500,000 Bales at 13 Cents.

President Harvie Jordan, of the Southern Cotton Association, makes the following announcement: "I have secured an agreement with a syndicate of Eastern capitalists, headed by E. R. Thomas, to take 500,000 bales of middling cotton from Southern planters at the minimum price of 13 cents a pound, deliverable at interior points on or before July 1, 1906, the deal to be closed as soon as option on the syndicate's requirements shall have been secured. The agreement further provides for the taking of all cotton ready for market next August and September from the crop of 1906 at the market price, to be not less than the minimum price fixed by the Southern Cotton Association. This agreement is not intended to affect holders who are demanding a maximum of 15 cents at present. New York bankers are prepared to finance fully all Southern bankers in assisting holders of cotton for higher prices. Option contract will be forwarded upon application to all cotton growers."

A $100,000 Masonic Temple.

The Grand Lodge Masonic Temple committee has delivered to their sub-building committee the plans and bids for the $100,000 temple to be erected on Fayetteville street, in Raleigh, with directions to proceed at once with the erection of the structure which will be seven stories, fire proof throughout. Work is to begin in the early spring and be pushed as rapidly as possible to completion. The Grand Lodge expects to hold their next annual session in January 1907 in the new Temple although it may not be completed in that time.

A Card.

This is to say that all druggists are authorized to refund your money if Foley's Honey and Tar fails to cure your cough or cold. It stops the cough, heals the lungs and prevents serious results from a cold. Cures a gripple cough and prevents pneumonia and consumption. Contains no opiates. The genuine is in a yellow package. Refuse substitutes. Albemarle Drug Co.

SUPPOSE YOU TRY SMILING.

Your burden is heavy, I haven't a doubt. But others have loads they must carry about. And they are not whining. Some people are glad if but half of the way lies out of the shadow, or part of the day they see the sun shining. Suppose you try smiling. I know you are lonely, but other hearts ache. And bravely refuse to be bitter or break. Because of life's sorrow. They think of the joy in the land far away. And hasten the slow passing hours of to-day. With hopes of to-morrow. Suppose you try smiling. This funny old world is a mirror, you know. Turn its way with a sneer, or face of a foe. And you will see trouble. But meet it with laughter and looks full of cheer. And luck will come sunshine and love true and dear. Your blessings to double. Suppose you try smiling. All places are open to those who are glad. Too many lack courage, too many are sad. Those near you need cheering. So sing with your burden, the way is not long. And if you look upward your heart will grow strong. And skies will be clearing. Suppose you try smiling. —By Myra Goodwin Plantz.

THE REPUBLICAN SITUATION.

Coming from the leading Republican weekly of the State—the Greensboro Tar Heel—the following paragraphs from its last week's issue are rather significant, and bring out several things that have heretofore been branded as "Democratic lies." The Tar Heel says:

The situation in North Carolina seems to illustrate the weakness of the Republican party. It does even more than that; it seems to illustrate and confirm our contention, that the chief source of this weakness is federal patronage. It is crippled by the mossback traditions of its earlier days.

There are still those of prominence in its ranks who count all victories fruitless which do not give them choice places at the pie counter.

There are a few who have spent the majority of their years in the pursuit and enjoyment of federal jobs. They seem to think that the party was created for the express purpose of providing comfortable berths for them. They appear to be utterly oblivious to the rights, convictions or interests of the rank and file of those who are impelled solely by a sense of conviction in the support of the cardinal principles and policies of the party. They play politics for jobs as the gambler plays his cards for money. The only difference is that there is a certain code of honor which the decent gambler recognizes and obeys, while the average mossback office-seeker appears to recognize nothing as too sacred for sacrifice in his chase for a position under Uncle Sam.

In North Carolina the mossback boss is not concerned about the success of his party in his county, his district or his state. He is content to leave the result of the national contest to the northern and western states. All he cares for is an organization (with a big O) just large enough to be manipulated in the distribution of federal patronage. It must not be big enough to be unwieldy. Its sole function is the division of pie. This is the record which history will write of the mossback bosses.

Red Springs Fire Swept.

Red Springs, Feb. 18.—Practically the entire business district of Red Springs was destroyed by fire to-day. Eighteen stores and two dwellings were consumed, involving a loss of $80,000, with an approximate insurance of $40,000. The fire originated from a defective fire in a restaurant in the rear of one of the stores. No vacant stores are available and nearly all of those burned out will go out of business until new buildings can be erected.

The North Carolina Military Academy and Southern Presbyterian College, located here were untouched by the fire. Owing to the fact that the town is without fire-fighting facilities, little or nothing could be done to check the progress of the flames.

From the Troy Montgomerian.

The Whitney Company continues to keep up its property in this section. Messrs. E. O. Bostwick of Palmerville, general superintendent of the Company's lands, and N. M. Thayer of Eldorado spent Monday night in town on their way to the Iola mining district, where they are surveying the Company's property. Mr. Bostwick says the development on the Yadkin river is being pushed as rapidly as labor conditions will allow.

After a prolonged illness of several months, Fannie, 16-year-old daughter of Mr. Obe Hamilton, who occupies a cottage in factory row, died last Thursday evening, February 8, 1906.

A Healing Gospel.

The Rev. J. C. Warren, pastor of Sharon Baptist Church, Belair, Ga., says of Electric Bitters: "It's a God-send to mankind. It cured me of lame back, stiff joints, and complete physical collapse. I was so weak it took me half an hour to walk a mile. Two bottles of Electric Bitters have made me so strong I have just walked three miles in 50 minutes and feel like walking three more. It's made a new man of me." Greatest remedy for weakness and all Stomach, Liver and Kidney complaints. Sold under guarantee at Albemarle Drug Co. Price 50c.

Letter to R. A. Crowell.

Dear Sir: Devoe, $10 a year; lead-and-oil, $22. Mr. McMullin, late cashier of Patapsco National Bank, of Ellicott City, Md. painted his house—Devoe in 1885. It wore 17 years at a cost of less than $10 a year.

Mr. Harold Harding, the present cashier painted his house—three coats lead-and-oil—it wore six years, at a cost of $22 a year. He then repainted Devoe; said he wanted the paint that cost least by the year.

This is important; such comparisons are extremely rare. We know the general fact, however. The paint that goes furthest, wears longest; always.

Yours truly

OUR WASHINGTON LETTER.

Special Correspondence of the Enterprise.

Washington, D. C., Feb. 19.—Thomas W. Lawson of Boston drifted through here in his private car last week, and during his short stay announced that he now had enough proxies to control the coming elections in the New York Life and Mutual Life Insurance Companies. If this is so I am sorry for you, my poor policyholder, as Tom by his own confession has been guilty of every offense charged by him to his former accomplices, and all he now wants is to get control of that little $800,000,000 of your assets so that he can fight his enemies with your money. Take care that in escaping from Wall street wolves you don't find yourself eaten by the State street tiger. It hurts just as much, and you will be just as dead when he is through. Take my tip and get your proxy back quick, and give it to some one you know to be honest.

Nothing has attracted the attention of the manufacturing interests of the country since the days of tariff revision so much as the Money amendment to the pure food bill. It is being carefully studied by the interested parties on both sides, the manufacture of food products and the men whose duty it will be to enforce the law, and meets with the warmest commendation from all. It is entirely free from any constitutional objections, and is the only bill so far proposed which regulates the manufacture of foods without prohibiting the same on the say so of one man. It will prove a boon to the manufacturer, a protection to the public, and the means of absolute regulation by the government in a fair and equitable manner of the production of articles for human consumption. Its only opponent is Prof. Wylie, who sees his finish if it passes, as he then won't be able to waste $200,000 to $300,000 of the people's money each year in maintaining his useless poison squad.

The Panama Canal continues just near completion as it has been at any time in the past. The testimony taken here before the Senate committee shows that it must be built by alien labor, as the climatic conditions are such that American labor cannot work there. Engineer Stevens says that this alien labor must be Chinese, as no other foreign labor is suitable. If the work is continued by a Jamaica negroes it will take much longer and be much more expensive, as a Jamaica negro won't do more than 25 per cent, as much work as an ordinary laborer. It is estimated that if done by Chinese it can be finished $90,000,000 cheaper than by Jamaicans. The Chinese government won't allow us to take Chinese unless it is done by responsible people, and under the strongest guarantee that they will be taken back to China when through. That is just what we want. By all means get the Chinese and save our taxpayers that eighty millions.

"Pure food" WY-LIE, the chemist of the Agricultural department, spent most of his time last week talking to the Appropriation bill committee in the House to see if he couldn't get a big appropriation to spend. Of course, if he don't get it he won't take nearly so much interest in the pure food question, for without it he won't be able to run around and waste his wind in delivering "if-you-eat-you-die" addresses before the Old Maids' protective associations, and other kindred female organizations, while his infant class in chemistry waste their time and the government money in their futile efforts to prove that everything fit to eat is poison. And you, Mr. Taxpayer, are paying for all of this tommyrot.

In order to build the canal by alien labor it is necessary that the provisions of the eight-hour law and the contract labor law be made inapplicable to alien labor employed in the canal zone during the construction of the canal. Some steps to bring this about have already been taken, and it is reported that the Senate committee are now framing a general bill which will govern the construction of the canal, and do away with the red tape and vexatious problems which have tied it up in the past. Such a bill ought to be supported by every American taxpayer, for it's his money that is building the canal, and it should be done as economically as possible.

Senator Foraker's proposed amendment to the Statehood bill is a just and fair one. It provides that elections shall be held in each territory to determine if it is the will of the people that Arizona and New Mexico shall be admitted as one State, and if a majority of the inhabitants of either territory vote against single statehood, then the bill shall have no effect and they shall remain as separate territories. This is right. Why should these people be forced down each other's throats, just for political reasons?

The Hepburn rate bill passed the House by a vote of 346 to 7. On such a showing it must be absolutely harmless to both the people and the railroads, and perfectly safe to take in any quantity.

Royal Baking Powder
Absolutely Pure

A GRAPE CREAM OF TARTAR BAKING POWDER

It makes the most delicious and healthful hot breads, biscuit and cake

FREE FROM ALUM, LIME OR PHOSPHATIC ACID

Alum baking powders are unhealthy. Do not use them for raising food under any circumstances. So detrimental are alum baking powders considered, that in most foreign countries their sale is prohibited. In many States in this country the law compels alum powders to be branded to show that they contain this dangerous acid, while in the District of Columbia, Congress has prohibited the sale of all food that contains alum.

Alum baking powders are sold to consumers at from 10 cents a pound to 25 ounces for 25 cents, or 25 cents a pound, and when not branded may generally be distinguished by their price.

JUDGE BYNUM HITS FROM THE SHOULDER.

Salary Post.
It is none of our fight and we have (except in one instance) refrained from commenting upon the trial of the distillers and revenue officers who have been on the rack in the Federal courts of Western North Carolina during the past year. There has been much whispered talk, however, with reference to the latter day activity of the courts as contrasted with the leniency of former times. Ex-Judge Bynum in his argument in defense of G. W. Samuels Wednesday gave publicity to this talk and we publish what he had to say as it is reported in the Industrial News.

"This is the outcome of an infernal political row in Wilkes county, something that seems to actuate many Republicans in this State, who in their infernal lust for office, turned demons in their efforts to damn and blacken men's characters. Here you find in Wilkes county, the honest contest in the primaries between Linney and Blackburn for Congress."

"In the convention Blackburn triumphed, and immediately began the unparalleled, systematic vituperation of this man Samuel, one of Blackburn's strongest supporters, by Linney's supporters, which never stopped when it reached the portals of this court."

"It was also a fight of old-revenue officers who were out against revenue officers who were in."

"It is the most relentless, inhuman, damnable state of affairs than ever existed or was permitted in any civilized country. Just let a man have the temerity or capacity to fill a position, and here flop down a black brood of scavenger harpies and tear his heart out."

Luckiest Man in Arkansas.

"I'm the luckiest man in Arkansas," writes H. L. Stanley, of Bruno, "since the restoration of my wife's health after five years of continuous coughing and bleeding from the lungs; and I owe my good fortune to the world's greatest medicine, Dr. King's New Discovery for Consumption, which I know from experience will cure consumption if taken in time. My wife improved with first bottle and twelve bottles completed the cure." Cures the worst coughs and colds or money refunded. At Albemarle Drug Co. 50c and $1.00. Trial bottle free.

A man always gets on easy by taking his wife's advice.

"Yes," answered Mr. Meekton. "When things turn out badly there isn't so much talk about it."—Philadelphia Inquirer.

More than half mankind over sixty years of age suffer from kidney and bladder disorders, usually enlargement of prostate gland. This is both painful and dangerous, and Foley's Kidney Cure should be taken at the first sign of danger, as it corrects irregularities and has cured many old men of this disease. Mr. Rodney Burnett, Rock Port, Mo., writes: "I suffered with enlarged prostate gland and kidney trouble for four years and after taking two bottles of Foley's Kidney Cure I feel better than I have for twenty years although I am now 81 years old."
