Grant acted as president with Miss Mary Sue Wigley in charge of the program. Mrs. W. A. Lambertson gave an interesting report of her trip to Raleigh to attend the Woman's Meeting at State College. Mrs. Henry Holoman then gave a short talk on painting on fabrics and demonstrated the application of the new aurora cone work so much in vogue now for scarfs, handkerchiefs and dresses. Miss Wigley then presented Miss Mary Bagley of Jackson who spoke on "Pictures Suitable for the Home". A gifted artist herself Miss Bagley spoke with a keen interest and appreciation of the subject in hand. She showed some wonderful pictures sent out by the Chicago Art Institute which she used to illuminate the various points in her talk. The next meeting of the club will be held at the home of Mrs. H. D. Holoman at 3:30 o'clock Friday afternoon July 30th. At this time Miss Wigley will take up the subjects of window draperies and mantel treatment. All who are interested in beautifying their home are urged to attend.

ORDER

"What comfort, what strength, what economy there is in order—material order, intellectual order, moral order. To know where one is going and what one wishes—this is order; to keep one's word and one's engagements—again order; to have everything ready under one's hand, to be able to dispose of all of one's forces, and to have all one's means of whatever kind under command—still order; to discipline one's habits, one's effort, one's wishes; to organize one's life, to distribute one's time, to take the measure of one's duties and make one's rights respected; to employ one's capital and resources, one's talent and one's chances profitably—all this belongs to and is included in the word order. Order means light and peace, inward liberty and free command over one's self; order is power. Aesthetic and moral beauties consist, the first in a true perception of order, and the second in submission to it, and in the realization of it, by, in, and around one's self. Order is man's greatest need and his true well-being."

Ten Don'ts for Bathers

- Don't go in where there is no life guard.
- Don't get beyond your depth; the best swimmers get cramps.
- Don't go bathing less than two hours after eating.
- Don't go in alone.
- Don't yell "Help" unless you need it. Remember the boy who called "Wolf."
- Don't drink liquor and then go bathing.
- Don't swim with inner tubes or water wings. They are treacherous.
- Don't forget you are endowed with common sense. Use it!

"The Beantown Choir"

"The Beantown Choir" will be presented by the Parent Teacher Association of Conway in the Conway High School Auditorium on the evening of Tuesday, July 20. This play is presented by the older members of the P. T. A., assisted by the younger members. A treat is in store for all who come. Admission, 25c for adults, 15c for all school children.

Richard Thomas Tanner

On Saturday night, July 3rd, at six minutes after eleven, the death angel entered our home and took from us our loving father and grandfather, Richard Thomas Tanner. He was the son of Benjamin Tanner, was born November 8, 1846. On December 31, 1876, he was united in the holy bonds of matrimony to Ellen Hardy Bryan. To this union were born eight children, four of which are living, two daughters, Mrs. J. E. Lassiter and Mrs. C. N. Parker; two sons, M. T. Tanner and Richard P. Tanner. Besides his widow and four children, he leaves to mourn his death eight grandchildren and one great grand child and many nieces and nephews.

The funeral services were held at the Baptist Church where he had been a faithful member for more than thirty years. The services were conducted by Rev. Von Millar, pastor of his church and Rev. Bradley, pastor of the Methodist Church. The body was laid to rest in the family burial ground near Rich Square. The pall bearers were some of his best friends while living, namely: J. E. Copeland, W. H. Blowe, J. F. Shoulars, J. B. Johnson, J. T. Bolton, Jackson Early, Will Vann.

Dear grandfather, it is very, very hard to give you up. No one on earth can fill your place in your home and in the hearts of every child, grandchild, niece and nephew that you have. How can we bear to go home and find your chair vacant? Yet we are thankful to have had you for four score years and we realize that "He who doeth all things well" knew best. We know that you are free from every care and trial, every ache and pain. From the peaceful and serene look on your dear face the last time we saw it, we know that you are resting peacefully on that golden shore where every soul longs to go when life's long sun has set forever.

Good bye, dear grandfather. We say it sadly, yet happy in the thought that you are resting with Him who you trusted thru all your long life of service."

A loving granddaughter, BEULAH.
