THE BEAUFORT NEWS

PITTS-SKARREN

The home of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Skarren on Ann Street was abloom with a variety of summer flowers, when the marriage of their daughter, Edith to Mr. Charles O. Pitts was solemnized in a beautiful, though simple ceremony at ten o'clock Wednesday morning.

The bride was never more lovely, than when she entered with the groom. She was gowned in a creation of rose beige, with accessories to match.

Rev. Leland L. Smith, pastor of Ann Street M. E. Church, officiated, using the impressive ring ceremony. Mrs. Pitts is the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Skarren. She graduated in 1923 from Beaufort High School and later attended East Carolina Teachers College, Greenville, N. C., and business college in Norfolk, Va.

The groom, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Pitts of Memphis, Tenn., attended the schools of Memphis and Dennis, Miss., and in the past few years has held a government position.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Pitts left by motor for Canada, after which tour, about September 1st, they will be at home in Norfolk, Va.

WHAT Does Your Baby EAT?
DOCTORS, who are baby specialists, are advising the feeding of strained vegetables to supplement the milk diet which frequently fails to supply the food elements needed by a growing baby.

Is Your Baby Thriving?
In Clapp's Approved STRAINED VEGETABLES, prepared exclusively as baby foods, the high percentage of potassium, phosphorus and calcium are preserved—these are the building elements. Home cooked products vary in food value and make a woeful lot of work. Here you get surgical standards of cleanness and standardized food values. No medicine or drugs—just wholesome foods.

Put up in convenient 4 oz. cans, ready for you to prepare as advised by your doctor. Far cheaper than trying to make your own.
