Singing Class

The Singing Class from Oxford Orphanage, composed of 4 boys and 10 girls, under the supervision of a teacher and manager, will give a concert in the Rich Square school auditorium, Thursday evening, May 20th, at 8 o'clock.

The admission price is 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for children. There will be no reserved seats. All of the proceeds from the concert will go direct to the orphanage at Oxford from which the children come. Not only is a fine entertainment to be enjoyed but a most commendable project is deserving of handsome support.

Miss Hartman Entertains

On Saturday evening, May 8th, Miss Norma Hartman entertained a host of her friends at her home with a lovely birthday party.

The color scheme which was pink and green was carried out beautifully, using pink roses and honeysuckle.

The guests were delightfully entertained by dancing and music. Little Miss Alyse Hartman and Miss Ruth Johnson danced the Charleston which was enjoyed by all.

About ten o'clock the guests were ushered into the dining room which was also very charmingly decorated. In the center of the table was a pink birthday cake which held sixteen tiny pink candles. The guests were then served delicious ice cream and cake with mints and fruit.

Miss Hartman received many useful and lovely gifts.

Those present were: Misses Audrey Martin, Lucille Conner, Aznes Lassiter, Dorothy Conner, Veryl Grier, Ruth Johnson, Josephine Harrell; Messrs Fred Johnston, Leo Tyler, Raymond Conner, Rufus Bradley, Walter Conner, Jack Blow and Wilson Shoulars.

At a late hour the guests departed, each having spent a very delightful evening. Miss Hartman proving herself to be a most charming hostess.

Commencement Program Rich Square High School

I should like to take this opportunity to announce to the public through the columns of your paper the high school exercises of the Rich Square High School for the current year. The public is cordially invited to be present at all of these occasions, and in this way to help us to make this the best commencement in the history of the school.

Friday, May 21, 8:00 P. M., Piano Recital and awarding of Seventh grade certificates by Supt. P. J. Long.

Sunday, May 23, 11:00 A. M., Commencement Sermon by Rev. C. K. Proctor, Pastor First Methodist Church, Rocky Mount, N. C.

Monday, May 24, 8:00 P. M., Class Day Exercises, Class of '26.

Tuesday, May 25, 8:00 P. M., Graduating Exercises and Commencement Address by Prof. C. L. Coon, County Superintendent, Wilson County Public Schools, Wilson, N. C.

The Senior Play will not be a feature of the regular commencement this year. In order to cut down the length of the commencement we have decided to have the senior play Friday, May 14, 8:00 P. M. We trust that the patrons of the school will bear this change in mind, and will give us a full house for the play this year as they have done in former years when it was given as a part of the regular commencement.

The Afternoon Club

Woodland, N. C., May 7, 1926 — Mesdames C. G. Parker and Carl Futrell were joint hostesses at the April meeting of the Afternoon Club in the lovely home of Mrs. Parker.

A month previous to this meeting, Miss Lola Outland announced the April program would be in the form of doing things backward. Each member was asked to wear clothing backward or conspicuously out of place. This idea proved quite a success from the arrival of each through the back door with new spring hats and dresses carefully reversed in such a way one could not tell who was coming and who was going. After the laughter subsided the hostesses entertained us with three very clever contests, "Fool's Errand," "A Trip to the Moon" and "Artist's Ability," Miss Aileen Autrey winning in first, Mrs. D. H. Brown, second, and Miss Julia Blanchard third. These young ladies received prizes in keeping with the afternoon. The regular program was then enjoyed as follows:

Subject—"Comic"

4. A Story, "An Actual Happening"—Mrs. J. E. Griffin.

3. The Educational Collaboration of the Integrity of Ireland's Great Man a. Educational—Miss Ruth Outland, b. Collaboration—Miss Mary Ruth Brughton.

2. An Impromptu School of 1620—Led by Miss Lola Outland

1. Origin of April Fool—Mrs. S. N. Blanchard.

A short business session then followed. The club unanimously voted to join the Federation of Clubs of North Carolina. The president, Mrs. C. W. Parker, Mrs. C. J. Vaughan as delegate and Miss Julia Blanchard alternate were elected to attend the convention at Asheville in June.

The hostesses assisted by Misses Mary Lois Parker and Claire Benthall served: Pressed chicken, wafers, Tomato sandwiches, pickles, ice cream, French pastry, coffee.

Mrs. Parker and Mrs. Futrell are to be congratulated on their ability as hostesses as this meeting was declared to be one of the best ever had.

Members present twenty-five. Guests included: Mrs. H. U. Griffith, Menola, N. C., Mrs. Rigsby, Portsmouth, Va., Miss Lucille Autrey, Moultrie, Ga., Miss Ella Outland, Woodland.

Woodland Community Club Meeting

A regular meeting of the Community Club was held Wednesday afternoon, May the fifth, in the home of Mrs. E. G. Griffin. The subject for the afternoon was walls and ceilings. This was presented by Miss Wigley, our County Demonstrator. Other demonstrations were given in cleaning rugs, clothing, etc. and painting on cotton goods and silks. Immediately following this program Mrs. Griffin served sandwiches, hot coffee and cakes. There were twenty-five present who are greatly interested in this work.

Note of Thanks

We take this method of expressing to our relatives, friends and neighbors our sincere thanks and appreciation for their kindness and generosity during my illness in the hospital and sickness in my family at home. Especially do we thank our friends in Woodland and the Baraca class of Rich Square Baptist Church for the aid given, also Dr. W. R. Parker for his thoughtful attention.

May God's richest blessings rest upon each and every one.
