The Bayboro Sentinel.

— Peace, Prosperity and Happiness.— Equal and exact justice to all men.— Jefferson.—

VOL. 3

BAYBORO. PAMLICO COUNTY, N. C. THURSDAY DEC. 15, 1904.

No. 35

Kershaw, N. C., Dec. 12th 1904.

Dear Editor,— News is very scarce this week.

Mrs. R. L. Harris went to New Bern Friday.

Mr. S. E. Harris has rented his farm to John Perry of Washington, N. C.

I expect Stephen will give the girls a good time next year.

Mr. R. L. Harris has been suffering with rheumatism this week. It makes me sorry for poor Bob.

Mr. E. J. Delamar has been shipping evergreens to the Northern markets this week.

Wiley Harris has been sick with a cold this week and could not attend school.

Mr. L. H. Perry has got the lumber to build his new house.

BLUE EYES,

Maribel, N. C.

Mr. Editor, I will except your proposition, if I can get news enough to write about.

Mr. John S. Rice and wife visited their daughter at Malia last week.

Mr. Baxter Armstrong the Pioneer huntsman has almost broke the record, he says he has killed 59 squirrelrels; and 54 black birds at one shot, Baxter is a second Daniel Boone.

Mr. Jas. Lincoln our model farmer has the finest lot of pink and white bliss potatoes that has been produced in this section. Mr. Lincoln is also preparing for an extensive poultry business.

Cotton picking is about over and the extreme low price is causing many cases of the blues.

Will some reader of the Sentinel answer two questions, viz. How many times does the word Revrent appear in the Bible and how many chapters in both Old and New Testament.

Success to the Sentinel and wishing its editor a merry Christmas.

MINGO.

Messick, N. C., Dec. 12th 1904.

Bayboro Sentinel, I passed over the oyster bottoms from the mouth of Big Bay Creek to the mouth of Derwes creek a distance perhaps of three miles, 15 or 20 years ago there was just immense quantities of the finest oysters along on these bottoms. I don't think that I saw one tub of oysters all together on my recent trip, the oysters are all gone, there may be oysters in the deep water, I could not see bottom and could not tell.

Mr. James Whealton, Dewit Mayo and Lemon Carawan have returned home from Kimberly hights, Tenn. The college which they were attending at that place was burned and they have returned home.

Mr. W. T. Mayo and T. A. Sawyer went over Saturday evening to Lowland to attend a meeting of the Charitable Brotherhood.

The latest is that our Sunday school is to have a Xmas tree.
