Sincerity and Intelligence.
Where there is sincerity, there must be intelligence; where intelligence is, it must lead to sincerity.—Chinese Classics, translated by Rev. David Collie.

Let Us Pursue It.
Let us not confine ourselves to barren words in recognition of virtue. While we see the right and approve it, too, let us dare to pursue it.—Charles Sumner.

Somebody's Ears Are Burning.

Light Fire Without Wood.
Soak a porous stone in a pan of kerosene, then place it among the furnace coals and ignite it. It starts the fire easily and can be used over and over again.

The Law of Nations.
In the law of nations every nation is just so much interested as every citizen in the laws of his country.—Daniel Webster.
