I want to tell the boys and girls of Carteret County what the boys and gils of C aven.County are doing. Last week, I assisted Miss Simpson, The Hotel Commission appointed the Home Agent, and Mr. Farris, the Farm Agent, with their encampment of the Boys' and Girls' Clubs. This Encampment was held at Neuse Forest near New Bern. There were about one hundred and fifteen chil. dren present. They formed a representative group from Pig Clubs, Poultry Clubs, Canning Clubs and THISTLEROY WRECK Sewing Clubs. They were there from the ages of ten to eighteen; and the range in weight was from forty to two hundred. The two hundred pound boy was the baby of the group.

Each boy and girl brought a chicken and a vegetable of some kind from home and paid one dollar extra. When all of the corn, potatoes, butterbeans, tomatoes, apples, pears, preserves, jellies and pickles had been assembled in the pantry one would have thought that there was enough to feed Sherman's Army, but it took careful planning on the part "come out even" and still give the youngsters plenty to eat. The one dollar from each person went to pay for bread, rolls, lemons, ice and ice cream, milk for cocoa and sugar for the lemonade and coffee. We used GETS GOOD START 300 pounds of ice, six gallons of ice cream, and a peck of lemons every day. We called these our luxuries, but by the way the boys called for more lemonade, one would have thought that it was a necessity. When the whistle sounded at six

All of these individuals who remained in the county have been required to report to the health department or to a private physician for treatment. During the month of August 76 injections of neoarsphenamine have been given by the health department. Since the department was created in this county 80 cases of venereal diseases have been reported to the State Board of Health. Our vaccination campaign has not been as successful as it should have been. We haven given 195 complete typhoid vaccinations, 71 small pox, 196 complete toxin-antitoxin (Diphtheria). There is a good number taking the vaccinations at present and some who have completed a series during September. During the early part of the school year we hope Cham

PREACHER KILLS PRISONER

( BY M. L. SHIPMAN) Releigh, N. C., September 6-The return of Governor McLean from his vacation marked the resumption testified that Martin did not strike of activities in official circles during the week. In addition Raleigh had its own excitement of another nature, the killing of a convict by a preacherdeputy under somewhat unusual cir. cumstances. The whole Capital this week turned its eyes toward Smith in which he was charged with Eastern North Carolina where the an assault upon a boy, the son of tobacco markets open this week and den weed is expected to spell prosperity for the tobacco counties this year. A good price is looked for by growers who have followed the opening of the markets further South.

The Governor marked his return with an informal dinner for news. paper men and he took occasion at that time to discuss affairs of State in general manner. He was feeling greatly benefitted by his sojourn in Wisconsin where he devoted himself to toil of a nature which would tire an ordinary man. Physically, however, the Governor is far from an ordinary man. During the week the Executive handled a number of important matters. He accepted three invitations to speak at farmer's gatherings, at Kirby Farmers Club at Conway on Sept. 7, farmers picnic at Friendship in Alamance county on September 10 and at Wilkes county fair at Wilkesboro on September 30. He granted to Jesse Wyatt, former Raleigh police officer who shot Stephen Holt of Smitheld mistaking him for a rum runner, a full pardon. This will only relieve Wyatt of 20 days of his sentence but it will place him in position to apply to court for restoration of citizenship. The Governor went over plans for fire-proof_ ing buildings of State Hospital and it is expected this work will be let to contract when final plans are in shape. To six prisoners he granted paroles and refused elemency in 21 cases, the number having accmulated during his absence and having been investigated by Pardon Commissioner Sink. He addressed the Raleigh er of Commerce and urged importance of a landing field for aeroplanes. It had been announced that the Department of Commerce had decided to make Raleigh a stop for airplanes. The Governor got to work to back the Board of Education in order to get lower prices for school books. The immediate result was the lowering of prices by one concern and the filing of injunction proceedings stopping the others from selling at higher prices than in other states pending a hearing on the question on September 14. The Governor is gratified that the dairying industry is growing in the State and hopes for its further advancement. That taxes are still rolling into the treasuries of the United States and North Carolina from people of the State is indicated by the report of collections for the past month. Federal collections again took a large jump and during July and August $32,909,000 was collected. The State collected in August $879,407 .-91 which was an increase of more than two hundred thousand over the same month last year. The Auto License Bureau collected in August $1,353,923.00 which was an increase of about $450,000 over the same month last year. Quite a sensation was caused du-ing the week by the fatal wounding of J. B. Vickers, convict of Char. lotte, by Rev. George Wood, pastordeputy of Lenoir county. Wood was returning the man to prison after he had been captured after making his escape. The man made another break for freedom and it was while being recaptured that he was shot. Wood declared the shooting was accidental. The several witnesses said the guard shot in a fit of anger. Wood was bound over to Superior Court under bond on a charge of murder when iVckers died of his wounds. Wood had been appointed a deputy in connection with welfare work he had been doing among prisoners. Miss Elizabeth Kelly, well known in the State, declares that the main trouble with the North Carolina school system is political bossism and greed. She declares the question is not how do we compare with other states but where did we start, how far have we gone and where are we going. She says answers to these
