasing their stock of spring and summer merchandise.

Mr. Peter Futrell, Woodland, who is a juror at court this week drove over here Monday and spent the night with relatives.

Mrs. Green F. Gay returned Monday morning from Franklin, Va., where she had been visiting her schoolmates, Mesdames W. W. Ellis and Claude Parker.

Mr. W. Parham Edwards, who has been from home for several months, gave his friends a glad surprise by dropping in at his home here, unannounced, last Wednesday afternoon. He says he has traveled extensively but has found no place like Seaboard, expects to live and die here now. This is not at all unnatural, all of them talk that way, after having resided here awhile.

"The Hotel Randolph," which has been patiently waiting for good weather and a good plaster, is to have its waiting rewarded this week. The plaster is on hand and March is to take its exit, so its to be hoped bad weather is behind us.

Mesdames J. W. Leake and Mattie M. Gay have returned from the Northern markets with their stocks of spring millinery which are being opened for display as fast as they arrive. Watch the ad columns of the TIMES and give them a call.

"Her Ladyship's Niece" which was so exquisitely rendered in Seaboard Auditorium, by Jackson talent, last Friday evening, was a decided success from every standpoint. The bad condition of the roads prevented many country people from patronizing it who would have been glad to have done so under more favorable circumstances. We understand the door receipts were $19.00 which is not bad, everything considered. We hope they will come our way again in the near future.

Mrs. Lucie Gibboney, Wytheville, Va., who has been visiting her sister, Mrs. A. K. Harris, left Saturday for Emporia for a visit to her niece, Mrs. Robt. E. Stephenson, before leaving for her home.

Mrs. Mattie M. Gay has been confined to her room with sickness ever since her return from the Northern markets. We hope to see her at her place of business soon.

L. M. CALVERT PROMOTED.

Sons of Northampton and Hertford Counties Rising in Railroad Service.

News and Observer.

Mr. L. M. Calvert is to be the new city ticket agent of the Seaboard, succeeding Mr. J. Frank Mitchell who becomes traveling passenger agent for the Norfolk Southern. He takes charge the first day of April.

The announcement was made yesterday of Mr. Calvert's appointment by Mr. John T. West, division passenger agent, of the Seaboard. Mr. Calvert is a North Carolinian, a native of Jackson, and has many relatives in this State. He has been ticket agent for the Seaboard at Portsmouth, Va., and is delighted at the opportunity of returning to his native State.

Mr. West declares Mr. Calvert to be a most capable man and that with him in charge the city ticket office in Raleigh will be handled with the same attention and competency as in the past.

Raleigh will be glad to see another North Carolinian in the Seaboard office here, and the high esteem in which Mr. Calvert is held by his associates is a guarantee of his efficiency. He will be given a warm welcome in Raleigh.

(Mr. Calvert is the youngest son of Mr. and Mrs. S. J. Calvert of Jackson, and Mr. Mitchell is a native of Hertford county.—ED.)

Democratic Mass-Meeting, Raleigh, April 8th.

Wm. J. Bryan, Josephus Daniels, Governor Locke Craig, ex-Governor Glenn, and other Democratic leaders of State and National reputation are to speak at the great Democratic Mass-Meeting in Raleigh, Wednesday, April 8th, beginning at noon. A State-wide legalized primary, the adoption of the proposed Constitutional Amendments, a better system of taxation, improved legislation affecting roads, schools, health and country life, a better child labor law, and many other big issues are to be discussed. Every Democrat in the State is invited, and special railroad rates are expected. There will doubtless be a great attendance.
