Just Because She Made Those "Tater Pies."

A pretty little girl in a kitchen sat
 With sadness in her eyes,
 Because her mamm had ordered her, to
 Make some tater pies.
 She made them pies,
 With tear-wet eyes.
 She made them pies, with
 Thoughts of one she loved
 She thought he'd eat those pies and say he, her love had proved,
 He tried to eat
 Those tater pies.

CHORUS.

Just because she made
 Them tater pies,
 She thought he'd eat and say,
 He'd found a prize.
 They're the toughest just what in,
 I can't see her in my biz;
 Just because she made
 Them tater pies.

He ate those pies and wondered away,
 To Klondykes frozen skyee;
 But memory still would bring him
 Those awful tater pies.
 He thought of home
 He thought of home.

He ate some hard tack made in the
 the year of eighteen hundred and nine
 In contrast to those tater pies he said
 Those tacks were fine
 He ate those tacks
 With hearty smacks.

CHORUS.

Just because she made
 Them tater pies,
 He chose the worth and abandoned
 sunny skies,
 He said he'd rather freeze,
 Eat hard tack and Limberg cheese
 Than to eat those beastly tater pies.
 RHYMSTER.

What Congress Spent.

How much did Congress in its recent session appropriate? Representative Livingston, of Georgia, says the direct appropriations, including the Ithman canal, aggregated $806,193,837, and that there remains $259,373,215 to be added for contracts provided for which execution expenditures, bringing the liabilities created for the Treasury up to $1,059,577,052. It was accordingly a "billion dollar session" after all. This is an enormous pull upon the tax payers' pockets. It may be borne now while times are good, but this scale of expenditure will be irksome when a reaction comes and business is again stagnant.—Baltimore Sun.

The champion inde of Germany is Prince Albert of Thurn, who wears a new suit of clothes every day, a thousand neckties a year, and 200 pair boots. He is a sweet-scented cuss, too, for he has all his clothes perfumed with attar roses, which costs $25 an ounce.

Newsy Notes.

Mark Twain tells a story of an old colored man in the South who professed to have known George Washington. "I asked him," say the humorist, "if he had been in the boat when George Washington crossed the Delaware, and he instantly replied: 'Lor', Massa, I steered that boat.' 'Well', said I, 'do you remember when George took the hack at the cherry tree?' He looked worried for a minute, then, with a beaming smile said: 'Why, suah, Massa, I don drove dat hack masself.'"

There is a crank in jail in a Pennsylvania town, who says he has been unjustly jailed, and is so mad about it, that he will starve himself to death. They made a mistake; a lunatic asylum is his place.

The actions of royalty must be getting stuck on this country. There are a half dozen or so booked for visits, the latest being Prince Chen, of China. That whirl we gave the Kaiser's brother seem to have made 'em all giddy.

A Macon Ga. telegram to the Atlanta Journal tell of a "new" religious sect which has appeared in that locality organized by 15 negroes and 4 white men. "They wash each other's feet", runs the story "the women kiss each other and the men kiss the men. They claim that the fundamental law of Christ is to have no color lines or racial distinctions. They claim to fight sin in every shape and to encourage people to be honest and honorable. They have no membership rolls and pay preachers nothing for preaching."

The no-pay-for-preachers plan will soon end this new insect. It will hardly survive the water melon season at best. The whites in this crowd do not need to be worried over but the negroes might be gently admonished of the bad results of evil associations.

Have Hunting.

This branch of sport has a host of earnest supporters throughout the northern states and Canada, and many fine dogs are kept for the sole purpose of driving the white fellows. Some hunters use native foxhounds and crossbreds, such as are used to drive deer. Needless to say, the man who regularly hunts deer and hares will keep certain hounds for each kind of work. Hounds schooled to drive hares are a nuisance on a deer hunt, owing to their tendency to follow the lesser game when the greater is wanted. Smart harriers are excellent for hares, but perhaps the best dogs for the purpose are good sized beagles. These enterprising fellows are unexcelled as trailers and have fine voices, while they are just large enough to have the necessary speed. The very small beagles will trail enthusiastically and make fine music, but they are comparatively slow. Moreover, their short underpinning is not the best pattern for work in deep snow, in which the cream of the hunting is usually to be had. The very small beagle is a dear little dog, true, game and interesting, but he shows to best advantage on the trail of the cottontail.—Outing.
