NEW ENGLAND TOUR

President Speaks to Assemblage of Working Men

MUCH ENTHUSIASM MANIFESTED.

Ten Thousand Tollers Meet Him and Present Him with Magnificent Offering of Flowers.

Hartford, Conn., Special.—President Roosevelt entered upon his New England tour Friday, leaving Oyster Bay on the yacht Sylph. New Haven was the first port visited. There the President was driven about the city for an hour, accompanied by a military escort. On his arrival here in the afternoon the President took another ride, this time in a Victoria automobile. In Park Park, one of the beautiful outdoor recreation spots of the city, the President was greeted by 10,000 working men who presented him with a magnificent floral horseshoe inscribed: "Workmen's Welcome to Our President." The President made a brief response.

Five thousand men and women crowded the Coliseum here at night to hear the address of the President. At least two-thirds of the audience were workmen and the enthusiasm manifested by them when the President alluded to the rights of the working man aroused the keenest interest. Again and again during his remarks, which were based on an incident of the afternoon, the presentation of a floral horseshoe by the workmen, the President was interrupted by vociferous applause. Such side remarks as, "I don't care how honest a man may be, if he is timid, he is no good," evoked prolonged laughter. Again, in speaking of the isthmian canal, he aroused much interest in the problems in connection with the great engineering feat would procure $50,000 patriotic, ambitious men to work for a $10,000 fee.

The President said: "Being driven through your beautiful city for an hour through Park Park and stopped at a platform where I was presented with a great horseshoe of flowers, the gift of the workmen of Hartford (loud applause), to the President of the United States. (Applause.) I should like to say a few words to you. I have an admirable little address by Father Sullivan. Now, in his speech, he was kind enough to allude to me personally, but he laid primary stress, as he ought to, upon the fact that this was a gift of welcome from the wage-workers, upon whom ultimately this government depends, and he coupled the words of greeting with sentences in which he expressed his belief that I would do all that I could to show myself a good representative of the wage-workers. Gentlemen, I should like to be united for the position that I hold if I failed to do all that in me lies, to act, as I think is given me, to act so as to represent the best thought and purpose of the wage-workers of the United States. (Loud and continuous applause.)

"Now, at the outset of the twentieth century, we are facing different and complex problems, problems social and economic, which mean to us the best energies of all of us to solve. I think you will agree with me that in the long run the best way in which to serve any one set of our citizens is to serve all alike well, to try to act in a spirit of fairness and to listen to all; to give to each man his rights, and so far as in me lies, while I hold my present position, I will be true to that conception of my duty." (Applause.) President Roosevelt then continued as follows:

"From the days of Monroe, Clay and the younger Adams, we, as a people, have always looked with interest upon the West Indies and the isthmus connecting the two Americas, feeling that anything happening in those regions must be of concern to our welfare. There is now ample reason than ever before for this feeling. The outcome of the Spanish war put us in possession of Porto Rico and brought us into peculiarly close touch with Cuba; while the passage of the Hay-Pauncefote treaty at least cleared the way for the continuation of the isthmian canal. Porto Rico, it is a pleasure to say, may now serve as an example of the best methods of administering our insular possessions. So excellent have been the effects of our administration concerning this island that their very excellence has resulted in their being almost forgotten by those at home. There is hardly a ripple of failure in the stream of our success; and so, as is apt to be our way, we do not think of it all. First and foremost in Porto Rico we have consistently striven to get the very best even to the affairs of the island. In making appointments to the insular service, it is necessary to disregard any question of mere party expediency and to look at the matter solely from the standpoint of the honor of our own nation and of the welfare of the island itself. This has been the standpoint adhered to in selecting the men who represent our government in Porto Rico—Governor, Treasurer, Attorney General, Judges, Superintendent of Education, every one. In consequence, all Americans should feel a real pride in the way in which their compatriots who are responsible for the government of the island have administered it.

"Cuba, the problem was larger, more complicated and more difficult. Here again we kept our promise absolute. For over three years we administered it on a plane higher than it had ever reached, before during the four years since the Spanish first landed upon its shores. We brought moral and physical cleanliness in the government. We stamped out yellow fever, in 1898, an insistent pest, both to the Cuban people and to the people of our own Southern States. We established a school system. We made life and property secure, so that industry could again begin to thrive. Then, when we had laid deep and broad the foundations upon which civil liberty and national independence must rest, we turned the island over to the hands of those whom the people had chosen to be the founders of a new republic. Cuba must always be related to us in international politics. She must in international affairs be to a degree a part of our political system. We expect her to accept a political attitude toward us which we think wisest both for her and for ourselves.

ALABAMA PRIMARY.

Jelks Won Over Johnson in Monday's Election.

PRESENT GOVERNOR RE-ELECTED

The Former Ex-Governor and Ex-Tar Heel Defeated in Alabama's First Legal Primary.

Montgomery, Ala., Special.—In the Democratic primary, held in this State Monday for the nomination of candidates for State officers and congressional representatives, Wm. D. Jelks, of Barbour, the present Governor, won over former Governor Jos. E. Johnston, of Jefferson, for Governor, by a majority which will probably reach 20,000. The day's primary was the first held since the addition of the new constitution, by which the negro is eliminated as a political factor in Alabama, but the new organic law was not made an issue in the campaign. Today's result is equivalent to an election in this State. The new constitution was endorsed in its entirety by Governor Jelks, and ex-Governor Johnston also guaranteed to uphold it, although he opposed its ratification. R. M. Cunningham, of Jefferson, defeated C. E. Walker, of Hale, by almost 20,000 majority for Lieutenant Governor. The election of State officers by a general primary was an innovation in Alabama and the voting passed off quietly throughout the State.

R. R. Poole, of Marengo, for Commissioner of Agriculture; Thomas L. Sowell, of Walker, for Auditor, and J. Craig Smith, of Dallas, for Treasurer, had no opposition, they being accorded a second term by precedent. For Attorney General, Alex. Troy, of Montgomery; A. M. Garber, of Talladega; Massey Wilson, of Clarke, and former Congressman J. E. Cobb, of Macon, were the contestants. It is not believed that any one of the four contestants was nominated and a second primary will be held between the first two receiving the highest vote, the State constitution demanding that the successful candidate for State office should have received the majority of all the votes cast. For Secretary of State, J. F. Hoffm, of Chambers, F. N. Julian, of Colbert, and Jas. L. Tanner, of Jefferson, were the candidates and a second contest will probably be ordered between the first two as no nominating vote was received by any of the candidates. For Superintendent of Education John G. Harris, of Montgomery, Thomas L. Bulger, of Tallapoosa, Chapel Corrie, of Montgomery, and J. W. Hill, of Etowah, were nominated. The following Congressmen were nominated by the position: First district, G. W. Taylor; second district, A. A. Wiley; third district, Sidney J. Bowie; sixth district, J. H. Bankhead; seventh district, John L. Burnett; eighth district, Wm. Richardson; ninth district, Ocala W. Underwood. In the fifth district former Congressman Willis Brewer is opposing Charles W. Thompson, present incumbent. The returns indicate the re-nomination of Thompson.

Fast Mail Wrecked.

Toccoa, Ga., Special.—The fast mail on the Southern Railway, south-bound, was wrecked Monday morning by an open switch, near Harbin's, S. C. The entire train, except the sleepers, turned over, but none of the passengers were hurt. Engineer Henry Busha, of Atlanta, was severely but not fatally injured, and a crew, who were standing a ride, was fatally hurt. Slight injuries were sustained by Fireman Charles S. Swan, of Atlanta, Mail Clerks, N. E. Lowenthal, W. A. Dagnal, of Toccoa; J. R. Anglin and J. W. Gracy, Jr. Three switches near the scene of the wreck were found to have been opened, but intentionally, it is believed. An attempt is being made to capture the supposed wreckers.

Jailed For Fidel.

Manila, Special.—Frederick Dorr, proprietor, and Edward O'Brien, editor of Freedom, have each been sentenced to six months in prison and fined $1,000 each, for libelling Benito Legarda, a native member of the civil commission, by publishing a certain article in Freedom. Both Dorr and O'Brien have also been convicted of sedition, but have not yet been sentenced on this count. The case has been appealed to the Supreme Court of the islands.

Fatal Trolley Accident.

Memphis, Tenn., Special.—One person is dead and seven injured, one of whom may die, is the result of a trolley accident here Monday. (The dead) Mrs. Newton E. Morris, of 303 Iowa avenue; the injured: Mrs. F. M. Watson, of Pleasant Hill, Miss.; soldier wrenched, injured internally; colored woman, name unknown; W. J. Fox, negro, knee dislocated, burned by electric current; Lige Williams, negro, hands cut; Mrs. Fisher, bruised, not serious; Docia Adair, colored, ankle fractured, mouth cut; Conductor W. L. Jones, left arm broken.

School Board Acts.

Shenandoah, Pa., Special.—The school board of Mahony township removed six of the oldest teachers in the township. The reason given was that the members of the families of these teachers were non-union mine workers. Among those affected is one named Bedell, sister of Jos. Bedell, who was killed during the riot of July 20. The board unanimously decided that applicants in any way connected with non-union workers should not receive appointments.

WEEKLY CROP BULLETIN

Condensed From Reports From the North Carolina Section.

The majority of crop correspondents report that very favorable weather conditions prevailed during the past week, and that crops have continued to do well. Copious showers occurred on several dates, which generally sufficed for growing crops. The rainfall was too heavy in some eastern counties, where also, notably in Pitt and Edgecombe counties, some minor damage to crops by hail occurred; on the other hand very dry weather continues in several extreme western counties in which crops have not materially improved. The temperature was above normal early in the week, with maximum above 90 degrees on a few days; the nights have been rather cool for August; a marked cool portion occurred towards the close of the week. As a rule conditions were very suitable for farm work of all kinds.

Young corn is now filling well, and will soon be mature; pulling fodder is general; sorghum is doing well, but the canes are heading low. Cotton is reported as suffering from rust quite extensively, and is also shedding forms but probably not more than usually occurs at this season. Plants generally are heavily bolted, indicating a large crop that will mature early; the top crop is promising in some sections while not so well developed in others. Cotton is now opening rapidly, picking has begun, and some new bales have been marketed. Tobacco in the north-central portion is ripening nicely and continues to cure well, with good color. Frequent showers caused second growth in some places which will give difficulty in curing and cause heat to be heavy and dark colored. Peanuts, sweet potatoes and field peas are far more promising than expected a few weeks ago. Fall Irish potatoes and turnips are coming up nicely, and late cabbages are heading well. RIDDLED WITH BULLETS.

Colored Fiend Punished By Members of His Own Race.

LaGrange, Special.—Tom Jones, the negro who last week cruelly assaulted Mrs. Smith near Seven Springs, was hanged and riddled with bullets about 10 o'clock Monday morning by a crowd of eight or ten persons, who appeared to be negroes. Sunday night between 10 o'clock and daylight, Jones was caught coming out of his house, and was paraded on a cart, on the Kenansville road, about eight miles from Seven Springs. He was captured by a posse from Duplin county and at once confessed his crime. He was brought before his victim, who showed him the razor he had stolen from her house. He was then confined in a barn, from which he was taken about 10 o'clock by eight or ten persons, who appeared to be negroes, hung to a tree and riddled with bullets. In the fifth district former Congressman Willis Brewer is opposing Charles W. Thompson, present incumbent. The returns indicate the re-nomination of Thompson.

SPEAKS OF TRUSTS.

President Roosevelt's Utterances On This Subject

SPOKE AT PROVIDENCE SATURDAY.

His Views Supposed to Indicate the Policy and Feeling of the Administration Towards Trusts.

Providence, R. I., Special.—President Roosevelt spoke at Providence, Rhode Island, on Saturday, in discussing the subject of Trusts he said in part: "For some of the evils which have attended upon the good of the changed conditions we can at present see no complete remedy, for the remedy must come by the action of men themselves in their private capacity, whether merely as individuals, or by combination one with another. For yet others some remedy can be found in legislative and executive action, national or municipal. Much of the complaint against combinations is entirely unwarranted. Under present day conditions it is as necessary to have corporations in the business world as it is to have organizations among wage-workers. But we have a right to ask in each case that they shall do good and not harm. Exactly as labor organizations, when managed intelligently and in a spirit of justice and fair play, are of great service not only to the wage-workers, but to the whole community, as the history of many labor organizations has conclusively shown, so wealth, not merely individual, or corporate, when used aright, is not merely a benefit to the community as a whole, but indispensable to the upbuilding of the country under the conditions which are present. The country has grown not only to accept, but to demand as normal. "This is so obvious that it seems trite even to state it, and yet it is a point advanced against, and attacked, by some of the arguments of the day. It is a fact worth keeping in mind, as such, it is a fact worth keeping in mind. A great fortune if not used aright makes its possessor in a peculiar sense a menace to the community as a whole, just as a great intellect, if not used as it should be, is a menace to the community as a whole. It is a fact worth keeping in mind, as such, it is a fact worth keeping in mind.
