NOTICE

To my friends throughout Carteret County:

It is being rumored throughout Carteret County in a "Whisper" that I am not supporting the Democratic nominees in the General election, November 4th, 1930, and as it will be impossible for me to see each and every voter in person prior to the Election next Tuesday, I take this means to inform the public that such rumor is without foundation and is being done solely for political purposes, and I beg to say that I AM SUPPORTING EVERY DEMOCRATIC NOMINEE, AND SHALL VOTE FOR EVERY NOMINEE OF THE DEMOCRATIC PARTY IN THE GENERAL ELECTION, have urged, and do hereby request of my friends who feel an interest in the future of Carteret County, to support the Democratic ticket, with assurances that your support will be highly appreciated by me.

Very truly yours, Wm. H. BELL, Newport, N. C. Oct. 28th, 1930.

SEVERAL CANDIDATES IN FIELD FOR ATTORNEY-GENERAL'S PLACE

(Continued from page one) Kenneth Royall, Goldsboro, former Wayne county senator and recently president of the N. C. Bar Association. Mr. Ross and Mr. Bailey are said to be on the verge of announcing their candidacies. Mr. Royall sayeth nothing.

Judge Walter Siler, Chatham county, and Frank Nash, Orange county, have about eliminated themselves as possible candidates. Both are assistant Attorney Generals.

A North Carolina lawyer recently wrote to a State office here asking for copies of several laws enacted by the General Assembly, asking, among others for a copy of the "Austrian Ballad Law." He was sent a copy of the Australian Ballad Law, of course. Yes, he was a white man.

County Gas Tax Fund

The highway fund for counties from the one cent additional tax placed on gasoline by the 1929 General Assembly amounted to slightly more than $2,500,000 last year and is estimated at the same figure this year, plus the $500,000 special fund to counties, but doubt is beginning to arise as to whether the fund will reach that figure, due to the decrease in the use of gasoline and increased refunds made on non-highway gasoline-using machinery. The decrease for the first three months of the present fiscal year is $151,741.46, as compared with the same months last year, or from $3,381,936.36 to $3,230,194.90, the drop amounting to more than $50,000 a month. Allocation of the $3,000,000 is made to the counties on the same basis of area and population for this year as last, unless the drop in gasoline tax revenues carries the total below $3,000,000. Last year the amount was above that figure, due to collections for a month or more from the preceding fiscal year. However, all of the counties had a small credit balance carried over from last year.

Carteret County's allotment was $26,640, but the county received $29,196.04, of which $27,008.84 was used for debt service—bonds and interest, and $2,187.20 was brought over into this year as a credit balance, which has since been used.

Hunting Licenses

North Carolina received $203,433.60 in receipts from hunting licenses for the past fiscal year from 1,275 non-resident hunters, 27,908 who secured State wide licenses and 96,326 who got licenses for one county only, in addition to $5,423 from fur dealers' licenses. Forsyth county led with $7,849.50 intotal game receipts and Guilford was second with $7,754.25.

Carteret County game receipts totaled $3,971.75, received from 170 State-wide licenses issued, 923 county licenses and 167 non-resident licenses and none from fur dealers' licenses, the annual report of Chas. H. England, State game warden, shows.

More than 2,000 Kiwanians and ladies of the Carolinas district are expected in Raleigh November 6-8 for the 10th annual meeting, to be featured by the presence of International President Raymond M. Crossman, and Mrs. Crossman; Roe Fulkerson, the "Will Rogers of Kiwanis" and Mrs. Fulkerson, and Franklin S. Kean, Field Service Department of Kiwanis International.

Preliminaries, including golf, will feature Thursday afternoon, the 6th, followed by a get-together frolic, led by Roe Fulkerson, and a dance at night. Business sessions will be held Friday and Saturday mornings and Friday afternoon, with presidents' secretaries' and trustees' conferences at noon Friday. The banquet Friday evening will be at Meredith College, followed by the big ball at the Sir-Warner hotel at 10 P. M.

Entertainment features, largely for the ladies, for Thursday afternoon are golf matches, theatre parties, frolic and dance at night; for Friday: automobile tour of city and airplane rides, luncheon at Woman's Club, theatre parties, tea at Woman's Club and banquet, Meredith College, and dance, Sir Walter Hotel, at night; for Saturday, airplane rides free for all attending convention. And the Saturday afternoon football game between the University and State College at Chapel Hill.

Special Court Terms

Governor Gardner has addressed a letter to presidents of local bars, clerks of Superior Court and chairmen of Boards of County Commissioners, asking them to confer and advise him by November 20 as to needs of special terms of court in their counties for the spring term of 1931, naming the date, length of term desired and whether civil or criminal, in order that the calendar may be made out for special judges.

All five of the special judges in the State have joined with practically all of the regular judges in asking the voters to support the two proposed constitutional amendments, one increasing the Supreme Court justices from five to seven, the other providing that solicitorial and judicial districts need not be co-terminus, to be voted on November 4. The purpose of the second is to provide about four additional regular judges and eliminate the present provision for six special judges.

Carteret County had a total of 102 marriages in 1929, as compared with 121 marriages in 1928, and 8 divorces in 1929, as compared with 6 divorces in 1928, the U. S. Department of Commerce announces.

AWAKE: CHRISTIAN AMERICA! (Stanley High)

It took America's churches seventy-five years to destroy the legalized liquor traffic.

Today the wets boast that it will take only ten years to restore that traffic to "good standing."

They count on it that the crusading spirit has gone out of the Christian church.

They may be right.

It may be that the church of today is too weak or too indifferent to the issues of righteousness to maintain the moral reform that the church of yesterday made possible. It may be that organized Christianity, in this land, will be forced to make way for a triumphant return of the liquor business. It may be that America, once again, will enshrine the liquor shop on its street corners; legalize liquor corruption in its political life and fasten, again, all the ancient miseries of liquor upon America's homes. If that happens we will stand ready to agree that the crusading spirit has gone out of the Christian church. For only the unconcerned of the Christian church could allow that to happen.

If this outlawed business comes again under the shelter of the American flag, its social stench and viciousness will stand as a symbol of the impotence of the Christian church, as proof that the professed zeal of Christians is exhausted in the profession.

Bue we will not concede that America's church people will allow this to happen. We do not believe that the fires kindled by Lyman Beecher, Frances Willard, John B. Gough and the generation of yesterday's prophets have entirely burned out. We believe that the old flame can be stirred again and spread with the old passion for Christian righteousness until the menace of liquor to our national life is finally destroyed.

Liquor's fight, now as always, is against the Christian church. The answer to that challenge must be provided by you, the individual church member, and your church. Your church is called, in this crisis, to awaken; to shake off its lethargy; to go out, again, pulpit and pew united, to a new drive to uphold the century's greatest moral reform.

A Christian crusade outlawed the legalized liquor traffic.

Only a Christian crusade can prevent its return.

The moment to launch that crusade is upon us. Will you, by your indifference, restore the liquor traffic? Or will you choose, now, to march with the forces of righteousness against this new threat of the church's ancient enemy?

Afternoon Coat

Galyuk, which resembles moire silk because of its silky texture, is used in a dyed bisque shade for the afternoon coat shown here. The coat is trimmed with a soft shawl collar and wide flaring cuffs.

HAVE YOU TRIALS AND TEMPTATIONS, IS THERE TROUBLE ANYWHERE

If there is none now there will be when you die and leave your family in financial distress. Have you made an audit of your Life Insurance lately. If not do not delay. It may mean that you have not enough insurance to keep your income going to your family after death. $1000 insurance invested in 6 per cent non-taxable bonds only means she will draw five dollars per mo., when you are gone. Can your family live on such an income from your insurance.

Think this matter over seriously then talk it over with
