

A Faithful Follower

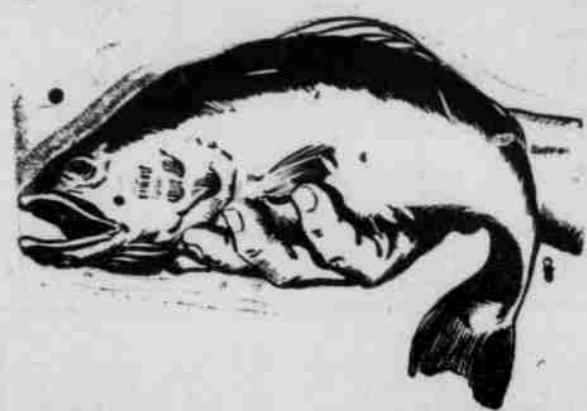

Mae Willis of Portsmouth, Virginia Salter, Neva Smith and Mary Salter of Atlantic, Messrs. Otis Willis, Ernest Salter, Lovie Dixon, and Elmo Gilgo of Portsmouth, and Messrs. Edwin Salter, Almond Robinson, Charlie Salter, Edward Mason and Ben Salter of Atlantic. Every one thoroughly enjoyed the ice cream, music and dancing, and we hope the Atlantic boys and girls will visit us again.

The county agents of the State college extension service brought thousands of dollars into North Carolina this spring by marketing the surplus poultry in carload lots.

Renew Your Health by Purification

Any physician will tell you that "Perfect Purification of the System is Nature's Foundation of Perfect Health." Why not rid yourself of chronic ailments that are undermining your vitality? Purify your entire system by taking a thorough course of Calotabs,—once or twice a week for several weeks—and see how Nature rewards you with health. Calotabs are the greatest of all system purifiers. Get a family package, containing full directions. Only 35 cts. At any drug store. (Adv.)

On Saturday afternoon July 2nd about 4:30 o'clock the death angel came and took from us one of our oldest citizens, Mr. Robert J. Wade. He was ill about a week. Mr. Wade was born September 14th 1849 being 77 years, 9 months and 18 days old. He was the son of the late Benjamin and Artily Wade of this community. He was married to the late Sarah E. Willis in 1869, and to this union were born nine children—five girls and four boys. Out of this number seven are living to mourn his loss. They are Mrs. Mary J. Piner, Mrs. Regenia Piner, Mrs. Mervina Fulcher, Mrs. Irene Willis, Mr. James W. and Charlie C. Wade of Williston and Mr. Orlando Wade of Morehead City, N. C. He also leaves one brother Mr. Isaiah Wade of Morehead City. Thirty three grand children, seventeen great grand children and several nieces and nephews and a host of friends who regret his death.

In early life he joined the Methodist church here and remained a faithful member until his death. He had a splendid character and was loved by all who knew him.

He was laid to rest in the family burying ground in the church yard Sunday afternoon, July 3rd amidst a large concourse of relatives and friends and neighbors from different parts of the county. As a tribute of respect from his many friends his grave was covered with beautiful floral offerings.

Funeral services were conducted by Reverend L. L. Smith of Beaufort.
