ITEMS FROM FAITH

Mr. Ralph Van loan of Winston-Salem has finished putting in the acetylene gas plant here in J. A. Peeler's residence and store and left in his auto to put in another plant for a family up on the Statesville road. He worked from daylight until dark and went to work as soon as he got up from the dinner table. If you can beat that for a smart young mechanic, trot out your young man.

It is cold and cloudy here today but the fruit is all right so far.

A large number of relatives and friends met at Tom Lingle's here and gave him a birthday dinner, it being his fiftieth one. The string band rendered fine music. The minister, Rev. G. O. Ritchie, made a nice talk on the occasion and a bounteous repast was served.

Communion services were held at the Reformed Church and at the Lutheran Church here on last Sunday.

Clarence Brown, of near Organ Church, has a pumpkin nearly three years old. Who can beat that?

Duke Morgan was in Faith with his fine auto Monday.

Venus took dinner at the new cafeteria at the Ford Hotel in Salisbury. It is a fine place to get something good to eat.

Mr. D. L. Fisher and family of Detroit, Mich., are here visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Fisher.

We saw "The Flashes of Action," a moving picture show in Salisbury Monday, showing the battles of the world war, the soldiers, the ships and the big guns in action.

D. M. Brown had his annual Easter Monday reunion with all his children and grand children present and all spent a very happy time together.

If anyone has two thousand dollars to invest we can tell them how they can make money with it without running any risk of losing it if they will send us ten cents in postage stamps. If interested address "Venus," Salisbury, N. C., Route 3, Box 10.

Venus wants to buy all the Confederate money he can get. Twenty six were confirmed at the Lutheran Church here Sunday.

Miss Mabel Whitsell of Gibsonville visited Misses Lillian and Wilma Stirewalt over Easter. They are all from Mt. Pleasant School.

Commencing next Monday night the Baptists will have singings here at their church, to continue ten nights.

We are going to have a wedding here in the next few days, but we can't find out who or when it is.

Venus will tell anyone how to make that home-made remedy that will cure exzema. It never fails. On receipt of one dollar in postage stamps receipt will be mailed.

Orders have just come in our settlement for several car loads of street curbing that will scatter a great deal of money in and around our settlement.

George Ludwick has just purchased a new automobile.

We get a lot of letters from people who say they read the Faith items in the Stanly News-Herald.

MISSION NEWS.

The infant of Mr. and Mrs. James Tucker is on the sick list. Mr. F. W. Lambert and family of Rockwell, Route 2, spent Sunday with Mrs. George Almond.

Messrs. Lee Whitley, Willis Hartsell, of Concord, Route 5, and Richard Widenhouse, of Kanapolis, spent Sunday with Mr. Cletus Hartsell.

Mrs. Jennie Mason spent Sunday in Rockwell with her daughter, Mrs. Lula Harrington.

Messrs. James Mason, and A. M. Hathcock spent Tuesday in Charlotte.

Several of our people attended the picnic at Albemarle on Easter Monday.

Mr. Samuel Mason spent Sunday in Rockwell.

It seems that a great many of our people are against the new school bill. We think they need more information. If they fail to be informed, the bill will be killed at the election. The writer registered at Stanfield Saturday and it seemed that two thirds were opposed to it, so we think that good speakers ought to go to every school house in the county and inform the people.

We are having some real cold weather, and hope that the fruit will not be killed.

Mrs. Mary Herrin, of near Georgeville, spent Sunday in the home of Mr. M. H. Herrin.

Mr. Adam Love of Georgeville died March 22, and was buried at the Baptist cemetery here the 24. He leaves a wife, three children, one brother and two sisters and a large number of relatives and friends to mourn his death. He was sixty-eight years of age.

FRIENDSHIP NEWS

Too late for last issue.

Mr. and Mrs. Milas Arey attended the picnic at Albemarle Monday.

A LITTLE OF EVERYTHING FROM THE UNIVERSITY

(By a Stanly Boy.)

The editor says, "Make it spicy," which was, I suppose, a gentle way of saying "Make it brief." But then editors are not supposed to share the amateur correspondent's exalted opinion of his own literary excellence. If they did, his stuff would be smeared all over the front page, and even the Albemarle news would be crowded out.

Chapel Hill is not just west of New London. It is neither a cotton mill town nor a granite quarry. There is nothing here which even remotely resembles an assylum for the feeble-minded. But, judging from the questions asked about it by supposedly intelligent people, you might hand them out such information and get away with it.

Raleigh and Chapel Hill are names that ought to be equally familiar to all North Carolinians. The former is the political capitol, the latter the educational capitol of the state. Every county in the state except four is represented at the University—the average representation being fourteen and a fraction. Good old Stanly, which ought to be above average in everything has a representation of three and a fraction—the fraction being your humble correspondent.

The Greater University Building Program is being mapped out in accordance with the appropriations made by the last legislature. Having at length seen the light, North Carolina is going by leaps and bounds toward the top of the educational ladder.

As the big brother of the public schools, the University would be glad to learn that Stanly had voted the special tax April 12.

The rain took a recess long enough to allow Carolina to defeat A. and E. College in a hotly contested baseball game here on Thursday afternoon. The score was six to four, the two winning runs being brought in by Lowe, who lifted the ball over the fence in the eighth inning. When he hit a home run at Winston-Salem Easter Monday with the bases full, Davidson might have suspected that it was accidental. Thursday's demonstration would lead us to believe that home runs with Lows are items of regular occurrence.

The Raleigh Times suggests that Sears & Roebuck Co. failed to pay a quarterly dividend this year, which was possibly due to the fact that the people are trading at home with the home merchants who advertise. We hope that the Times is right in its surmise.

The Redpath Chautauqua will be in Albemarle Thursday, May 12. It is reported that the program is unusually interesting and good. The big feature this year is "An American Comedy," by a New York Company. A full program will be published later.

CHURCH CO-OPERATION.

(By Mrs. Lula Shaver.)

Anderson Grove Baptist Church has recently added two rooms 18x20 feet each, one on each side of the pulpit in the north end, making the interior of the church into a cross effect—at the same time giving a good view from the pulpit over the entire church.

It is doubtful whether or not there is another church in Stanly County in need of more room as badly as the "Grove." For the last two or three years it has been impossible to seat the people comfortably on special occasions.

About two months ago the members decided to enlarge the church, some furnishing lumber, others doing the cutting, hauling and sawing of the logs, while others hauled from the sawmill to the church. In fact most of the carpenter work was done by members of the church. The sawing was also done by members of the "Grove." In this way most of the work and materials were furnished without any great sacrifice to anyone. Those who could not do an equal part in the above named manner contributed cash.

The next thing necessary is to secure an all-time pastor. Rev. C. B. Reid is the pastor, but he only conducts services on the 4th Saturday and Sunday in each month.

There are 150 people enrolled on the Sunday register. The Sunday School is one of the best—if not the best—in Stanly Co.—not the largest, but the most enthusiastic.

The whole Sunday School is trained to sing well. Each year a singing master is secured to teach the little, big, and old to sing by note.

The children occupy a prominent part in the church life. A three year old girl said: "More baby," when mothers kept arriving at church with their babies.

There will be an old time singing at the grove on Sunday afternoon, April 10th, at 3 p. m.

Try two. The second one will be better than the first.—A 1, 10t pd.

NEWPORT MAN HAS GAINED 20 POUNDS

"I Don't Believe I Could Feel Any Better Than I do Now" Says Kelley.

"I have gained twenty pounds by taking Tanlac, and don't believe I could feel any better than I do now," said John T. Kelley, 485 East Tenth Street, Newport, Ky.

"My troubles started about two years ago and kept increasing until it looked like everything was wrong with me. My stomach was all out of order and nearly everything I ate soured and caused gas to form. I lost my appetite and couldn't eat enough to keep up my strength. I lost twenty-two pounds and got so weak that it was risky for me to walk in the street alone.

"My nerves were shattered, I could not sleep to do any good, and in the morning I felt so weak it was hard for me to get out of bed address. I was constipated all the time and had headaches and dizzy spells nearly every day.

"I was in Cleveland, Ohio, about three months ago and a friend recommended Tanlac to me. Before I finished the first bottle my appetite had come back and my food was agreeing with me. From then on I picked up fast and today I'm in as good health as I was the best day of my life.

"I am no longer constipated and don't have headaches or dizzy spells any more. The nervousness has all gone and I sleep sound every night. I feel as well as I could ask and am able to go to work."

Tanlac is sold in Albemarle by Seccrest-Sloan Drug Company, Adv.
