Of the 799 cotton growers in Lee County, 526 have signed reduction contracts to date and 215 other growers who have very small acreages have signed cards stating their willingness to cooperate.

THE QUEST.

By Ed. Adams, Broad Creek
There was once a restless boy Who dwelt in a home by the sea,
Where the water danced for joy
And the wind was glad and free:
But he said "good mother, O let me go;
For the dullest place in the world,
I know,
Is this little brown house,
This old brown house,
Under the apple tree.

I will travel east and west;
The loveliest homes I'll see;
And when I have found the best,
Dear mother, I'll come for thee, I'll come for thee in a year and a day
And joyfully then we'll hasten away
From this little brown house,
This old brown house,
Under the apple tree.

So he traveled here and there,
But never content was he.
Though he saw in lands most fair
The costliest home there be,
He something missed from the sea or sky,
"Till he turned again with a wistful sigh
To the little brown house,
The old brown house,
Under the apple tree.

Then the mother saw and smiled, While her heart grew glad and free.
Hast thou chosen a home, my child?
O where shall we dwell, quoth she?
And he said, "sweet mother, from east to west,
The loveliest home, and the dearest and best,
Is a little brown house,
An old brown house,
Under an apple tree."

Forsyth farmers report more winter plowing done to date than in many previous years. Many growers have carefully terraced their lands.

Only 20 tobacco growers in Surry County had failed to sign a reduction contract, when the last tabulation was made by the farm agent.
