RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

Suddenly on April 4, 1930 Estelle Chadwick answered the great summons and passed over into the vast unknown. She has gone from our midst and we shall miss her genial presence. A lovable girl has gone, a kind and friendly spirit has departed, a faithful member of the Ladies Aid has answered her last roll call. We are deeply sorrowing at the passing of our dear sister, but we bow in humble submission to Him who doeth all things well.

BE IT RESOLVED

1st. That we the members of Straits-Gloucester Ladies Aid would express our sorrow at the departure of our dear sister and express our appreciation of her untiring interest in the cause of all Christian work.

2nd. That we extend the sympathy of this Aid to her bereaved family, and wish to assure them that we regarded their daughter, as a loyal member of our Aid.

3rd. That a copy of these resolutions be sent the bereaved family, one to the Christian Advocate and one to the Beaufort News.

Mrs. Cora Davis,
Miss Jessie Pigott,
Mrs. Gladys Davis,
Committee.

Clams

Indians taught the Pilgrims the food value of clams, the ones used by them being the quahog, or hard shell clam, and is found south of Cape Cod. The soft-shell clam is also famous as food. Both are quite small as compared to the giant clam found on Pacific coral reefs, the shell of which may weigh 400 pounds.
