

Rich Square and Vicinity

Miss Olive Allen of Franklin, Va., spent the week-end at home.

Mrs. Mary Vann of Jamestown is here on a visit to Mrs. Mary Lassiter.

Miss Mary White of Mebane has been visiting her aunt, Mrs. H. D. Holoman.

Mr. J. H. Lassiter left last week for Columbia University, New York City.

Mr. Fred Griffith spent the week-end visiting his relatives at South Hill, Va.

Messrs L. G. Conner, R. A. Chappell and G. L. Vann spent Monday in Norfolk.

Messrs Claud Allen and John Tyler of Moyock, N. C., spent the week-end at home.

Mr. J. W. Peele left last week for Ashboro to accompany Mrs. Peele and little son home.

Mrs. Ogie Baugham visited her daughter, Mrs. V. D. Strickland, at Ahoskie last week.

Mrs. Mary V. Lassiter visited her brother, Mr. John A. Vann, at Rocky Mount last week.

Mrs. J. P. Parker and children left last week for Elkin to spend several weeks with her home people.

Mr. John Ruffin Baugham left last week for Mayport, Fla., where he has accepted a government position.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Conner of Raleigh spent a few days here this week visiting Mr. and Mrs. M. H. Conner.

Mrs. Annie L. Wade, with her brother, Mr. M. L. Martin and family of Severn, spent the week-end at Ocean View, Va.

Mr. and Mrs. O. E. Lucas and son, Mr. David C. Lucas, of Richmond, Va., spent the week-end at the home of Mr. and Mrs. P. C. Hartman.

Miss Helen Elliott left last Thursday on an Educational Tour for Sunday School workers. The party will visit Niagara Falls, Toronto, Canada, Washington, D. C., Philadelphia and Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Worrell and Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Underwood, Jr., left Monday for Philadelphia and Bethlehem, Pa. They will take in the Sesqui Centennial International Exposition at Philadelphia.

Mr. Clويد Wade of Palmyra has been here since last Thursday with his father, Mr. H. F. Wade, who suffered a slight stroke of paralysis Wednesday night. Mr. Wade's condition is slightly improved at this writing, tho he is still confined to his room.

Mr. Geo. W. Bradshaw, of Ivor, Va., who has been visiting here the past few days left Monday for Columbia University, N. Y., where he will continue his studies for six weeks, before returning to North Carolina to accept a position as Supt. of the school at Monroe. Mr. Bradshaw was head of the Rich Square school for a number of years and is held in high esteem by all of our people.

Advertisement Brought Quick Results

Mrs. A. T. Eason of Lewiston sent us an advertisement last week with instructions to run it two weeks but after the first insertion she ordered it out saying the adv. brought speedy results. Mr. M. P. Lassiter of Potocasi advertised corn for sale and has ordered his adv. discontinued, saying he had sold out.

People travel too fast now to look on trees and fence posts for advertisements. They look in the paper for what they want.

Richard T. Tanner

Rich Square lost one of its most estimable citizens Saturday night, July 3, in the death of Richard T. Tanner, aged 80 years.

Mr. Tanner had lived in and near Rich Square all his life and was known for his honesty, industry and truthfulness.

The funeral service was held in the Baptist church Sunday afternoon, conducted by his pastor, Rev. R. M. Von Millar, and the interment was in the family burying ground near town.

He leaves a widow, two sons and two daughters and many friends to mourn his death.

Book Club Entertained

One of the season's largest and most beautiful parties was given Wednesday afternoon, June 23rd, by Mrs. J. C. Vaughan. On this occasion Mrs. Vaughan threw open her handsome home. The scene was indeed one of exquisite beauty, the entire lower floor being thrown en suite and artistically decorated with masses of the season's beautiful flowers.

There were seven tables laid for rook. As soon as places were drawn each guest was presented with a corsage of daisies. Playing was unusually enthusiastic and a number of progressions were enjoyed before cards were recalled. High score prize, a dainty hand embroidered guest towel, was won by Mrs. E. A. Huggins, and the guest prize, a lovely piece of madeira, went to Mrs. R. I. Leake.

The hostess served elaborate and delicious refreshments in two courses.

Celebrate Golden Anniversary

On Sunday, July 4th, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Conwell celebrated their golden anniversary.

Three married sons and three married daughters, their wives and husbands and children, and one single son and daughter were present, also Mr. Conwell's sister, Mrs. J. J. Baggett, and other relatives.

A large number of nice presents were given to the couple with the love and many good wishes of their children and grandchildren.

A large table built under the shade of the trees was spread with a bounteous supply of many good things to eat and a gala time was had by all, between 45 and 50 being present. Although Mr. Conwell being feeble, he seemed to enjoy the home coming.

Woman's Missionary Federation

The Woman's Missionary Federation at the Methodist Church on Thursday promises to be a most interesting occasion.

The principal speaker, Miss Daisy Davies, of Atlanta, Ga., has a fine reputation as an inspirational speaker. Her address in the evening will be well worth hearing. The whole community is most cordially invited to go and hear her.

Masonic Notice

There will be a regular communication of Rich Square Lodge No. 488, A. F. & A. M., Friday afternoon, July 9, at 4:30 o'clock. At 6 o'clock a big "feed" will be served to the Masons and their wives.

Copeland Reunion

For a number of years except when illness occurred to prevent it has been the custom of the three "Copeland Sisters," daughters of the late J. W. Copeland (who originated the custom several years before his death,) to hold a family reunion on Christmas day or sometime during the holiday season.

The number in the families having increased to such an extent that it seemed impracticable to meet in one home, it was decided this year to hold the reunion in the form of a picnic. Accordingly on the evening of Tuesday, June 29th, every member of the several families met on the lawn of A. J. Outland at 6 o'clock, where suitable tables had been prepared for the bountiful supper which every family brought with them. Every one present did full justice to the many good things declaring that never had fried chicken, beaten biscuit, ice cream, cake, iced tea and other viands seemed so delicious.

While the older members of the group enjoyed a social hour, the children played many de lightful games adding much life and joy to the occasion and all too soon the hour for departure came.

These reunions do much to weld family ties more closely and at least once a year the thoughts of all turn toward home-coming.

Those present included: A. J. Outland and family, S. J. Copeland and family, Ella G. Jessup and family, Herry W. Jessup and family, Dr. W. R. Parker and family, L. C. Copeland and family, J. M. Brown and family, L. H. Windle and family, E. R. Outland and family, High Point, N. C.

Little Mabel was poking at something in the grass. Suddenly she cried, "Oh, mother, here's a little green snake!"

Her mother was one of those cautious women. She answered, "Keep away from it darling. It might be just as dangerous as a ripe one."
