The president, his wife and a small and select party left the Capiand his and ence t stilled their approval tol in this train on Friday morning. Republicans, Democrats, Mugwumps and all wish them a pleasant and safe trip.

> The courts are to be complimented upon the speedy trial and sentence of a youthful murderer. The windows and doors of Jay Gould's palatial mausion on Fifth avenue, are being boarded up in a most substantial manner preparatory to that gentleman's departure for Europe. Looks as if Jay intended to remain abroad some time. Now there will be a chance for others to have a finger in the Wall street pie, The rain and general humidity of the past week has had a depressing influence on everything and everybody. The sun will be very welcome for the first few

The streets of New York have never been in a worse condition. The steam heating company are laving new pipes and the subway company are engaged in putting the telegraph wires underground. Between the two, the streets are almost impassible. Trenches are dug the whole length of avenues and streets, and the is necessarially left after the excava-

Hill to a public debate on taxation. These two gentlemen have contrary opinions on the subject. In Gov. Hill's reply to Henry George's challenge Henry was
