ARMY SERGEANT CONVICTED OF KILLING WOMAN

Fayetteville, July 24—William P. Hendley, army sergeant from Fort Bragg, was found guilty of manslaughter by a jury in Superior court here late this afternoon at the conclusion of his trial for the death of Mrs. James S. McNeill, of Lumberton, who was killed instantly in an automobile collision on the night of May 29. Judge N. A. Sinclair will pronounce sentence later during the special term of court.

The fatal accident occurred near Sandy Run when the soldiers struck the car occupied by Mrs. McNeill and her family. Hendley's defense was based on the allegation that the McNeill car was on the left side of the left side of the road when it rounded a curve.

Father Sage Says:

If some people did nothing but mind their own business they would soon become rather narrow-minded.

NINE YEAR OLD GIRL KILLED BY AUTO

Wilson, July 24—Esther Brantley, 9, was killed this morning as a result of being struck by an automobile, and Elsie Strickland, 12, her companion, is in a local hospital with a fractured leg and other injuries.

Jim Smith negro, is being held in jail in default of $1,500 bail. He is charged with carelessly and recklessly driving an automobile.

The negro lost control of his car, which ran over the two children, it was said. The little Brantley child died a few minutes after being struck.

MAN ARRESTED FIVE YEARS AFTER CHARGE

Greensboro, July 24—Five years ago Elwood Brothers, 25, was arrested on a charge of violating the Federal prohibition law. The charge was not so very serious but Brothers failed to show up and his bond of $200 was forfeited, and a capias issued for his arrest.

Brothers today accidentally encountered deputy United States Marshal Ira Johnson. He is now in jail in default of $500 bail and faces trial at the next term of United States District Court.

SNAKE BITTEN MULE BREAKS FROM STABLE, DROPS DEAD

Clinton, July 20—A snake bite proved fatal to a mule belonging to Rice Honeycutt, who lives in Hall's township, Sampson county. The mule broke out of the stall after being attacked by the snake and fell dead in the yard of a neighbor. The snake was found in the stable and killed soon after it had bit the mule.

NOE—PARIS

Oriental, July 23—Characterized by impressiveness and simplicity was the marriage which took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. D. S. Paris, Oriental, N. C. Saturday morning July 20th at 6 o'clock; when their daughter Rovea Lucille Paris became the bride of Mr. L. J. Noe Jr., of Beaufort, N. C.

Rev. L. L. Smith, pastor of Ann Street Methodist Church South of Beaufort officiated at the services. Only a few friends and near relatives of the bride were present.

Prior to the ceremony, Mrs. Ned Delamar, friend of the bride sang, "At Dawning," accompanied by Mrs. G. A. Perry of Oriental at the piano. To the strains of the wedding march from Lohengrin the bride and groom descended the stairs and entered the living room together. The bride wore a lovely in a traveling dress of light brown flat crepe, with accessories to match and carried an arm bouquet of pink and white roses. "To a Wild Rose," was played softly during the ceremony.

The living room was beautifully decorated with cut flowers, ferns and geraniums. In one corner of the room a high bank of ferns and cut flowers in baskets tied with white tulle, was arranged coming gradually down into a semi-circle in which the bride, groom and minister stood during the ceremony. Various other pot flowers were artistically placed about the room. The whole scene was made more impressive by the dim glow of candles about the living room.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Noe left by automobile for Washington City where they will spend several days honeymoon. They will make their home in Beaufort where Mr. Noe is employed in the Postoffice.

PRESBYTERIANS PLEASED BY REVEREND W. M. HYDE

Morehead City, July 22—Rev. W. M. Hyde, a minister of the Northern

Presbyterian church and father of Dr. Frank E. Hyde, preached last Sunday morning at the Morehead City Presbyterian church a sermon of unusual interest and power to a congregation that very well filled the Chapel on the corner of Arendell and twenty fifth streets.

The preacher of the hour used for his text the phrase in 1 Corinthians 1:23, "We preach Christ crucified." Our hearts were warmed as we listened to the sermon of inspiration and power from one of God's honored servants. The hearers could truthfully say with the apostles of old, "Did not our heart burn within us, while he talked with us by the way, and while he opened to us the Scriptures?"

MERRIMON

We had a tremendous big rain Sunday and Sunday night. It rained Saturday. There was no Sunday School or preaching. There has been very little farm work or woods either done this week so far.

Mrs. Mary J. Wyatt of Norfolk is in our burg this week.

Capt. H. B. Salter made his regular trip to New Bern Tuesday.

Mr. Jim Briggs was in our burg Tuesday.

Capt. Alex Truitt went to Beaufort Tuesday.

Rev. J. W. Downum failed to get to his appointment Sunday on account of the bad weather (rain).

Geo. Tosto was at Merrimon Wednesday morning.

Recent tests of ways to reduce impact noises in buildings have shown that such noises as arise from walking or vibration of machinery can be reduced by addition of a floating floor and a suspended ceiling.
