Dear St. Nicholas,
 Lean your ear this way, and listen to my story I am going to say.
 I have been hanging my stocking every Christmas eve night expecting you to bring me a pretty doll, and you have disappointed me so bad.
 I am six years old Santa and I never have owned a doll. I love dolls, they are so sweet in the shops that I almost cry for one.
 Santa I am not mad with you because you have never brought me a doll. I love you just as good, will love you better if you will bring me a doll. I don't expect you to bring me an expensive one for I want you to carry the other little children something.
 Please don't forget me. I will hug your neck so sweet.
 Your little friend,
 Ila Mae Gillikin.

Dear Santa,
 It has been my greatest desire and prayer ever since I have been old enough to remember, to want a wagon all by myself.
 I am seven years old Santa, and you forgot me last Christmas. I guess I must have been playing hide and seek when you were taking names. Instead of playing this time I am praying for you Santa to bring me a wagon. I will be a good boy and love you so good.
 Your pal,
 Elton V. Gillikin.

Beaufort, Dec. 1, 1934.
 Dear Santa Claus,
 I am a girl seven years old and I go to school. I am in the second grade. Mother said I am a good girl and so I want you to be sure and come to see me and my little sister too.
 Please bring me a bathrobe, and a Fleasie Flirt and a nice warm coat, and a pair of gloves and lots of picture books.
 I don't want you to think I am selfish but I also want lots of goodies to eat. Please bring me all of these nuts, and bananas.

 Lovingly your little friend,
 Rosemary Bessent.

Hello old Santa,
 Gee! I am so happy that Christmas is almost here and too, that today I am four years old.
 Santa Claus, I am a little girl and I want a tricycle, a mama doll, an iron and a little cook stove with the sooking things to go with it. I don't have any sisters or brothers but please don't forget my mama Effie, papa, John and mother and daddy.
 Hope you will have a real nice Christmas.
 Your little pal,
 Patsy Sabiston.

Caucasian Race Hypersensitive
 The Caucasian race is hypersensitive to a wide range of substances. At least 10 per cent of it contracts asthma, hay fever, hives and eczema from eating certain foods such as eggs, milk and berries; by taking certain drugs such as quinine; and by inhaling such things as pollens, wood dust, animal dandruff, flour and talcum powder.—Collier's Weekly.

Fine Friends of Suicides
 On the theory that they must have known about it and therefore could have prevented the deed, all friends and relatives of any suicide in Afghanistan are brought into court and fined. The law is rigidly enforced.
