Don't Hit Us So Hard.

The Raleigh Morning Post in its editorial column has this to say.

Southport is the practical and logical point for a coal station. It can be developed cheaper than anywhere else and will be better when it is done.—Raleigh Post.

Now we can't accept each and every word contained in above twenty seven words from the Post. We file our protest to several of the most important words in this Twenty-seven, and will ask Brother Philips to please get an atlas containing the Map of the State of North Carolina and about one hundred miles, from South Port about North, N. E. he will see Beaufort. Then Bro. after finding it, study its surroundings and you will no doubt correct your editorial somewhat.

Our people in these parts ought to be looking after this matter and that Beaufort is not lost in this shuffle.

Against Street Fairs.

The New Bern Journal of the 16th inst has a timely and well suggested editorial against Carnivals and Streets Fairs. The Journal is correct in every word it says against this particular kind of amusements, and a good deal more could be said. Even country people coming into the city, in vehicles, with women and children, horses not used to the scenes are liable to get frightened and entangled and loss of life liable to ensue. We on one occasion witnessed what came near proving a fatal accident of this kind. We like amusements of all kinds of fest among the many thousand the Circus. But do not block up your public thorough-fares with any of them, there is not a street in New Bern any too wide or even wide enough for the public good, they certainly need no blockading with Carnival structures or obstructions of any other kind.

State of Maine Telephone Law.

It seems from the following which we clip from the News and Observer that even way up in the State of Maine, that the Telephones have their troubles, as well as creating troubles. The Raleigh News and Observer contains the following:

"Maine has a law to prevent any person from being 'wantonly harassed, irritated or vexed' by means of the telephone." This means that there will be only one telephone in a town, owned or regulated by the aldermen.

It looks like the Hello girls up in that State must have been doing some of the Maine Statesmen up, to get them to pass such a law as the above. The words wantonly harassed, irritated or vexed, carries a lot of something with them, and as North Carolina has been following in the footsteps of Main in some other legislation, it may not prove a surprise to many when the legislature of North Carolina presumes to pass such a law in this State. All people have rights you know.

The Garden of Eden,

It is reported that one of Harvey, N. D.'s fastidious, newly-married ladies kneads bread with her gloves on. This incident may be somewhat peculiar, but there are others. The editor of this paper needs bread with his shoes on. He needs bread with his shirt on. He needs bread with his pants on, and unless some of the delinquent subscribers of this "Old Rag of Freedom" pay up before long, he will need bread without a damn thing on and North Dakota is no Garden of Eden in the winter time.—From a leading North Dakota Newspaper.

We hope all our delinquent subscribers will read this and just imagine what a pretty figure we would be cutting if we were out on parade dressed as our Bro. in his closing remarks has depicted.

We are mighty close on to that stage; and do hope those who do owe us a little bit, let it be ever so little come up and pay up. We can't live on air alone nor dress entirely with sunshine.

The Frost.

We see from our exchanges that the frosts on last Sunday and Monday night destroyed the Georgia Peach and Mellon and Truck crops, and also the same in South Carolina. The Strawberry, Bean, and Potato crops in this State has been badly damaged.

Snow fell in Raleigh, and Greensboro, it was one inch deep, and at Asheville it was four inches deep. A heavy freeze at Norfolk, and the truck in that locality was badly damaged. Now who knows but what after all there will be more money for what we do make. Short crops sometimes brings in the most money—don't get discouraged it might have been worse.
