We have published from time to time since we took charge of the Record, some admirable poems from the pen of Mrs. Elizabeth Oakes Smith. We are more than proud to number this lovely lady among our corps of contributors. We have also been promised poems from the pen of Mrs. Cissie Davis, of our town, who is a sweet writer. The Record is able to measure lances with any of our State Exchanges, when we can number two such talented writers among our corps of contributors.

THE VERDICT UNANIMOUS.

W. D. Salk, Druggist, Bippus, Ind., testifies: "I can recommend Electric Bitters as the very best remedy. Every bottle sold has given relief in every case. One man took six bottles, and was cured of Rheumatism of 10 years standing." Abraham Hare, druggist, Belleville, Ohio, affirms: "The best selling medicine I have ever handled in my 20 years experience, is Electric Bitters." Thousands of others have added their testimony, so that the verdict is unanimous that Electric Bitters do cure all diseases of the Liver, Kidneys or Blood. Only a half dollar a bottle of T. B. Delamar's Drug Store.

WIVES! MOTHERS! DAUGHTERS!

BE YOUR OWN PHYSICIAN! A lady who for years suffered from distressing female complaints, weakness, etc., so common to her sex, and had departed of a cure, finally found remedies which completely cured her. Any sufferer can use them and thus cure herself, without the aid of a physician. From feelings of gratitude she will send two prescriptions—written, cured her—and an illustrated pamphlet, entitled "THE STEPPING-STONE TO HEALTH," and full instructions sealed. Address (with 2 cent stamp), Mrs. C. HOLMES, 658 Broadway, N. Y. (Name this paper).

IN MEMORIAM.

Died in Morehead City, Oct. 10, 1887, Grace Webb, daughter of A. H. and Hattie E. Webb, aged three months and five days. It was in the evening twilight the summons came. All that loving heads and tender hands could do, was done to release the little sufferer, all of which was of no avail for the hour had come. Her earthly tenure has been very short, but full of affections for one so young. She has made a happy exchange of hours, earthly for heavenly. There has been another anchor of the soul cast in the Paradise of God, and its cable of love is sufficient to draw us all up higher. One by one we must follow her to the grave, and we pray God that we may be able to follow her up through the pearly gates into the city of God, and there to be with Jesus and the loved ones who have gone on before. While we wait these lines we feel her little spirit hovering about us, reminding us not to weep for her, that the good Lord has given her a beautiful and happy home "Over there." Oh! how we love to think of it. May He who "tempers the wind to the sailor" sanctify this loss and comfort the bereaved father and mother, sister and brothers and loved ones in their afflictions, and give them grace and strength to exclaim as David of old, "The Lord thy God, and the Lord taketh away. Blessed be the name of the Lord."

Methodist Advance please copy.

Died on Monday October 10th, 1887, Mrs. Mary Elizabeth Rice beloved wife of Richard Rice.

Once more we are called upon to write: "Blessed are the dead which die in the Lord." Mrs. Rice was a devout Christian, she was a devoted member of the Missionary Baptist Church, and has passed away peacefully, and has entered into the joy of her risen Savior.

In the home circle, she shone at her best, her husband and children listened to the wise counsel which fell from her lips. She rested peacefully in God her Father, and lived as she died. To say that she will be missed by her loved ones only faintly expresses the grief they are passing through. Our sympathies go out to all their families; the husband and bereaved of a loving companion, the children of a wise Christian Mother; the loss indeed is great, and cannot be replaced. May our Heavenly Father comfort and bless them while passing under the rod.

A bright, happy household is shrouded in gloom.
A fond wife and mother is torn to the heart.
Sadly we mourn her, thy sweet is thy rest.

Safe in the beautiful home of the blest,
Why should we wish thee on earth lack again
Now thou art free from all sorrow and pain.

One who to death was so calmly resigned
One who has left such a fair name behind,
Oh may we too when life's short day is o'er
Be so surely at rest on Eternity's shore
Through the waters of death may we uncom-
pass our round
Our tears will all vanish when Jesus is found

CITIZENS MASS MEETING.

A meeting of the citizens of Carteret County was held at the Court House, in the town of Beaufort, on Saturday, Oct. 15th, 1887. Dr. F. Borden Mace, was called to the chair, and G. W. Charlotte was requested to act as Secretary. Dr. Mace, after a few remarks, thanked his fellow citizens for the honor conferred upon him in electing him as their chairman. He explained the object of the meeting in a neat and well timed speech, and in conclusion he called upon Mr. C. H. Thomas, Jr., who fully explained the objects of the meeting, and fully explained the laws on taxation. On motion Mr. C. S. Bell, was unanimously elected Treasurer. The following resolutions were then read and unanimously adopted:

1st. That we believe the expenses of the County government should be continued within the limit allowed by law and that this can be done if the administration of the county government is prudent and economical.

2nd. That we condemn the conduct of those members of the Board of County Commissioners who, in the present and past years, have so conducted the affairs of the County, and paid out its moneys as they see fit, and beguile the minds of the taxpayers with the belief of the necessity for excessive tax levies.

3rd. That if the necessary expenses of the County government exceed the amount raised by a legal tax levy in accordance with the constitution and laws, and that the Board of Commissioners should proceed according to the Constitution and obtain "the special approval of the General Assembly" for the special purpose of paying the deficiency.

4th. That a committee of eight citizens be appointed to raise funds and that the chairman, secretary and treasurer of this meeting be instructed to employ one or more attorneys to ask for an injunction at the Fall Term of Carteret Superior Court 1887. The Chairman appointed the following Committee to raise funds:—Dr. J. W. Sanders, David McLean, John J. Royal, Dr. C. N. Mason, John L. Guthrie, B. A. Milton, A. H. Chiswick, G. W. Charlotte, F. Borden Mace, Chairman.

G. W. CHARLOTTE, Secretary.

NEWS OF A WEEK.

October 14th. There were six new cases and two deaths from yellow fever yesterday in Tampa, Florida. Dr. Porter and nurses have arrived to assist in nursing the sick. The widow of the late Minister Manning arrived at the Fifth Avenue Hotel, New York City, yesterday to make preparations for her husband's funeral. The first snow of the season fell at Utica, N. Y., yesterday morning. Places as far south as Post Gibson, Miss., report frost night before last. Terrible storms are prevailing on the Gulf Coast, causing much loss of life and great damage to the shipping. Surgeon General Hamilton has directed that the cotas at Egmont Keys, Florida, which have not been used by fever patients, be sent to Tampa. The Presidential party, on their southern tour, stopped in Sioux City, and visited the corn festival. They were greatly pleased with the many beautiful things they saw made from corn and various other products of the field. The Light House Board has ordered the placing of a gas buoy off Pamlico, to take the place of light at that point, which was discontinued because of the unsafety of the tower. Efforts were made at the last two sessions of Congress to secure provisions for a new light, but without success. The combination boys, off Cape Hatteras, which was disabled about three months ago, is reported to be a dangerous obstruction to navigation, and the Light House Board has issued instructions to the Inspector of the Fifth District to take a tender from Baltimore to secure the buoy and put it in good repair.

October 15th. The cotton crop for the United States for 1887, is estimated at 6,550,000 bales, as against 6,500,000 for 1886-87. The Scotch yacht, Thistle, sailed from New York for home yesterday. Captain Barr hopes to make the run across in sixteen days. The funeral services over the late Minister Manning were held in Trinity Chapel, New York, yesterday morning. The body was sent by express to New Orleans.

Twenty-six cases of cholera have been developed among the passengers on the Alesia. Eight deaths have occurred. Watchmen guard the quarantine of observation rigidly. Two deaths and three new cases of yellow fever have occurred in Tampa, Fla., since the last official report. Quarantines are being established throughout the State. Captain Black and Lawyer Solomon, counsel for the condemned anarchists, have arrived in New York with a full transcript of the record of the famous trial. They consulted with General Pryor yesterday.

The Queen Regent of Spain has been signed a decree authorizing the construction of six iron-clads of 7,000 tons each, which shall be capable of attaining a speed of from sixteen to twenty miles an hour; also four large and sixty small torpedo boats.

October 16th. The Prussian Crown Prince is again reported in a very precarious condition. Judge Elliot dropped dead yesterday while welcoming the President to Memphis, Tenn. The resignation of Henry J. Wilton postmaster at Birmingham, Ala., has been received at the Postoffice Department at Washington. Arsenic put in eggs by a Philadelphia greener for the purpose of killing rats, caused the illness of a whole family and the death of one person. An apparently sane man stepped in front of a train near Atlanta and was fatally injured. His purpose was to sue the company for damages. The Presidential party had a narrow escape on the way to Memphis. A bridge, over which the train is to pass, is set on fire by a supposed train wrecker, but is discovered in time to prevent a second Chatsworth horror. Train robbers in Texas stop a passenger train and attempt to rob the mail car, dynamite being used to burst the car open. The mail agent, however, not being disabled by the shock, seized a double barrel shot gun and killed one of the gang.

October 18th. The Indian troubles are reported to be at an end for the present. Four deaths and five new cases of yellow fever are reported from Tampa. Sam Small, of Atlanta, lectured on temperance in Chickering Hall, New York, yesterday. It seems probable that the Rev. Charles A. Berry, of England, will be the successor of Henry Ward Beecher at Plymouth Church. Judge R. N. Tolp, Tucker, one of the counsel for the condemned anarchists, will ask the U. S. Supreme Court for a writ of error in the case.

The yellow fever is thought to be under control. Tourists are pouring in and it is believed that no danger will attend the usual winter season. There is a strong probability that the appointment of a First Assistant Secretary of State will be one of President Cleveland's first acts after his return. In the Supreme Court, yesterday, the U. S. Marshal of the eastern district of Virginia, made returns to the writ of HABEAS CORPUS in the case of the Virginia State officers. The schooner Lena B. Reed, from Charleston, S. C., for Philadelphia, known steamer thirty miles eastward of Spring Pass Shoals, doing considerable damage to her rigging and causing her to take water. She was compelled to put back for repairs.

October 19th. The first fall heavy on the south bar of Charleston harbor, is missing. The Virginia HABEAS CORPUS case is set for trial in the U. S. Supreme Court, the first Monday in November. The Virginia officers recognized in the active in Atlanta and are accorded a royal welcome. The Hon. H. W. Grady makes the welcoming speech and is replied to by Mr. Cleveland in an agreeable and fitting speech. Spirits of Turpentine fell 33 cts. Rosin 24 cts. Tallow 21, 5 lbs. Cotton dull 66 cts. Peanuts 80 to 92 cts. Rice 22 to 25 cts.

OUR NEW YORK LETTER.

[From Our Regular Correspondent.]
New York, October 15th, 1887.

On Saturday evening last a large mass meeting under the auspices of a Progressive Labor Union was held on Union Square. The police, some hundred strong, under the command of Capt. Reilly, the newly appointed captain of the 19th precinct, were in attendance and in readiness to suppress any disturbance. During the speaking a crowd of the supporters of Henry George began to cheer lustily for that gentleman and to interrupt the orators. Capt. Reilly, taking a squad of twenty men, started to scatter the orators. The remaining force of policemen mistaking his intention and without orders charged the crowd with drawn clubs. In a few minutes the square was cleared and the meeting broke up into a confused mob, so to speak. Great indignation prevails among the socialists and nihilists at the interference of the police and the worthy body of blue coated guardians of the peace have received wholesale denunciations from the nihilist papers, especially that of Herr Must. Nothing very serious, however, is likely to come out of the affair. Tuesday was the first day of registry. The offices were open all over the city and every body given a chance to register. The followers of the George party claimed that they were entitled to an inspector at each of the offices, but the police had orders to arrest any persons who claimed such authority. As usual the patriotic brigade marched to the offices, and endeavoring to register but were completely ignored by the busy inspectors.

On Wednesday evening a private view to the press and clergy was given to M. de Mukasky's great religious painting "Christ on Cavalry." The painting is a companion to "Christ before Pilate," the painting by the same artist that was purchased by John Wauermanaker of Philadelphia.

The Thistle left on Thursday for home, Mr. Bell, the owner, and Mr. Watson, the designer of the yacht were entertained by the New York Yacht Club, previous to their departure on the city of Rome on Wednesday. The gentlemen expressed themselves perfectly satisfied with the treatment they had received in this country, and thanked the club for its generous hospitality. The gentlemen presented a club with a beautiful model of the Thistle. They both carry home among other things a profound regard for the American genteel-board.

Johnny Ward, the popular ex-captain of the New York Nine, was married to Miss Helen Davney, the well known actress on Wednesday. Mr. Ward is a lawyer by profession, a graduate of Columbia College Law School, a thoroughly educated gentleman and the most remarkable man on the diamond field. It was reported that Miss Davney would marry young Ed. Southern of the Lyceum Theatre.

The evening edition of the New York World made its appearance on Monday last. By the way of advertisement the enterprising editor, Mr. Joseph Pulitzer, chartered Miner's Theatre and gave a monstrous theatre party to over 3000 newsmen who amuse themselves between the acts, alternately, by whistling and cheering for their host.

Bicycles have not proved themselves to be such a nuisance as many supposed when they were first granted admission to Central Park. An accident occurred on the bridge path to day in which a bicycle played an important part. Two riders came in collision and one was thrown to the ground breaking his ankle. A passing wheelman was quickly dispatched to the entrance of the park and secured a carriage to take the injured man home in less time than it takes to tell it. A great many accidents occur in the park that are never heard of outside of it. Runaways, breakdowns and the like, are never reported in the papers, unless they are of a very serious nature. After a ride up the West and down the East sides of the park, one often wonders that there are not more necks broken and more lives lost than there are. On a pleasant afternoon the east drives in particular, is generally jammed with carriages. Equestrians as a rule stick to the bridge path. In the fashionable whirl a girl of sixteen or less may be seen holding the lines over a pair of high spirited horses. From her high seat, on the stanhope or T cart, which she is driving she looks a wee mite to hold such a team of impatient equines. A coachman sits on a seat behind with his arms folded. He is an ornament but it is much use in case of an accident. Then again round a turn will come a large drag, or tally-ho, drawn by four prancing horses. A little pony cart will just get out of the way in time. The nurse that is driving and at the same time minding the children does not seem to realize the danger, or responsibility of her position. It is marvelous they are not run over. Often a horse will become unmanageable and will require the service of a mount policeman or two to render him tractable again. By the way these good fellows ride to perfection on their beautiful horses standing in the carriage road or bridge path they look quiet enough. But if there is a runaway or the waving notes of a fellow policeman's whistle are heard he plunges the spurs into the animals' sides, drops the reins loose on his neck and with his feet stretched out in his stirrups flies away like the wind to the scene of trouble.

How they ride! A number of them are of the cavalry map and understand their horses as well as their horses understand them. All sorts and conditions of runaways and rips are seen on an afternoon drive through the park. Wonderful liveries adorn the coachmen and the dresses of the people may be English the scene is essentially an American one. Everything has the look and the spirit of the Americans. The style of dressing the coachmen in mourning to express the grief of the owner of the carriage has been criticized by a great many. Sometimes the contrast between the employer and employees is striking. Here comes a stylish turnout drawn by a team, one a gray and the other a sorrel, a fastidious and pretty combination. The coachman is a handsome fellow, straight as an arrow, his eye clear as the sky, an athlete every inch of him. But in the carriage below wrapped in rug and shawl his employer sits. His shoulders are bent and his eye lacks the clearness of his coachman's. High living and on over indulgence in champagne has broken him down perhaps. One has money but so but no health, the other health but no money. "And so roll: the world around." COLWELL.
