

A Newsy Trip Around The World

By Elizabeth Saunders

A freak bolt of lightning furnished a bountiful dinner for workers at a CCC camp near Cornwall Bridge, Conn. The bolt killed a 200-pound deer.

One cold morning in Lepseny, in Lepseny, Hungary, a cat owned by Mrs. Mihaly Kantor crept into the oven of the stove. After Mrs. Kantor had started a fire she heard queer noises and when she opened the oven door, the cat sprang out with its fur ablaze. The cat set fire to the house, which was burned to the ground.

Soon after piling newly gathered oysters on his kitchen floor in Smith Creek, N. C., J. A. Witherington heard a peculiar noise. Entering the kitchen, he found that an oyster had caught a large rat by the tail. The oyster and his captive were placed on display at a fish market.

The Smallest State in the U. S. has the Longest name—it is officially "State of Rhode Island and Providence Plantations."

Vehicles passing thru the great Holland tunnel under the Hudson river are counted and recorded by an electric traffic checker.

Robert Evans, lifer at Leavenworth penitentiary sawed thru an iron bar with a wool thread from his socks.

For killing a "voodoo doctor" Slim Woods, negro of Charleston, Mo., was sentenced to serve five years in prison. Woods contended a "love charm" for which he paid $5, failed to win the affections of a girl, and that the voodoo man, known as "Pegleg," refused to return his money.

Twenty-six states have towns by the name of Ashland, Ashland, Kentucky, is the largest, with a population of 29,074; Ashland, Mo., is the smallest.

When John O. Minnetti says he raises hogs he means just that. On his farm near Dubois, Pa., he raised an English Berkshire hog, weighing 747 pounds.

George Brady of Jamestown, Kan. was driving at the rate of 50 miles an hour. A flock of snow birds came out of a brush by the roadside and flew in front of his car. He stopped and counted 32 dead.

Award of prizes in a baby show in Lisbon, Portugal, caused a riot of mothers in which a score were badly hurt.

Adam Scott, a miner in Sydney Mines, N. S., received four letters in one mail. One told of the death of his uncle in Scotland. The other three carried news of the death of a brother-in-law in Mexico and a nephew and a brother killed in a train wreck in West Virginia.

The Rev. Charles A. Livingston, 70 of Long Island, was awarded six cents in a sander suit.

"Tiny Smith" of Goldboro claims to be the smallest person in North Carolina. Tiny was born in January and tips the scales at 32 ounces. His parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dewey Smith, feed the lightweight lad with a medicine dropper.

TO THE VOTERS OF BEAUFORT

This notice is to advise the citizens and voters of Beaufort that I will be a candidate for the office of Mayor at the May Municipal election.

If elected to this office I shall attempt to give the town the best services possible. I shall enter the office free from political combination and promises, except a promise to the public to make Beaufort a better town for its people to live in.

Respectfully,
C. H. BUSHALL,

May 2
