INVENTIVE GENIUS ROBS CALOMEL OF NAUSEA AND DANGER

Doctors' Favorite Medicine Now
Purified and Refined from All Objectionable Effects. "Calotabs"—the New Name.

What will human ingenuity do next? Smokeless powder, wireless telegraphy, horseless carriages, colorless iodine, tasteless quinine—now comes nausealess calomel. The new improvement called "Calotabs" is now on sale in all stores. For biliousness, constipation and indigestion the new Calotab is a practically perfect remedy, as evidenced by the fact that the manufacturers have authorized all druggists to refund the price if the customer is not "perfectly delighted" with Calotabs. Calotab at bedtime with a swallow of water—that's all. No taste, no nausea, no griping, no salts. By morning your liver is healthy, cleansed and you are feeling fine with a hearty appetite. For what you please—no danger—go about your business. Calotabs are not sold in bulk. Get an official package, sealed. Price, thirty-five cents.

IT'S WRONG FOR WOMEN TO SUFFER

And women NEED not suffer from the ills peculiar to the sex. STELLA VITAE is an eminent doctor's prescription that for three generations has been RELIEVING suffering women and keeping young girls from BECOMING suffering women. Sold by your druggist; upon the distinct agreement that if the FIRST BOTTLE gives no benefit, he will refund the money. STELLA VITAE can do no HARM, even if it does no good. Why not TRY it—instead of suffering? Mrs. Susie Sutton, of Dunmore, Ky. says: "I couldn't stand on my feet an hour without lying down, I used one bottle of STELLA VITAE and now I can be on my feet all day." THACHER MEDICINE CO. ### STUCK IN THEIR MEMORIES

American Slang Phrases That Became Popular Among the Filipinos and Frenchmen.

"All right" was generally the first English phrase the French picked up from American troops. "All right" answers probably a quarter of the questions that an American is called upon to reply to. In the great mass of jargon in a strange tongue, it stood out on account of constant repetition. The Filipinos were wont to practice it, over their cognac and vin blanc glasses. In place of their own "tres bien," and yell it out to the Yankees on the side of the cafe.

As the French mastered "all right," so the Filipinos took up "gangway" during the American occupation of the Philippine Islands 20 years ago. Pursuing rough-house tactics that were not permitted during the last war in France, the American troopers would go down the streets of the island towns, pushing the natives into the gutter and yelling "gangway!" It became so that whenever a native heard "gangway" half a mile off, he immediately began to make way for the gang.

During the insurrection, at the height of one of the rebels' "offensives," the American troops were astonished to see a great swarm of Aguinaldo's soldiers come rushing over the top, waving hats and spears and yelling "Gangway! Gangway!"

The Filipinos thought "gangway" was a vile American curse word. They later decided that "Oh, Fred Fineman and his Twentieth Kansas Doughboys ought care even if they were sworn to—Ralph Duffy in House Report.

Protect the Song Birds.

Song birds may be protected from cats by stringing four or five strands of barbed wire around the tree trunks. Cats have a great dislike for barbed wire and will not cross it. The wire will not harm the trees and can be removed when the birds leave.

A Disturber.

It was a scrubby little room, in a scrubby little part of a scrubby little city's suburbs, and the London traveler didn't approve at all.

When he went to wash he found that there was no water for the basin, no soap to wash with, and no towel to dry himself with.

So he rang. Five minutes interim bringing no answer, he rang again and then again and again, until his arm ached. At the end of 20 minutes a waiter of forbidding aspect opened the door.

"Did you ring?" he inquired in a bass, rumbling voice.

"Of course I did!" snapped the London visitor.

"Well," said the waiter as he withdrew, "don't do it again! You'll wake the maids!"—London Tit-Bits.

Lightheaded Customer.

A Jeffersonville merchant has recently placed an automatic weighing machine in front of his store. A few days ago a citizen was observed standing on the machine and closely scrutinizing the dial. His hat was in his hand, although the thermometer marked a low temperature, and a passerby asked him why he had his hat off. "I want to see what I weigh without my outdoor garments," said the citizen blandly. His interlocutor walked away, muttering: "He wouldn't weigh much less if he took his head off as well."—Indianapolis News.

Tomato Juice for Babies.

Dr. Alfred F. Hess of New York says that canned tomatoes are good for babies. Orange juice is commonly given to them, for they need something of this sort to prevent such diseases as scurvy, and Dr. Hess has found that canned tomatoes serve the same purpose. He told the State Medical society that he gives about an ounce a day to infants that have passed their first month, especially to those whose mothers are not nursing them.

VILLAGE OVERRUN BY DOGS

Housewives of Silver Lake, New York, Had to Guard Kitchens From the Hungry Animals.

The hamlet of Silver Lake, on the outskirts of White Plains, N. Y., is all "bet" up because of the large number of dogs that have migrated to that section, according to the New York Evening Sun. In the daytime they forage through the town and at night they make sleep impossible by their howling.

Silver Lake has a population of about 500 persons, and it is said that there are 141 dogs, one lap poodle and half a dozen bounds by actual count. A staid old resident says that there is every kind of a dog imaginable in Silver Lake—small ones, big ones, short ones, long ones, dogs with no tail and one eye, lean ones and fat ones, but mostly lean ones.

This great influx of dogs to Silver Lake has created many nuisances. In fact, the housewives don't dare leave their kitchen doors unlocked or half a dozen hungry mutts will be roaming around trying to find something to eat. The story is told of how one woman baked a raisin pie for supper for her husband. She left it on the kitchen table to cool while she went about her household duties. A little later she heard a great commotion, and when she went to the kitchen she found half a dozen hungry canines, big and little, fighting for the last remain of her pie. She struck them with a broom, but that did not do any good, because they had her pie.
