MARSHALLBERG

We are all speaking in different ways concerning the terrible forest fires and dense smoke. Yes, friends the smoke is and has been very bad but not so much so that a person driving a car or truck could not see a building as large as the public school house. But on the other hand if they didn't see it they surely felt it when they hit it so hard they knocked the corner block entirely out. Now no doubt the person is waiting to be called on to pay the damage, so I am taking this way to notify how it can be done. Please send the amount in a letter addressed "Pres. P. T. A., Marshallberg, N. C. The amount is needed badly. Miss Bernice Willis of Harkers Island spent Sunday night with relatives. Mrs. J. W.
