TRY IT! SUBSTITUTE FOR NASTY CALOMEL

Starts your liver without making you sick and can not salivate.

Every druggist in town—your druggist and everybody's druggist has noticed a great falling-off in the sale of calomel. They all give the same reason. Dodson's Liver Tone is taking its place.

"Calomel is dangerous and people know it, while Dodson's Liver Tone is perfectly safe and gives better results," said a prominent local druggist. Dodson's Liver Tone is personally guaranteed by every druggist who sells it. A large bottle costs 50 cents, and if it fails to give easy relief in every case of liver sluggishness and constipation, you have only to ask for your money back.

Dodson's Liver Tone is a pleasant-tasting, purely vegetable remedy, harmless to both children and adults. Take a spoonful at night and wake up feeling fine; no biliousness, sick headache, acid stomach or constipated bowels. It doesn't gripe or cause inconvenience all the next day like violent calomel. Take a dose of calomel today and tomorrow you will feel weak, sick and nauseated. Don't lose a day's work! Take Dodson's Liver Tone instead and feel fine, full of vigor and ambition.

Mr. Rufus Howell of Seaboard spent Sunday afternoon in the home of Mr. M. M. Long.

Mr. J. B. Stephenson Jr., who has been representing Mr. J. J. White in the peanut market at Lewiston, spent Sunday here with his people.

Misses Mary Fleetwood and Lillie Pruden spent Saturday and Sunday with Mrs. E. T. Britt.

On Thursday evening Nov. 9, Pastor Blalock thinking pleasant social intercourse was good for people, urged every officer and teacher of the Sunday school to attend the weekly teachers' meeting. At the close of the lesson discussion all were invited into the primary classroom where half an hour was spent in pleasant conversation and delicious cakes and ambrosia were served.

On Wednesday evening Nov. 8th, the prayer services at the Methodist church were given over to Pastor Rose who preached an excellent sermon to his people. His text was taken from the 7th chapter of Judges, and was the story of Gideon. The lesson he drew from the sermon was that each one has a work to do, and a place in which to work. Then he urged every one to be faithful to the task given them, quoting a part of the poem, "You in your corner and I in mine."

Mr. and Mrs. Cola Mann and children were guests of Mrs. Mann's brother, Mr. J. B. Stephenson, Sunday.

Mr. H. P. Stephenson spent Sunday in Jackson.

Messrs. Worrell, Lamb and Pope and Misses Pope of Southampton, Va., were guests of Miss Callie Bryant Sunday.

Fine Farms For Sale.

The J. H. Hardy farm at Roxobel is advertised for sale at public auction on next Thursday. It has been cut up into small farms of from one to 30 acres each. This is one of the finest farms in Bertie or in any other county in the State, is located on one of the most traveled roads, partly in the town of Roxobel, right at three churches, fine graded school and some of the best people in the world. We know of no finer opportunity to secure desirable homes. See large advertisement.

The County Vote.

According to the official returns Mr. Sam'l J. Calvert, for Register of Deeds, received more votes than any other candidate at the election last week. Mr. Calvert has led the ticket for several years.

LET US SMILE.

The thing that goes the farthest toward making life worth while, that costs the least and does the most, is just the pleasant smile. A smile that bubbles from a heart that loves its fellow men, will drive away the cloud of gloom and coax the sun again. It's full of worth and goodness, too, with manly kindness blest. It's worth a million dollars and it doesn't cost a cent.

SEABOARD LOCALS.

Marriage of Crocker-Leake--Miss Collins Growing Weaker--School Entertainment--Personals.

Mr. R. W. Edwards is spending a few days in Baltimore on business.

Mrs. J. L. Harris and J. H. Bradley visited in the home of Mr. Robt. L. Reese, Garysburg, the past Sunday. Mr. Reese, who has been in a Richmond hospital for treatment recently, is, to the gratification of friends, slowly convalescing at his home.

After a pleasant visit to friends of Roanoke Rapids, Miss Lucile Edwards returned home the past Saturday. For two years Miss Lucile was a popular member of the Roanoke Rapids High School faculty and her patrons always give her a warm greeting.

Miss Bernice Kelly, assistant in Seaboard State High School, is still at the bedside of her college-mate, Miss Inda Collins. The latest bulletin from the sick room is, Miss Collins is growing weaker each day, therefore Miss Kelly cannot say, positively, when she can resume her school room duties here. These young women are the most devoted friends and everybody here sorrows at the possible, early separation.

Rev. M. Y. Self, Garysburg, filled his regular monthly appointment at the M. E. church here Sunday morning and at Concord in the afternoon.

Dr. M. R. Stephenson and Mr. Ned M. Harris left Monday for Bristol, Tenn., where they purpose purchasing some improved cattle.

The showers of Sunday put an end to peanut picking Monday morning. The warm sunshine of Monday served to dry the vines, so the music of the many threshing machines will doubtless be heard again Tuesday morning.

The school for colored children here opened Monday morning with a larger attendance than usual. Considerable cotton still remains in the fields, therefore, it will be several weeks yet, before many of them can enter school.

Mrs. Louisa Carverter, who has been sick at her home here for several weeks, is no better at this writing. Her daughters, Mesdames Rob Long and John Grizzard are doing all in their power to make her as comfortable as possible.

Our townsman, Mr. Jno. D. Pope, is suffering intensely with his old enemy, rheumatism. One hand is so enlarged, from the disease, that he can scarcely use it.

Miss Sallie P. Betts, Lady Principal of Littleton Female College, with her parents, Rev. A. D. Betts and wife, Greensboro, spent the week-end with Miss Mollie Taylor at her hospitable home near Mt. Carmel church.

A quiet marriage was solemnized at the M. E. parsonage, Garysburg, at 5:30 o'clock P. M. Nov. 7th. The contracting parties were Miss Florence Leake, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Leake, and Mr. Dean Crocker, both of Seaboard. Rev. M. Y. Self, pastor of the young people's church, officiated. Immediately after the ceremony they took the A. C. train for a brief honeymoon South. Both are deservedly happy and many are the good wishes that will attend them as they journey together.

The turmoil of the Presidential campaign is over and we feel everybody, in this section especially, are rejoicing over the re-election of President Wilson, the greatest of all our Presidents. We can now confidently look forward to four years more of peace and prosperity.

Mr. Robt. E. Stephenson, wife and children, Mr. Robt. King, Miss L. Manning and Mr. Cooper Bailey, Emporia, were pleasant Sunday afternoon visitors of his sister, Mrs. R. M. Maddrey. It will be good news to many interested friends to say here that Mr. Stephenson is slowly regaining his health.

Mr. D. Garland Grubbs butchered six fine pigs Monday and sold same at a fancy price, to a Weldon groceryman. Mr. Grubbs has something over a hundred to butcher this season.

Mr. H. Carlton Maddrey spent the past Monday in Richmond and Petersburg on business.

Mr. Dean Crocker and bride, after a pleasant Southern honeymoon trip, returned to their home here last Monday evening. A reception was tendered them at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. G. L. Crocker.

Mrs. M. A. Brantley, whose ill health has caused her to be a stay at home for the year, gave her friends a pleasant surprise by calling to see them last Saturday afternoon.

Mr. C. E. Barnes has discontinued painting for the remainder of the year and accepted the position of salesman for the progressive firm of Crocker & Stancell. He will be glad to have his friends note the change and give him a call when in town.

Miss Josie Lawrence, Franklin, is a welcome guest of her cousins, Misses Mary and Mildred Pruden.

Rain Sunday prevented any services at the Baptist church Sunday evening. Pastor Stukenbrok was on hand, however. No kind of weather prevents his keeping an engagement.

Mr. Joe Smith, who sold his farm to Mr. G. Fenton Crocker some weeks ago, is now engaged in building a new home near the home site of his father, Mr. Etheldridge Smith. Mr. Smith Sr. is not able to look after his farm, so we understand his son will have charge of his farm another year.

The Tom Thumb wedding, announcement of which was made last week, will occur at Seaboard State High School building on the evening of Nov. 17th. Doors will be open at 7:30. Admission for adults 35 cents, children 15 cents. With an unusually promising lot of youthful material and under the careful directorship of a master hand this event promises, from this distance, to be one of the best entertainments ever presented here. An evening of laughter is promised all who will come. The little folks are doing their best to entertain you and surely we should encourage them by our presence.

You will not only have a good time, but will be helping forward the varied interests of our school also. With pleasant weather we should give them a packed house. Do not forget the day and date. Everybody is invited to come and witness the nuptials of "Tom Thumb and Lillie June." Refreshments will be served after the wedding.

POSITION WANTED--A teacher of experience desires a position in primary or grammar grades. Can furnish references. "Teacher," Care Times Office.

GARYSBURG NEWS

Representative Joyner Wins New Honors--To Fill Railroad Car--Progressive People.

Mr. R. A. Ellis, who went to Richmond, Va., last week, for treatment in a hospital, has returned home.

Miss Mattie Moore of Pleasant Hill spent last Thursday with her sister, Mrs. Vassar, here.

Mr. J. E. Suiter, wife and three children went to Richmond Monday.

Mr. J. T. Suiter and family of Emporia, Va., came over to our town yesterday.

Mr. W. H. Stephenson gave an old time corn shucking social last Friday night. After the barbecued pig had been eaten, a contest was held for the man who could shuck the most corn. The prize was a nice turkey. The men realizing the value of such a price entered with great force the contest. Guess the winner:—Our Representative, W. H. Joyner.

The A. C. L. R. R. Company has offered $400.00 to remove the bridge and fill in the gulley between the Seaboard R. R. track and Messrs. John and Ed. Suiter's store. It seemed to me the town should take this matter up and have the work done. This would improve the looks of the place besides making it more safe to cross the railroad here. Two automobiles have already been turned over in this place and the people on them were bruised and broken to pieces. It was only last week a car failed to climb the hill, the brakes gave way, and the only thing that saved it from turning over in the gulley was a strong post which the car struck.

Mr. Dean Crocker and Miss Florence Leake of Seaboard were married in our town last Tuesday. After the marriage they went to Weldon where they took the train for their wedding tour.

Mr. W. H. Joyner has purchased of W. H. Stephenson a farm on the county road leading from Garysburg to Jackson.

Mr. R. E. Brown, son and daughter, John and Frances, went to Richmond last Friday.

Mrs. Lucy Grant is critically ill at this writing.

Rev. M. Y. Self held his regular second Sunday services at the M. E. church Sunday P. M. He preached an excellent sermon. His subject being "What lack ye." The people here regret to know that his time here is very much limited as this is his fourth year.

Through the excellent supervision of Mr. Sam Yates the young men of the town gave the young ladies an oyster roast last Friday night.

Mr. W. H. Joyner has named his little girl "Dozen," which means in French one dozen.

The writer is glad to announce that the township (Oconeechee) voted the bond issue for the County hospital. The people here are always in the line of progress.

Mrs. Wm. E. Froelich and son Billy Jr. of Rosemary, are visiting Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Butts.

Mrs. Carl Parker has returned from her visit to Jackson. Miss Annie Futrell of Woodland, now teaching at Pleasant Hill, was in town Monday.

Mr. R. P. Todd has moved to Weldon.
