Essentials.

"A married woman should see that she has all kitchen requisites as she starts housekeeping." "Yes, even to a husband who washes the dishes for her."—Judge.

Real Life.

To work, to help and to be helped, to learn sympathy through suffering, to learn faith by perplexity, to reach truth through wonder—Behold! This is what it is to prosper, this is what it is to live.—Phillips Brooks.

Joint Snake's Tail is Fragile.

The joint snake, or glass snake, is a limbless lizard of the southern United States, superficially resembling the snake. It is so called from its fragility, the tail easily breaking into small pieces.

Exclusively American.

The production of maple sugar and maple sirup is purely an American industry, Canada being the only country other than the United States where they are made.

Light Fire Without Wood.

Soak a porous stone in a pan of kerosene, then place it among the furnace coals and ignite it. It starts the fire easily and can be used over and over again.

Industrial Problem.

One of the most important industrial problems of the day is that of obtaining coke from the so-called "non-soking" coals. Thus far the mystery has been solved by the use of coal field coke. Like others do not have never been fully solved.

Influence of Art.

Jud Tjykins says the moving pictures have shown so many different phases of life that he can't get a man to hoe corn who doesn't put on airs like an actor.

Mining Glossary.

A mining glossary just issued by the bureau of mines contains 20,000 terms and 30,000 definitions, covering both technical and local usages in various branches of the mining and mineral industry.

Empire Teaches Ten Commandments. In almost every part of the British Empire provision is made for children to learn the ten commandments in school hours. A new Zealand circular urges that "a knowledge of these laws is in the interests of character building and good citizenship, and is also an aid to good government."

Houses Built of Rosewood.

A church building, a courthouse and forty dwellings, that comprise the settlement on Pitcairn Island, in the eastern part of the South Pacific, are built entirely of rosewood. The furniture is made of the same rare wood, which grows plentifully on the island.
