

ITEMS OF INTEREST FROM HARKER'S ISLAND

Mr. Maurice J. Onell, his wife and son John, have returned to their home in Henderson, N. C. so that John may attend school there. They plan to make several visits here during the fall and winter and be back for several months during the summer. They were delighted with their stay at Harkers Island this year and they are such fine folk they have come to seem as one of us. All who have met them and most of us have, have become their fast friends. They are the sort of people we welcome. Mr. Brady Willis is taking care of their house while they are away.

Captain John Nelson of the Fisheries Commission boat the Atlantic came over with a party of noted gentlemen a few days ago. In the party were Senator Simmons and two railroad men, one of the Norfolk the other of New York. The came ostensibly to see Harkers Island and the shells at Shell Point, but we are hoping they had more reasons than that.

The "boys" at the Cape Lookout Coast Guard Station have installed a $250.00 radio receiving set. There will be many nights of real entertainment receive from it, no doubt, by those who have to watch over the lives of so many on the ocean.

Some more improvements are being made at the Coast Guard Station at Cape Lookout in the form of a basement under the main building. The original cost of the building was $9000.00 the cost of the basement is to be 9000.00. So it must be fitted out very well. It is to provide for steam heat, electricity and hot water plants.

The residence being built by Richard Lewis is rapidly being erected and will soon be nearing completion. It will cost approximately $3000.00.

The Teacherage is to be well furnished it seems. Mr. Mr. Cleveland Davis has been freighting furniture for several days now.

Mrs. Essie Gaskill is in Florida where she will stay with her husband Mr. Guy Gaskill.

Messrs. Guy Gaskill, Carl Gaskill, Plymouth Guthrie, Otis Russell, Ion Lewis, Ivey Gaskill, John L. Willis and C. Lewis are in Florida in the fishing industry.

The dredge "Neverest" of the Coast Construction Co., is leaving Beaufort this week for Wrightsville carrying several of Harkers Island Citizens on Board. Captain Richard Lewis, R. W. Saunders, Carl Guthrie, Iredell Rose and Wallace Guthrie.

Mr. and Mrs. Joe J. Whitley are now living at Ocean View, Va., where Mr. Whitley is at work. Mrs. Whitley was formerly Miss Pearl Willis of Harkers Island.

There has been some work done here toward establishing a free delivery of mail. No results favorable toward this as yet has been forthcoming.

The boss of the road work here has discharged all except 4 men. Those four have it pretty lonely. Such things as that cause the people of Harkers Island to look blue and wonder what will happen in the November election. There is plenty of road material going by Harkers Point but none of it seems to stop here.

NORTHERN VISITORS ENTERTAINED.

Mr. and Mrs. H. D. Fulford, Sallie and Lydia Williams who have been visiting Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Nelson for the past two weeks have returned to Washington, D. C.

They left declaring that they enjoyed themselves fine while here. There were many suppers, dinners and parties given in their honor. The suppers were served at the following residences: Mr. and Mrs. C. A. Oden, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Jordan, Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Pickett, Mr. and Mrs. David Davis and Rev and Mrs. H. W. Turner.

Week before last, they motored to New Bern where they were met by a large number of friends who in turn made it pleasant for them while there.

PARTY GIVEN.

A party was given in honor of Miss Lydia Williams at the residence of Mr. and Mrs. Timothy Nelson, Friday night in which the young folks had a most gorgeous time.

The visitors left Monday afternoon with the expectation of coming again soon.

PARTY GIVEN.

On Wednesday evening August 25 Mrs. Sam Pickett entertained at her home on Cedar Street in honor of Mrs. Anna Fulford, Mrs. Sallie Williams and Miss Lydia Williams of Washington, D. C. The home was beautifully arranged. Delightful music was rendered by Miss Helen Davis, Miss Edith Parker and Miss Lina D. Chadwick, after which a delicious ice course was served. Those enjoying Mrs. Pickett's hospitality were: Mrs. Sara A. Ganzy of Washington, N. C., Mrs. H. W. Turner, Mrs. Timothy Nelson, Miss Mollie Jerkins. All leaving reported they had had a most enjoyable evening.

NEW FALL Stetsons

Men, we are certainly proud of our line of NEW FALL STETSONS. The name STETSON has been a symbol of GOOD HATS since away back in your Great Grandfathers days, and your father will tell you that the STETSON HAT is today the leader. A little higher priced than the ordinary hat, but you can always count on it to look just exactly right for any occasion. We GUARANTEE every STETSON hat that we sell. If it fades, or in any way does not give value for every penny that you put into it, we stand ready and willing to refund your money, in fact we want to refund your money and ask that if you are not entirely pleased, to fetch it right back to us. BUT all that is unnecessary, because we know that STETSONS never come back. Want to try it? Our STETSONS are built for the young fellow and for the more mature gentleman, always the newest styles, always the newest shades, and always the right shapes. You will be under no obligation if you will allow us to show them to you, because we are proud of them.
