The Westover Oak Tree
The massive oak tree known as the Westover Oak stands in Norfolk, Va. The Norfolk Garden club in 1923 purchased the lot on which the tree stands for $12,000, the money being donated by pupils in the public schools, members of the club and other tree lovers. The tree is not only a memorial to the American soldiers who lost their lives in the World war, but it serves to stimulate interest in the preservation of beautiful shade trees.

Prevent Getting Up Nights
A PECULIAR CLAIM
This manufacturer admits that his product may not be the best remedy for irritation of the bladder. He does know that he is selling millions of them. This could not be done unless thousands were successful. He says: "You be the judge." Get a 25c box of BUKETS. After four days, if not pleased, go back and get your money. BUKETS the bladder laxative, are made from Juniper berries, Buchu leaves, etc. They drive out impurities and excess acids. and vases of white ones on the buffet. The table was covered with a white Italian cut-work cloth and in the center was a beautiful three-tiered white wedding cake with golden decorations and 'Fiftieth Anniversary' written in gold lettering around the base. A bride and groom graced the top. The cake was baked by one of Washington's best known bakers, The Sherrill Bakery, whose owner is a native of Lenoir, North Carolina.
A salad, with sandwiches and coffee was served. On each plate was a small yellow basket of white mints. Yellow and white napkins were used and the favors for the guests were in yellow. At midnight the cake was cut and was as delicious as it was beautiful. The granddaughters, Rosalie and Janet Styron, presided at the punch bowl, serving delicious fruit punch.

Mrs. Styron was dressed in black silk crepe and wore a corsage of roses and fern. Mr. Styron wore a dark suit and had a rose-bud in his button hole. The photographers made several pictures of them which will be sent to their relatives at Davis.
They have many friends here, who wish for them many more happy years together. Numerous gifts, and cards of congratulations have been sent them.
