WOMEN FREED OF IMMORAL CHARGES

(Continued from page one) time of the raid. Both Gaskill and Davis said that there were six or eight men in the house at the time of the first raid.

Two other witnesses were examined but said that they knew nothing about the women.

Frances Jordan said that both she and Jeannette Martin are married and that their husbands were in the North. She also said the man found by Deputy Gaskill in the room with the Martin woman was the latter's husband. The liquor was carried there, she said, by a traveling salesman and the presence of the other men could be explained by the fact that they were having a party.

Jeannette Martin said that she is married, that the man found in the room with her was her husband, who left the next day for Philadelphia to resume work. She said she knew nothing about the liquor being in the house.

Leonard Fulcher, a Coast Guardsman, said he was sent to the home of the defendants Saturday night by an officer and that he saw Frances Jordan sell three drinks of liquor and receive pay for them about eleven o'clock, which was about two hours before the sheriff raided the place.

Both the defendants then were placed on the stand and said that they had never seen Fulcher and that he had never been in their home.

Sheriff Davis followed them with the testimony that Leonard Fulcher is of good reputation.

Judge Hill charged the jury and it retired and, after deliberating over an hour, brought in the verdict of not guilty.

Howard Eudy was charged with driving a car recklessly and in excess of the state speed limit. State Highway Patrolmen Crum and Duncan said that Eudy drove his car on the Morehead City Highway bridge at the rate of forty miles an hour and that he speeded up to sixty when he reached the causeway. Eudy was fined twenty-five dollars and cost.

Dan Chadwick was charged with possession and transporting liquor on the 12th of April. His attorney, Luther Hamilton, entered a plea of not guilty. The Chief of the Morehead City Police Force stated that he was summoned by citizens of that city who saw a drunken man James Brown in the car owned by the defendant's father and which was parked in front of Huffman's Pharmacy. The defendant and a New Bern man named Watson were both up the street and were drinking. A half-gallon fruit jar almost full of whiskey was removed from under the feet of Brown by the Chief. He said he didn't see Chadwick either drive or occupy the car.

Perry Godwin testified to the drunkenness of the three men.

James C. Willis said he saw the chief remove the whiskey from the car and kept it for him while he escorted the men to the City Hall.

Chadwick said that Brown drove the car and that it had been standing at the curb between fifteen and thirty minutes before he was apprehended. He testified that he knew nothing about the liquor being in the car and that his drinks came from other sources in Morehead City.

Young Chadwick was fined twenty-five dollars and cost of court, but his attorney took an appeal to the Superior Court.

McKinley Godett, colored, was charged with assaulting W. C. Davis, also colored, with a deadly weapon, namely a razor. Godett submitted as he did in Police Court last Friday. Two witnesses were examined but they did not seem to know much about the affray. Judge Hill found him guilty of carrying a concealed deadly weapon but relieved him of the assault charge, and sentenced to sixty days in jail and work on the county roads. Prayer for judgment is to be continued and if the defendant pays a fine of ten dollars and costs of the court the jail sentence will not be enforced.

Birdie Rice plead not guilty to the charge of assaulting a Mrs. Willis with a deadly weapon, namely a brick, on the 18th of March 1929. Witnesses said that there had been friction between the two families and that on the day in question there had been an agitation of this by the children of the two families, and as a result of this Rice began throwing pieces of concrete and bricks at the house and one brick hit Mrs. Willis who was closing the door. It seemed to be a neighborhood quarrel. Rice ran away and has just been apprehended. He conducted his own defense. Judge Hill found him guilty of the charge and sentenced him to sixty days confinement in the county jail and work on the roads, but if he will pay a fine of twenty-five dollars and cost of court and be of good behavior toward the prosecutrix and her family for six months the jail and road sentence will be suspended.

A change of venue was given in the case of S. H. Newberry for giving a worthless check. The case will be tried in the Lenoir County court.

HOME

Robt. G. Ingersoll There can be no such thing in the highest sense as a home unless you own it. There must be an incentive to plant trees, to beautify its grounds to preserve and improve. It elevates a man to own a home. It gives a certain independence, a force of character that is obtained in no other way. A man without a home feels like a passenger. There is in such a man a little of the vagrant. Home makes patriots. He who has sat by his own fireside with wife and children will defend it. Few men have been patriotic enough to shoulder a musket in defense of a boarding house. The prosperity and glory of our country depend upon the number of people who are owners of homes.

TAX RELIEF MEETING HAS LARGE ATTENDANCE

According to reports some 500 delegates attend the tax relief meeting in Raleigh Monday. Carteret county was represented by C. H. Bushall, Chairman of the Board of Commissioners; D. M. Jones, member of the House of Representatives and County Judge E. Walter Hill. There were many delegates present from the eastern counties, as well as other parts of the State. Sixty six counties were represented at the meeting.

Perhaps the principal thing done at the tax meeting was the adoption of a resolution asking Governor Gardner to call a special session of the General Assembly immediately after the November election to take up the problem of tax relief. The association will undertake to raise some money to carry on the work which it has started.

ESTIMATES!

We don't just figure a bill by the selling price. We try to find out what is needed. Sometimes we suggest a lower grade that will cheapen the cost. Sometimes we suggest a better grade that will vastly improve the building. Sometimes we find not enough listed to do the work and sometimes we find too much.

When you build it is important to you — That you don't spend a dollar needlessly. That you get just what is needed to make a suitable building. That the grade of material be proper. And that the cost is right.

We don't charge for Estimates and we sell you with the idea of making a permanent friend and customer.
