MR. AND MRS. GIRAFFE

"We are known as the Nubian or three-horned giraffes," said Mr. Giraffe.

"Oh, very well," said Mrs. Giraffe. "It really doesn't matter to me."

"It doesn't matter to me," said Mr. Giraffe. "I was only telling you a fact."

"Thank you, thank you kindly," said Mrs. Giraffe.

"You're welcome, you're very welcome," said Mr. Giraffe.

Now, as you can readily guess, from this conversation, the giraffes are very stupid.

In fact, many people and keepers think they are more stupid than any other animals.

"How tall are you?" asked Mrs. Giraffe.

"I'm between fourteen and fifteen feet in height," said Mr. Giraffe.

"You are a couple of inches shorter. But we're both growing all the time."

"Seems to me," said Mrs. Giraffe, "that it's a very silly way to tell a creature's height by feet."

"I always get so confused when the keeper tells people how many feet I am."

"I look down at my feet to see if I have twelve by mistake and then remember he is talking about height."

"Never mind," said Mr. Giraffe, "though we are so big we are very quick about getting down and getting up. We always keep our front feet and our right hind foot under us, but our hind left foot we leave free—so that we can get up in no time at all."

"We're clever in that way," said Mrs. Giraffe.

"I suppose," Mr. Giraffe continued, "that although we are stupid we have a great deal to be thankful for."

"We are most interesting looking. Children absolutely adore us!"

"They think we are too funny for words, with our great long necks."

"Perhaps we haven't many brains," said Mrs. Giraffe, "because all the room was taken up by our necks."

"Nonsense," said Mr. Giraffe, "brains don't come in necks."

"I didn't say they came in the necks," said Mrs. Giraffe.

"I remarked that so much room was given to us for our necks that they

"We Are Most Interesting Looking."

couldn't bother about attending to the brains in our heads.

"They became weary when they reached the top."

"Silly idea," grinned Mr. Giraffe.

"But no matter. There are things we agree on. We both like barley, hay, vegetables and bran."

"And though we're the most stupid of animals the ostrich and camel families are almost as stupid."

"But I'm glad we're different. We have necks unlike other creatures, legs unlike and brains quite different."

"And now, I'm going to make up a zooleet for my neighbor giraffe."

"A—what?" asked Mrs. Giraffe.

"A poem," said Mr. Giraffe, "but as I'm doing it in the zoo I shall call it a zooleet."

"Good idea for a giraffe. We might start a zooleet society in which the different animals made up zooleets."

"Well, well, another thought!" said Mr. Giraffe.

This was his zooleet.

He called it "The Giraffe."

The giraffe spoke to his neighbor: I know my brain is small; I can't have lots of everything, And I certainly am tall—

For I make up in height What I lack in brilliancy, And I've so dull an intellect That it doesn't bother me.

Conundrums

What is smaller than an ant's mouth? What goes into its mouth.

What can be driven without a whip, reins, or steering wheel? A nail.

What has a bed and never sleeps, a mouth and never drinks? A river.

Why is a shoemaker like a faithful lover? Because he's faithful to the last.

If "happiness" is the opposite of "misery," what is the opposite of "woe"? Giddap.

If your rooster laid an egg in my yard, whose egg would it be? Roosters don't lay eggs.

Why is a dog biting his tail like a good manager? Because he can make both ends meet.

Which weighs the most—a pound of feathers or a pound of lead? They both weigh the same.

CHANGE OF LIFE

Virginia Lady Improved After She Took Cardui.

"I had been going through the change of life and it seemed to me that everything was going wrong," says Mrs. Deana Hawks, of Bristol, Va. "I suffered from shortness of breath and I could not go up the steps without stopping to rest several times."

"When I would try to hoe in my garden I would soon give out. I could scarcely hoe two rows before my breath was coming in gasps."

"My sister-in-law had taken Cardui and she thought it might do me good, so she told me to try it. I got a bottle (of Cardui) and began to take it by the directions and I began to improve after a few doses. My general condition was so much better after the first bottle that I got another, and another, until I had taken six. Now I am a well woman."

"Cardui is a great medicine. Since I took it I feel like a new woman. I had had female trouble for years. I am glad to recommend to other women a medicine which has helped me."

At all drug stores.
