A Surprise Birthday Party

Last Tuesday evening about 7:30 o'clock Mrs. Hursey Hedspeth, of Conway, saw quite a crowd of her neighbors and friends coming in, but was not long in learning why so many were coming at once and with so much fun and laughter for she heard them calling, "Happy birthday," "congratulations," "May you have many more days like this," etc. When Mrs. Hedspeth had time to look out in the yard she saw a table already setting there decorated with a large birthday cake covered with fifty three tiny candles surrounded with beautiful flowers and places laid for four. Out in the yard during the evening the men and women played many games that they used to play when they were children. The "old time" spelling bee provoked so much fun that it will not be forgotten soon.

When time came to go home everyone expressed the wish that Mrs. Hedspeth would have many more such birthdays and she in her usual gentle manner expressed her appreciation in a few well chosen words and all went home feeling that it was most pleasant to have been there. The gifts received and the party in general express only faintly the love and appreciation of her neighbors and friends. Ice cream and cake were served.

The following were present: Mesdames B. M. Rawlings, E. C. Hedspeth, S. D. Hedspeth, Hursey Hedspeth, Rodger Joyner, Carlos Vick, Geo. Martin, E. L. Morgan, Donnie Barnes, Maynard Hedspeth, Noah Burgess, Bessie Parker, E. Collier, S. H. Parke, A. S. Parker, Alex DeLoatch, Geo. DeLoatch, T. R. Futrell and Roy Jordan; Misses Mable Martin and Fannie Martin, and Messrs T. R. Futrell, Rodger Joyner, B. M. Rawlings, Geo. Martin, E. L. Morgan, M. Hedspeth, Noah Burgess, A. S. Parker, A. DeLoatch, S. H. Parke, Geo. DeLoatch and R. Jordan.

FARM DEMONSTRATION WORK

Hogs: I expect to ship a car of hogs from Rich Square about Tuesday of next week. They are now selling for about 11c at Richmond. A hog sold is safe from cholera. If they are ready let them go in this car. Plenty of room. Let me know how many you have.

I have a number of hogs listed at my office. If you need any see me.

Trees: The order for fruit trees and pecan trees will soon go. If you need any do not wait until later and pay more. Send in the orders.

Pyrotol: I am completing my first car. If you want any in this car you must get in your order now. If you have placed order but have not made the necessary deposit you should do this at once.
