18th. Pilot Boat Addie, of Smithville, while cruising spoke schooner Franconia, Beantown master, bound to Wilmington.
19th. Steamer Trent, Roberts, from New Bern with mail for Capt. Lorde's office.
20th. U. S. Revenue Cutter Colfax, from Smithville.

THE STEREOPTICON PERFORMANCE.
Prof. Richardson on Tuesday evening the 16th instant at Davis Hall for the benefit of the Orphan Asylum, netted the sum of $8.25. This amount has been forwarded to the Orphan Asylum by the Secretary of Franklin Lodge A. F. & A. M. The entertainment given on Friday evening for the benefit of the St. M. E. Sunday School Library, was a disaster, failure. The receipts were not sufficient to pay the rent of the hall.

MR. J. POLLIER, a former resident of this county, and a subscriber to our paper writes us under date of June 15th from La Rue, Ohio, that heavy rains have prevailed in his section—farmers not getting through planting corn—have not sown wheat in a safe degree—prayer, please with us. I wish to see the paper that the writer would like to have a remedy for chicken cholera. I will give you my remedy: Take white oak bark and boil it in water till the juice and put in a cornmeal in it and feed it to your chickens.

On Thursday the 16th instant, a large Newfoundland dog came ashore on Begun Bank. The dog refused to leave anything to do with any of the residents. It was supposed that he had swam ashore from some wrecked vessel. We learned later that the dog belonged to Mr. Lockhart Gibbs who resides about three miles from town. Mr. Gibbs had left home for Beaufort, and the dog wishing to be with him attempted to swim across the creek. A heavy wind and rain were prevailing at the time and the poor brute was carried down the river, across the sound and landed upon the banks.

Mr. Thomas Lewis came near meeting with a serious accident several days ago. He was driving a mule attached to a cart across the bridge, at the mill dam on the New Bern road, his mule became frightened and commenced backing on the bridge. The mule backed until the cart hung over the bridge, his feet were pressed against the timbers on the side of the bridge. Mr. Lewis jumped out of the cart, held the mule head, cut the traces and saved his mule. The cart fell off the bridge in about 8 feet of water. The tide was at its height at the time. Had the mule, cart and driver gone over the bridge, it might have resulted in the drowning of both driver and mule.

Mr. Jos. E. Robinson, editor of that sprightly paper, the Goldsboro Argus, paid us a most pleasant visit last week. He informed us that his paper was flourishing, and that the office was to be removed to the Messenger building. The Argus is a first class journal, and well deserves the patronage of the people. We do not know of a more gallant and generous gentleman than the gentleman editor of the Argus. He is one of the "handsome members of the Goldsboro Rifles," so the girls say, and we will back up their judgment in the matter. Mr. Robinson has recently associated with himself, Messrs. W. G. Manning and C. B. Aycock, in the editorial department of his paper. The Argus was a grand success, before these gentlemen associated themselves with Robinson. We may now look for a better paper if such is possible.

On Wednesday night the 15th instant, Mr. Nat Godley, who resides on Russell's Creek, visited our town and remained until about 9 p. m. On about that hour he started for home, when near the forks of the road, about one mile from town, his horse was suddenly arrested by a man, who stepped out from the side of the road and grasped the reins. Mr. G. was sitting in the cart, he at once ordered the man to release his horse, the fellow mumbled out something which he failed to understand. Mr. G. jumped from his cart into the road and with the butt end of his whip, which was loaded struck the villain a blow over the head which felled him to the earth. He still retained his hold upon the reins. Mr. G. again ordered him to release his hold, which was not done. Mr. G. struck the rascal down, his hold was thus broken and Mr. Godley immediately jumped into his cart and drove off, leaving the fellow in the road. Mr. G. says that the one who made the attack upon him was a medium sized mulatto man. What was the object, was it murder or robbery? The matter demands an investigation by the proper authorities.

NOTICE!
I will be in Beaufort from four to six weeks, teaching a vocal class. Parties desiring pianos or organs tuned will please notify me. Charges moderate. I am also agent for Ludden & Bates, Southern Music House for the sale of Pianos and Organs.

MOREHEAD CITY, N. C. June 17, 1887.
MR. W. B. COLWELL, DEAR SIR:—The Goldsboro Rifles desire to return to you their sincere and heartfelt thanks for the very liberal donation of vegetables and the many other courtesies extended to them while in camp at Morehead City, June 13th-18th 1887.

W. T. HOLLOWELL, Captain con'd.
F. W. SMITH, Secretary.

G. A. BRADFORD, wholesale dealer of Chattanooga, Tenn., writes that he was seriously afflicted with a severe cold that settled on his lungs; had tried many remedies without benefit, being induced to try Dr. King's New Discovery for Croup, Consumption, Croup, and was entirely cured by use of a few bottles. Since which time he has used it in his family for all Coughs and Colds with best results. This is the experience of thousands whose lives have been saved by this wonderful Discovery. Trial bottles free at T. B. Delema's Drug Store Large Bottles $1.00.

AN END TO DONE SCRAPING.
Edward Shepherd, of Harrisburg, Ill., says: "Having received so much benefit from Electric Bitters, I feel it my duty to let suffering humanity know it. I have had a running sore on my leg for eight years; my doctors told me I would have to have the bone scraped and leg amputated. I used, instead, three bottles of Electric Bitters and seven boxes of Bucklen's Arnica Salve, and my leg is now sound and well." Electric Bitters are sold at fifty cents a bottle, and Bucklen's Arnica Salve at 25c per box by T. B. Delema.

MARRIED.
On Wednesday evening, June 23d 1887, at the residence of Mr. James Marshall, near Beaufort, Mr. Willie Morton to Miss Annie Starnes, nee W. H. Pickett, of the North Carolina M. E. Conference. The young couple in the holy bonds of wedlock. A large company were present to witness the ceremony. Refreshments were served the guests, and it was indeed an old time marriage feast. We regret our inability to be present on this joyous occasion. We wish our young friends a long and happy life, may the blessings of heaven rest upon them.

INTERESTING TO LADIES.
Our lady readers can hardly fail to have their attention called this week to the latest combination of improvements in that most useful of all domestic implements, the "Sewing Machine."
As we understand it, a machine for family use should meet first of all these requirements:—It should be simple in its mechanism, and should be so constructed that simple work of all kinds should be done with ease and as nearly noiseless as possible; it should be light, handsome, durable, and as cheap as is consistent with excellence throughout.

These conditions the "Light-Running New Home" certainly meets. It has also several other improvements, such as "automatic" and "notions" of its own, which go to make good its claims to popular favor.

The "New Home" specially recommends itself to purchasers on account of its superior mechanical construction, ease of management, and reasonable price. Over half a million have been sold in the last three years, all of which are giving universal satisfaction. This unrivalled machine is manufactured by the NEW HOME SEWING MACHINE CO., Orange, Mass., and 30 Union Square, New York.

THE NORTH CAROLINA TEACHERS' ASSEMBLY.
FIRST DAY'S PROCEEDINGS.
The North Carolina Teachers' Assembly, composed of the teachers of the State and leading educators convened at the Atlantic Hotel, Morehead City on Wednesday, June 15th, at 12 o'clock noon.

The assembly was organized at Waynesville, N. C., in the year 1864. The second and third sessions were held at Black Mountain in Western North Carolina in 1835 and 1838. This year the teachers came to the coast.

The Assembly in 1894 had enrolled three hundred and sixty-five members. The present membership aggregates nearly two thousand and it is perhaps one of the largest bodies of the kind in the United States.

The Teachers and members of the Assembly arrived on a special train Tuesday night, June 14th. Arrangements had been made by Mr. Eugene Harrell of Raleigh, Secretary, and the other Assembly officers with Messrs. Cooke & Foster Brothers, the clever and experienced hotel proprietors, who controlled the Atlantic last summer. So that rooms were assigned on the train en-route to all avoiding any confusion on the arrival of the train. It is estimated that eight hundred are present at the Atlantic now including the former guests and the Assembly.

New arrivals every night will probably make the number one thousand, before the Assembly adjourns. Mr. Harrell informs us a larger number are present this year at any previous session of the Assembly.

There are prominent ladies and gentlemen, distinguished educators and teachers from nearly every county in North Carolina.

Every section of the State at least is represented, from beyond the Blue Ridge Mountains, the Piedmont or middle section and the coast section, they came to our grand old ocean and our sister cities by the ocean.

The formal exercises of the assembly began on Wednesday morning, June 15th at 11 a. m., with an address of Welcome by C. B. Thomas, Jr. Esq., of this town.

Prior to the opening exercises, chairs were placed for the audience, the music stand in the Ball Room was decorated tastefully and a bulletin announcing the programme placed in the Hotel. The regular hour for the opening was 10 a. m. This hour was changed owing to the late arrival on Tuesday night of the Assembly train.

Promptly at 12 o'clock the President of the Assembly, Prof. E. A. Alderman Superintendent of the Goldsboro Graded School, called the Assembly to order.

The Secretary Mr. E. G. Harrell of Raleigh was at his post just below and on one side of the rostrum. On the rostrum were seated Maj. S. M. Finger our able and popular State Superintendent of Public Instruction, Dr. R. H. Lewis of the Kingston College, Prof. C. P. Frazier and Capt. C. B. Denson.

Maj. Finger in very pleasant words introduced to the Assembly and the audience Mr. Thomas, whom he said would extend the welcome to Eastern North Carolina to the Assembly.

The speaker briefly reviewed the history and the organization of the Teachers' Assembly, its rapid growth, and great importance to the State was shown to be unparalleled. His welcome to the Assembly was eloquently rendered, and such a noble tribute to the teacher, was the theme of all who had the pleasure of listening to him. Our noble young Representative was heard in hand in his endorsement of the establishment of the North Carolina Normal College, for the training of the teachers of our State.

Mr. John W. Starnes, county superintendent of Buncombe, was called upon by the president, who acknowledged the welcome so generously extended to the teachers by Mr. Thomas.

Dr. M. F. Arendell, mayor of Morehead, also extended a hearty welcome to the "Freedom of Morehead" to all present. Mr. C. F. Siler, moved that the Assembly express their thanks by a rising vote for such a cordial welcome.

SECOND DAY, JUNE 16TH.
The assembly was called to order at 10 o'clock a. m., by the President. Devotional exercises were conducted by Rev. T. U. Pauquette, of Milton, Prof. Charles Wilson, of Chapel Hill, led the singing. The President of the Assembly, Prof. E. A. Alderman, then delivered his annual address. The address was well received. A letter was then read by the secretary, from the President of the United States, regretting his inability to attend the Assembly.

Prof. E. P. Moses, of Raleigh, offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted:—

Resolved, That a committee of three be appointed to submit resolutions of thanks to the press of the state for the liberal and valuable aid which it has given to the assembly and its work.

The President filled vacancies in the standing committees as follows:—
Executive Committee—J. W. Starnes, Asheville; T. J. Simmons, Durham; C. P. Frazier, Greensboro.

Daily Programme—E. P. Moses, Raleigh; N. C. English, Trinity College; W. B. Phillips, Chapel Hill.

An address on school government by Dr. R. H. Lewis, president of the Kingston College, was both entertaining and instructive. The address was enjoyed by all who were fortunate enough to hear him. The assembly as at work, it is a gathering of brainy men and women from the sea-shore to the mountains, their work is of a practical kind, and cannot fail them in working out for the good of education.

EVENING SESSION.
The Assembly was called to order by the president at 8:30 p. m. Rev. L. C. Vass, D. D., of New Bern lectured before the Assembly. His subject—"The Meditations of an Inland," was indeed a novel one. His treatment of his theme was a grand effort.

THIRD DAY, June 17th.
The Assembly was called to order by the President at the usual hour. The following committee on thanks to the Press was appointed:—E. P. Moses, W. A. Blair, C. D. McIver.

On motion of Prof. E. P. Moses, a committee was appointed to offer an amendment to the Constitution in regard to membership in the Assembly. Committee:—E. P. Moses, S. M. Finger, F. P. Hobgood.

A committee to clearly define the objects of the Assembly, consisting of Rev. J. M. White, C. B. Denson and C. F. Siler, was appointed by the Chair.

"Primary Reading" was the topic announced by the Chair, and the subject was introduced by Prof. Nelson B. Henry of Chapel Hill. The discussion was participated in by Prof. W. A. Blair, of Winston, Prof. E. P. Moses, Miss M. E. Carter, Prof. D. L. Ellis, Rev. J. M. Hillary, and Prof. Dickett.

An essay on "Education," by Miss Lillian Arnold of the Greensboro Female College, brought down the house.

EVENING SESSION.
Owing to the illness of Rev. Thos. Hume, D. D., who was announced as the speaker for to night, the exercises were changed somewhat. The Goldsboro Rifles, who are encamped on the hotel grounds, gave a complimentary drill in the large ball room of the Atlantic Hotel. The company received rounds of applause, and their efforts to add to the entertainment of the teachers was fully appreciated.

President Alderman and Capt. C. B. Denson of Raleigh, returned the thanks of the Assembly for the pleasure afforded them in witnessing the various railway movements, so splendidly executed, by this fine company. After the drill, Mr.

Stradley, gave a recitation, "Antonio Oribeu," and Mrs. Shipp, of Raleigh, "Faneur-aldia." The balance of the evening was devoted to a musical programme which had been arranged to complete the evening exercises.

FOURTH DAY, JUNE 18TH.
Devotional exercises were led by Rev. J. M. White, of Holly Springs.

The committee on restricting membership in the Assembly made the following report:—

To the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly:
We beg leave to propose the adoption of the following resolutions:—

Resolved 1. That none but bona fide teachers, school superintendents, members of school boards, ministers of the gospel, officers of educational journals and members of their immediate families shall be entitled to membership in the North Carolina Teachers' Assembly, provided, that the Secretary and President may, in their discretion, issue special complimentary tickets, and report the names of the persons to whom such tickets are issued, to the Assembly.

Resolved 2. That the school with which the applicant is or has been connected, must be stated in the application, and the membership ticket cannot be issued until said application has been endorsed by the Secretary and approved by the President.

E. P. Moses, S. M. Finger, F. P. Hobgood, committee.

On motion of Prof. Charles D. McIver, Hon. D. G. Fowle, of Raleigh, was unanimously requested to address the Assembly during this session.

Prof. John Duckett, of Greenville, was appointed on the Executive Committee, to fill a vacancy caused by the absence of a member.

Mr. Washington Bryan, the gentlemanly President of the A. & N. C. R. B. Co., tendered the Assembly a complimentary excursion to New Bern to take place next week.

EVENING SESSION.
Hon. D. G. Fowle, of Raleigh, addressed the Assembly. Judge Fowle was in the best of humor, and meant every word that he said.

SUNDAY, JUNE 19TH.
A special train from New Bern arrived this morning.

The Assembly met in the ball room at 11 o'clock a. m., to attend religious services. Rev. John S. Watkins, pastor of the First Presbyterian Church of Raleigh preached from the text, "Never man spake like this man." By request Mr. Watkins again preached to the Assembly in the evening. He chose for his subject, "Christianity." The vocal and instrumental music was very fine. Mr. V. C. Royster, of Raleigh, presided at the organ, and an orchestra of brass instruments from the Davis School Band, accompanied the organ.

FIFTH DAY, June 20th.
Devotional exercises were conducted by Mr. Ellis. The following special committees were appointed by the President:—
Committee on Organization—J. L. Tomlinson, D. L. Ellis, Marion Butler, T. C. Linn, Hugh Morson, C. H. Walker, R. G. Kysor, Mrs. S. S. Williams, Mrs. Emma McIlvray.

Committee on N. C. History—C. B. Denson, L. T. Blair, Miss Annie Conigland.

Committee on General History—W. A. Blair, C. D. McIver, Miss Lily Long.

Committee on Geography of N. C.—Rev. L. C. Vass, J. A. Delke, Miss Lucy Jarney.

The committee on Normal College, submitted their report. The committee proposed to memorialize the legislature of 1887, to appropriate the sum of $10,000 to establish a Normal College for men and women preparing to teach. The committee, Messrs. Alderman, Finger and Mary R. Goodloe, stated that the memorial was submitted to the Senate approved by the committee on education, but the bill failed to pass the Senate. The committee was continued, and instructed to urge the matter before the next legislature.

The first subject announced to-day was "Latin," Prof. McIver, of Peace Institute, opened with an essay, which was followed by the President, Rev. G. Byrd, Prof. B. Delke, Hobgood Blair, and Capt. Denson. The second subject, "Geography" was brought before the Assembly by Prof. Noble, of Wilmington.

EVENING SESSION.
The President called the assembly to order and introduced Miss Lillian Arnold, she was received with applause. Miss Arnold is an accomplished teacher, reader, and eloquent.

Mr. Josephus Daniels, editor of the State Chronicle, was next introduced, as the lecturer of the evening. Mr. Daniels presented as his subject, "Money and Socialism." He ably entertained his large audience until train time.

OUR NEW YORK LETTER.
[From our regular correspondent.]
New York, June 18th, 1887.

Our catemmed citizen and notorious socialist Herr Most is in hot water again. Since he graduated from Blackwell's Island some months ago, we have heard little of him. He is before the public again now. Proceeding's are about to be taken against him for inciting a riot at Union Park, N. J., on Sunday last. Union Park is but a short distance from Jersey City and contains a picnic ground. On Sunday the socialist, dynamiters and all foes to wealth and society held a meeting there. Some very big and riotous speeches were made and much beer consumed. No socialist speeches mixed with beer always create trouble. A socialist meeting without beer has never been known. Several unoffending and innocent people who had strolled into the grounds out of curiosity were suspected of being detectives and were immediately beset upon. Pistols were discharged several persons shot, and others seriously injured by missiles during the riot. The injured citizens have expressed their determination to bring Most to justice and have accused him of being at the bottom of all the disturbance. It is hoped that he will be sent to the Island for another but longer term.

The jury box in the famous Sharp trial has at last been filled and the trial is now fairly begun.

The Queen's jubilee celebration will be duly observed by the Anglo-Americans of this city in the Metropolitan Opera House on Tuesday, June 21st. Many of the 17th population will make that day one of general merriment; dipping their houses in black and with flags at half mast, as Irishmen has no great love for Victoria.

The train that leaves Jersey City every morning for Chicago is made up of the handsomest cars in the world. This is
